Washington Post. The announcement made by General Hickenlooper at the late reunion of the Army of the Tennessee, to the effect that Grant had decided to abandon the residue of his contemplated tour round the world and return home in a few weeks, possesses considerable political significance. It is the first step in the Radical programme of Butler, for the party strength in 1876, the 1880. The next step will be a conference Presidential year, was 108,777. Butler's of Republican leaders here shortly before the convening of the next session of Congress, at which a thorough reorganization of the Radical party will take place anda complete programme of operations agreed Hall nominee, is estimated at only fifteen upon. The precise date of Grant's arrival cannot be stated, but is probable that he will be in New York by the 25th insnA We are informed that the contemplated "reorganization" will embrace a sphere of permanent activity on the part of the Hale and Gorham committee, which is to be turned iuto a sort of central staff or bureau of party administration. The design is to enrol permanent Grant clubs all over the country during the coming winter, the expense of which is to paid from a central fund. In short, the Grant movement is to be put definitely and squarely on its legs, and so far as an unlimited corrupton fund and The First National Bank. such power of patronage as still remains in Radical hands can accomplish results, the movement will be pushed in every direction. Hayes will place the entire patronage of the Executive at the disposal of the managers of the Grant movement, and it is even hinted that if Schurz adheres to his oath never to support Grant under any circumstances, and proves intractable, he will be invited to get out of the way and let in Eugene Hale or Senator Sargent. In short, every remaining partisan energy and resource of Radicalism will be con-Grant, and, so far as the awkward restraints of a Congress, Democratic in both branches, will permit, the Radical managers intend to accomplish the gigantic task of packing the country to either elect Grant in 1880 or bring about a state of affairs that will enable him at the head to seize the Government by a coup d'etat upon the expiration of Hayes' term, irrespective of the regive further and more explicit details of this plot about the time the conference meets here.
