SERIOUS ILLNESS OF LORD BEA-CONSFIELD.

Strain on His Powers too Great for His Age.
NEW YORK, October 29.—A London special says: Air is heavy, concerning the illness of Lord Beaconsfield. The long strain made on his mental powers not only in the matter of the Berlin treaty, but in carrying on more or less acrimonious warfare with Mr. Gladstone, has seriously undermined his constitution. In this critical state of things the Cabinet has been summoned to consider what should be done, in case His Lordship's death occurs. It is now known that, after the last meeting of the Cabinet, he was attacked by epileptic fits, which nearly had the effect of bringing to an end of the eventful career of this remarkable man. So severe was the attack that it was feared his life would be endangered, if he were immediately removed. He was, therefore, compelled to remain for several hours in a waiting-room at Funchal, before it was considered safe to transfer him to his carriage. He was driven home in charge of his physician, who has since admitted that he has fears of fatal results from fatigue of this means of transport. The medical man has been criticized for not ordering an invalid carriage for his illustrious patient. A bulletin received in this city, this morning, announces Beaconsfield is better, and rapidly rallying towards the former state of his health. Much anxiety, however, prevails.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

Rain in Memphis and New Orleans.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 29.—The weather has moderated, and a light rain has been falling since early morning.
From 6 last evening until noon to-day there were seven interments. This includes deaths both in and outside of the city.
W. J. Chase, acting postmaster, was stricken with fever last night, and the wife of Capt. Tom Caldwell, who returned from Glasgow, Ky., Wednesday last, was prostrated with fever yesterday.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—

MOBILE, Oct. 29.—

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 29.—

PORTER, D. ROSE, who went to Stephenson, Ala., a nurse, died there this morning of fever.
