THE SUN is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated-as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he stills remains-it speaks out for the right. APPLETON'S Handy-Volume Series.

The books in this series are of a size convenient for the pocket, and yet large enough to admit of bold and handsome type in order that they may be perused without fatigue, with that sense of restfulness and pleasure which well-printed volumes alone confer. Fiction necessarily predominates in the plan, but it is designed to make the range of selection comprehensive, so as to include works of every variety of theme. From old anthors and new variety of theme, from old anthors and new, and attractive to students as well as general
