STATE AT LARGE.
RALEIGH, Nov. 6, 1878. A. M.—Nothing has been received from Yeates' district.

Three precincts in Halifax county give O'Hara 360 majority over Kitchin. The indications are that O'Hara is elected.

S. A. ASHE.
RALEIGH, Nov. 6, 1878. A. M.—The indications are that we hold all the districts that we now have. Davis will beat Turner by his usual majority. Wake and Granville are very close, but it is quite certain that every other county in the district will give Davis a majority. Johnston gives him about 700.

The race between O'Hara, Harris and Kitchin is neck and neck with odds in favor of O'Hara.

We fear nothing from the first district. In the third district Cameron, Moore county, gives Waddell 148, Russell 48 and Canaday 4. Waddell thought to gain in Moore.

Six townships in Guilford gives Scales a gain of five, 800 majority. Rockingham gives Scales 500 majority.

Armfield gains 125 at Winston, and beats Bowman five to one at Statesville.

The returns indicated that Pierce, republican, is elected to congress.

Ballou, republican, has been re-elected to Congress in the second district, by about 800 majority over Barnard, democrat, and Smith, greenbacker. Aldrich, republican, has been elected in the first district by about 87 majority over Deas, democrat, and Layb, greenbacker.

Aldrich and Ballou, republicans, are elected from the first and second districts, respectively.

IOWA.
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The Journal's Des Moines dispatch says: So far as are positively known, the congressional elections will be held to-day in the second and ninth districts, and possibly a few friends of Weaver Gillett in the sixth and seventh will vote for Hiram Price, republican, for Congress, almost unanimously. The same is being done in Muscatine county.

A Des Moines special says: A queer election is being held there. The people met this morning, elected their own judges and clerks, opened the polls and proceeded.

CONNECTICUT.
HARTFORD, Nov. 6.—Fifty-nine towns give Hubbard 1,497; Andrews 14,915. Last year Gaston had a majority of 71. The returns from seven towns in the First District give Talbot 1,762 majority; and from five towns in the Second District give Talbot 996 majority.

BOSTON, NOV. 5.—At the close of the polls at New Bedford, the vote is as follows: Talbot, 2,191; Butler, 1,349. Last year Gaston had a majority of 71.

Later, Eighty-seven towns give Hubbard, democrat, 22,987; Andrews, republican, 23,119; Atwater, 3,420; prohibition, 498. In 1876 the same towns gave Hubbard 28,268, Robinson 26,985.

MASSACHUSETTS.
BOSTON, Nov. 5.—At the close of the polls at New Bedford, the vote is as follows: Talbot, 2,191; Butler, 1,349. Last year Gaston had a majority of 71.

The returns from seven towns in the First District give Talbot 1,762 majority; and from five towns in the Second District give Talbot 996 majority.

BOSTON, NOV. 5.—The Journal says the Republican State Central Committee have received the returns which indicate that Butler is defeated by, at least, 40,000; and it says the re-election of B. W. Harris to Congress in the Second District is assured by a large majority. Newburyport gives Butler a majority; and Worcester is conceded to Talbot.

BOSTON, NOV. 5.—A rough estimate estimate of the returns from fifty-one towns gives Talbot a majority of 2,050.

FALL RIVER, NOV. 5.—The returns from all the wards but two give Butler 2,097; Talbot 1,935. Butler's majority is about 500.

BOSTON, NOV. 5.—Lynn gives Butler a plurality of 1,096. Brocklyn gives Talbot 165; Butler 394. Natick gives Talbot 629; Butler 904. Salem gives Talbot 2,232; Butler 1,528. New Bedford gives 2,491; Butler 1,349. Seventy-two towns, including Lynn, Salem and New Bedford, and a large number of towns in the First and Second Congressional Districts give Talbot a majority of 5,597 over Butler. The election of Morse from the Fourth District is conceded.

PITTSFIELD, NOV. 5.—With a voting list of 2,150, at noon, had polled 1,100, one-half of which were Talbot's votes, and the prospects indicate that he will carry the town. A special dispatch from Lawrence says Butler will carry the city by a large plurality that was anticipated, but it will not exceed 500; few Abbott's votes being cast—most of the Abbott men going for Talbot. In Andover Talbot is ahead; and in Methuen he, also, leads. William A. Russell for Congress in the Seventh District; is running far ahead of Talbot. Lowell reports that Butler will probably carry the city by a plurality of 200 or 300. In Newburyport the vote is running closer than was anticipated, the Democrats voting largely for Talbot. With 1,200 votes cast Butler is 100 ahead, and Abbott has but 34 votes. The indications are that Butler will carry the city by 200 majority. Talbot is ahead at Haverhill with a close vote, but the indications point to a majority for Talbot. At Fall River Talbot is ahead, but his defeat in the State is now looked as certain. The rough total of ninety-eight towns received at the Press office up to 6 o'clock, give Talbot a majority of 10,255 over Butler. Selwyn Z. Bowman, Republican, is elected in the Fifth Congressional District. (Banks' old District), by probably 2,000 majority over Nathan Clark, Butler Greenbacker.

BOSTON, NOV. 5.—The vote in this city in eighty precincts which give Strong a Democratic vote, stand as follows: Talbot 15,796; Butler 18,866; Abbott 1,254; Miner 123. Butler has no doubt, carried the city by a large majority, but his defeat in the State is now looked as certain. The rough total of ninety-eight towns received at the Press office up to 6 o'clock, give Talbot a majority of 10,255 over Butler. Selwyn Z. Bowman, Republican, is elected in the Fifth Congressional District. (Banks' old District), by probably 2,000 majority over Nathan Clark, Butler Greenbacker.

BOSTON, NOV. 5.—The historic town of Hull to which attached tradition as goes Hull, so goes the State, gives Talbot 34; Butler 21; Abbott 1; Miner none. Last year it gave Gaston 26; Rice 16.

BOSTON, NOV. 5.—One hundred and twenty-seven towns give Talbot a majority of 20,000 is conceded.

The indications are that Morse, Democrat, is elected to Congress from the Fourth District; Field, Republican, is said to be elected from the Third District by 300 majority; Claffin, Republican, is probably re-elected from the Eighth District. Crapo, Republican, is probably re-elected from the First District. Harris, republican, is re-elected to Congress from the Second District by a large majority. A Worcester special says Rice, republican, carries the sixth district by probably 3,000 majority. Bowman, republican, is elected from the fifth district by 2,000 over the greenback candidate.

Two hundred and eight towns in Massachusetts, including all the cities, give Talbot 16,949 majority over Butler.

This is a rough calculation from the returns as received at the Associated Press office, but will be found to be nearly correct.

BOSTON, 9 P. M.—Talbot's election by 30,000 plurality is conceded by Butler's friends. All republican representatives to Congress from the eleven districts, with one exception, where Brimmer is defeated by Morse in the fourth district, are undoubtedly elected, so far as the present returns indicate.

PENNSYLVANIA.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—The election is progressing quietly; the early vote being larger than the average. A large Republican vote is being polled in the First, Second and Third Congressional Districts. In the Fourth district Judge Kelly's name is being scratched considerably.

READING, NOV. 5.—In the eighth district Clymer is re-elected by over 5,000 majority.

PHILADELPHIA, NOV. 5.—Wright, democrat, is undoubtedly re-elected in the twelfth district.

At the mayor's office it is estimated that the republican majority in this city will be about 12,000.

Kelly has been badly cut in the fourth district.

No doubts are entertained of Randall's election in the third district by a reduced majority.

TENNESSEE.
MEMPHIS, Nov. 5.—The election is progressing quietly. But little interest is manifested, and the vote will be light.

NASHVILLE, NOV. 5.—The election in this city is passing off unusually quiet, and but little apparent interest is felt. The indications are that the vote will be the lightest polled in this State for years.

CHATTANOOGA, NOV. 5.—The returns indicate the election of Pettibone, republican, in the first and Debed, democrat, in the third district.

The election is very close in the second district. Hook, republican, is ahead.

ILLINOIS.
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Five distinct tickets are in the field in this city, and ballots are consequently badly scratched and coming in slowly. Republican, democrat, greenback, national, socialist and prohibition parties have each nominated tickets.

Up to 9:30 but five precincts out of 112

had been heard from, and these indicate nothing.

From scattering returns received from Henderson and Springer's districts it would seem that these gentlemen are elected.

MARYLAND.
BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Kimmell, democrat, defeats Thompson, greenback and independent, in the third district by over 6,000 majority.

Mcbane, democrat, is elected in the fourth district by over 3,000 majority over Holland, republican, Quigley, greenbacker, Felty, independent, democrat.

In the 17th ward, which includes in it the sixth district, Henkle, democrat, has 11,800 majority over Crane, republican.

ALABAMA.
COLUMBUS, GA., Nov. 5.—In the third Alabama district the Democrat elected had but little opposition. Returns indicate that Henry Person, independent democrat, was elected over Hains, present member, by 500 to 1,000 majority.

In the fourth district, Persons is inclined to the greenbackers.

CHATTANOOGA, NOV. 5.—Lowie, independent, beats Garret, democrat, in the 8th Alabama district by 1,000 majority.

Forney, democrat, is re-elected in the 7th Alabama district.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.
BOSTON, Nov. 5.—A New Hampshire special dispatch from Republican sources, stated that Nat. Head, Republican candidate for Governor, is making handsome gains with a decreased greenback vote. Nothing definite from congressional districts in New Hampshire.

CONCORD, NOV. 5.—One hundred towns give Head, republican, 14,753; Mekean, democrat, 12,037; scattering 46. The same places last month gave Prescott, republican 15,202; Mekean, democrat, 14,356; scattering 135. Republican net loss in these places is 58. From the returns received, it appears Head is elected by the people. As far as returned, the House stands 52 republicans, 37 democrats and 3 greenbackers. The republicans claim at least 35 majority in the House.

CONCORD (N. H.) dispatch says the republicans carried every Congressional district, and the republicans will have a good majority in both branches of the Legislature.

CONCORD, NOV. 5.—Twenty towns give Head, republican, 2,826; McKear, democrat, 2,078; Brown, greenbacker, 267; scattering 11. The republican net gain in these places since March, is 142.

VIRGINIA.
ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 5.—The election has been very quiet and no interest manifested. The vote is not half out. Hunton for Congress had no organized opposition. His majority here is 310. Carter, the greenback candidate received but 214 votes and Cochrane, radical, but 3. Hunton's election is sure, but the vote in the district is very small.

Dispatches to the Gazette from Loudon and Fauquier states that a small vote was polled in each of those counties.

A Leesburg dispatch says Loudon county is close, owing to the very small vote.

RICHMOND, NOV. 5.—The election was quiet and the vote small in this city, only a vote of 3,000 being polled out of a registered vote of 13,000. The result of the election is due mainly to the fact that the payment of the capitation tax was required before voting. Gen. Jos. E. Johnston carries the city by over 2,000 majority. Returns from a number of precincts in this district indicate Johnston is elected beyond doubt.

Gen. Johnston's official majority in this city over Newman is 2,012. Further returns from counties of the district indicate that Johnston's majority will be 1,600 to 1,800. Meagre returns from the first district indicate the election of Beale, Critcher, independent. In the 2nd district, the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth and Norfolk county, give Desford, republican about 150 majority over Goode, conservative. But returns from other points indicate that Goode is elected by 400 majority. Returns from the fourth district tend to meagre, to base calculations on the returns as received at the Associated Press office, but will be found to be nearly correct.

The fifth district re-elects Colvill, conservative.

In the sixth district, J. Randolph Tucker carries Lynchburg by 485 majority, a gain of 358 over the election in 1876. Rockbridge county gives him a majority of 350. Tucker's election is assured by a large majority. There is an exciting contest in the seventh district between Hon. Jno. T. Harris and John Paul, for forcible readjuster of State debt. Returns from over half of the district favor Harris' election.

Gen. Epps Hunton is re-elected in the eighth district without opposition.

Nothing definite from the ninth district, where there are four candidates, J. B. Richmond, P. McCall, and S. L. Newberry, conservative, and Campbell, republican.

NORFOLK, NOV. 5.—The election is quiet and the vote small, and indications are that Goode is re-elected by 1,000 majority.

LEXINGTON, NOV. 5.—Blackburn, democrat, for Congress in this district, is re-elected by about 8,000 majority.

GEORGIA.
ROME, GA., Nov. 5.—Indications are that Lester, democrat, will be elected in this district over Fulton.

AGUSTA, GA., NOV. 5.—The vote in the eighth district is light. Alex. Stephens is re-elected without opposition.

The vote in the eighth district were made. About 1,000 votes were polled in this county for Stephens. The returns came slowly. The following Congressional candidates are probably elected:

First district, Nichols, democrat; second district, Smith, democrat; third district, Cook, democrat; fourth district, Harris, democrat; fifth district, Hammond, democrat; sixth district, Blount, democrat; seventh district, Felton, independent democrat; eighth district, Stephens, democrat; ninth district, Billup, democrat. The official count may change the seventh, eighth and ninth districts. The vote in these districts close and may result in the election of Lesta, democratic nominee in the seventh district, in place of Felton, independent democrat.

Emergency Special Independent democrat will run Billup very close in the ninth district.

NEVADA.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Dispatches from Virginia City, Nevada, State chairman of the Democratic State Committee, claims that the legislative ticket is ahead in that State. There has been much scratching.

REGULAR REPORTS.

LONDON, NOV. 5.—The Times, in a leading article commenting on the recent speeches of Liberal members of Parliament, holds that new party criticism should be postponed to the duty of promoting the work which the country has put its hand to the articles says:

"It is manifestly unfair to criticize the government for difficulties created by the passion or unscrupulousness of Russian politicians. If inadequate measures are being taken to carry out the Berlin treaty, by all means let inadequacy be exposed, but let it be exposed with a view to the adoption of more effectual measures for carrying out that treaty, and not for the purpose of discrediting and weakening it. England, with the support of Western Europe, has pledged its name and fame to the East, and it is not to be expected that it will be allowed to be absorbed in one vast despolism. If possible, let better means be pointed out for attaining that end, but let it never be let out of view."

These notes will be of the same size as those of the rest of the greenback currency.

The Star, this evening, says it can be stated on good authority that when the resumption of specie payments by the U. S. Treasury begins it will be a gold-resumption and not a silver resumption, although if the run on the treasury for gold in exchange for United States notes should come close to the amount or coin in the possession of the government it is stated that a retreat may be made to silver.
