CAPE FEAR RIPPLES.

The young men of the Lotus Club wil give a hop this evening.

City Treasurer Savage yesterday issued licenses to eight drummers.

The hotels have been crowded lately, almost to their utmost capacity.

Bear in mind the meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, to be held to-night. The steam and hydraulic cotton compress has again broken down. One of the eylinders has given out. Viney Johnston, white, had a fit yesterday morning on the corner of Market and

A chaste, scholarly, eloquent and heartfelt tribute to the memory of Hon. Hugh Waddell appears in this week's Hillsboro Recorder, from the pen of his friend and our friend, the accomplished and wholesouled J. D. Cameron.

We notice in the University Magazine that our young friend Robert Strange is one of a committee of three who prepare a very appropriate and touching series of resolutions on the death of James M. Nicholson, their deceased fellow student.

The "ga'lery gods" always come down stairs in a lump at the close of performances at the theatre. Last night as the crowd were leaving the theatre, some sniffling some sobbing, having been worked up to such a state of feeling by the deeth scene, it sounded rather out of place to hear one of the boys yell: "Ouch, Billy, don't yer tetch my bile agin!"

We are requested to state that a most important meeting of this old command is to take place as their armory this evening at 8 o'clock, and that every active member has been summoned, and the Veteran Corps and honorary members urged to be present to lend their aid in pushing forward the interest of the company. We have to do twice as much work as formerly. hope all may be present, as we are assured that it will be a meeting of considerable so to speak, but in his efforts to accommointerest to the members.

A Bloody Fight.

Yesterday, Harriet Wright, a dusty maiden of Brooklyn, went at Lydia Scott, Lydia had a stylish looking gash across her face, another on the back of her hand and another on her arm. The parties were brought before a magistrate and their case was investigated. Harriet was required to give a bond of $100 for her appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, and was then put under a $100 bond to keep the peace. Lydia suffered all this for her sweetheart.

Doing the City.

The excursion train mentioned in vesterday's Sun as having arrived at the Carolina Central Depot, had on board 156 excursionists. The streets were thronged with them yesterday, all being beut on seeing the city. Tilley's big oxen attracted their attention most, while the river. with its moving vessels, the cotton compresses, depots, circus bill boards, etc., all received their share of attention. Our visitors left on the six o'clock train, this morning, for their homes. They were an orderly, well-behaved body, and had a good time while with our people.

Important Action by the Commercial Convention. The National and International Commercial Convention now in session at Chicago, adopted a resolution yesterday, which was at once sagacious and gratifying to North Carolinians. (See telegrams on first page.) The endorsement by this influential body of a cheap water line conation, may eventuate in the establishment occurred at about 101 o'clock, and during of the route. At any rate, let us hope that its progress a large crowd assembled, and it will turn out all right.

A Donkey that is no Slouch.

The boys on Market street yesterday evening stopped hulling pea nuts and such innocent diversions, to witness the performances of one of those animals with short legs and long ears, known in Baalam's time, as asses, which for a while, indulged in a few of those freaks so characteristic of its tribe. Its owner, John Sawyer, was riding it along bareback, and when nearly opposite the Empire House, his donkevship concluded to turn around. John began to chunk him up with a club, but didn't get in more than two good, comfortable licks, before he found his head testing the softness of the cobble stones in the street. Mounting again, he hit the donkey an awful swipe across the back, which caused it to run its head under all the way to its hind heels, and John again hit the street. This convinced him that he had as well give it up, and taking the bridal rein in his hands, walked off pulling his sagacious beast behind him.

Desperate Encounter.

Last night, residents and passers on 9th, between Church and Nun streets, were attracted by cries proceeding from the house of a colored woman. Upon going up, it was discovered that a colored man had been in the act of breaking into her house. The men at once attempted to arrest him, but the negro resisted desperately, and was not subdued until he had been beaten in a bloody manner.
