

VARIETIES.

KILLED WHILE ROBBING A GRAVE.

Body Snatching in Missouri. Presumably for the Keokuk Medical College.

John Brown, a rather good looking, intelligent negro, lived on Dr. Hughes' farm, below town, but his staying down here on the farm was only a blind. He has been resurrected dead bodies for the past nine years, presumably for the Keokuk Medical College.

John Douglass, partly insane, who had been working on a farm for Wm. P. Andrews, two and a half miles east of Warsaw, Ind.

John Douglass, partly insane, who had been working on a farm for Wm. P. Andrews, two and a half miles east of Warsaw, Ind. He was buried in Andrews private graveyard.

The Stewart Outrage.

The New York detectives have so far failed to discover the robbers of the late A. T. Stewart, and the excitement over the outrage continues.

LONDON WOMEN.

How the Fast Girls of London Outstrip their Parisian Sisters.

Ladies who a few years ago would have considered the idea appearing in any of themselves in the garb of a tea gown, now display themselves to the eyes of their admirers in a country house visit of a week, the same must on no account be exhibited more than once, if indeed, so much may be allowed.

Railroad Freight Rates, Etc.

The conference of railroad managers which was begun in New York on Friday last and has in view the forming of a pool on east-bound freights has not yet disposed of its business.

A Rare Sight in the Surf.

Santa Barbara (Cal.) Advertiser, October 28. A rare sight was witnessed on the beach yesterday. For several hundred feet the surf was a perfect black mass of young fish (anchovies, probably).

Webster Goes to Confess.

In republican circles it is rumored that Weber, the companion witness of Anderson, is about to follow the latter's example and make a confession.

HOW BUTLER ACCEPTS THE SITUATION.

He is Glad the Republican Papers Think He is Dead—He Threatens to be a Live-Ly Corpse, &c.

A New York Sun interview with that sublime rascal, B. F. Butler, has some very pointed remarks.

Medical College.

1878. THE FOUR QUARTERLY REVIEWS

Blackwood's Magaz THE LEONARD SCOTT PUBLI ING CO.

41 Barclay Street, New York Continue their AUTHORIZED Reprints of the

EDINBURGH REVIEW, (Whig) LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative) WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal) BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEW (Evangelical)

These Reprints are NOT SELECTIONS; they give the original in FULL, and at about ONE THIRD the price of the original Editions.

The latest advances and discoveries in the arts and sciences, the recent additions to knowledge in every department of literature, and all the new publications as they issue from the press, are fully reported and discussed in the pages of these periodicals, in language at once clear, forcible and comprehensive.

The articles are condensed, more condensed and full of matter than the average lookers of the period.

TERMS FOR 1878, (including Postage.) Payable strictly in advance.

For any one Review $4 00 per year For any two Reviews 7 00 " For any three " 10 00 " For all four Reviews 12 00 " For Blackwood's Magazine 4 00 " For " and 1 Review 7 00 " For " and 3 " 10 00 " For " and the 4 " 13 00 "

A discount of twenty per cent will be allowed to clubs of four or more persons. Thus, four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to one subscriber for the price of three; and four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $18, and so on.

To clubs of five or more, in addition to the above discount, a copy gratis will be allowed to the letter or of the club.

PREMIUMS: New subscribers (applying early) for the year 1878 may have, without charge, the number for the last quarter of 1877 of such periodicals as they may desire.

Or, instead, new subscribers to any two, three, or four of the above periodicals, may have one of the "Four Reviews" for 1877, subscribers to one Review and one of the "Four Reviews," or one set of Blackwood's Magazine for 1877.

Neither premiums to subscribers nor discounts to clubs can be allowed until the money is remitted direct to the publishers. No premiums given to Clubs.

THE SUN FOR 1879.

THE SUN will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past: To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.

THE SUN has been, and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the truth and its own conscience of duty. That is the only policy which a honest newspaper can follow.

THE SUN is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man; but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community.

It is not the organ of any person, class, or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogue every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat.

It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are agreed upon with the constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated, it is the duty of the newspaper to speak out for the right.

That is the policy of the Sun. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

THE SUN has fairly earned the hearty hatred of those who are opposed to the progress and the interests of the country. It has not less in the year 1879, than in 1878, 1877, or any year gone by. THE SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated brightness.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, THE SUN does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine. Sketches of Bach, Handel, Gluck, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Schumann, Franz, Chopin, Weber, Mendelssohn and Wagner. Price, 30 cents.

17. ANTOINETTE. A Story. By Andre Theuriet, author of "The Godson of a Marquis," etc. Price, 20 cents.
