A Greenback Democratic Speech. Sun Correspondence.

Wilson, N. C., Oct. 29th, 1878. Judge Fowle spoke here to-day. He had a large and appreciative audience and deivered one of the finest speeches we have heard during the campaign. He was introduced by our talented townsman, H. F. Murry, Esq., as a man too well-known in North Carolina, to need introduction. He began by paying an eloquent tribute to the people of the South, and especially to their country's cause. Said the time was blustering Radical that for eight years would be lost sight of, and North and from the Superior Court Bench. He closed by calling upon every Democrat and honest Republican in his hearing to come forward and vote for Kitchen, a gentleman every way worthy to represent this district in the next Congress.

I have done the distinguished gentleman great injustice in attempting this short synopsis of his truly able speech. It should be heard to be appreciated. WILSON.
