SUNDAY MORNING, JANUARY 19, 1879.

Idolizing Men.

"Hero-worship," which is a notable characteristic of Carlyle-perhaps the greatest English writer of this century-and of other eminent men, is proper when you bestow it judiciously. To say, however, that a second or third-rate poet is the equal of acknowledged princes of song, or that a great orator who had no contemporary reputation for magnetism is the greatest of orators, ancient or modern, is to stretch the worship of heroes beyond the judicious point, in our opinion. THE Sux mentions these possible departures from what it esteems genuine, admissible *hero-worship, because they suggest themselves first.

There are honest differences in the critileism of men. We can't all think alike. The weightest of the English critics of the 18th century, and some think the greatest hinges of the knee or absent himself from on the head of Bridgers Creek, and one of of British critics of morals, Dr. Samuel John on, was conspicuously unjust to some of the grandest names in English letters. Milton, Gray and others suffered at his hands-that is, they would have suffered if the world had not been more discriminating in their case and likewise more generous than the great Doctor. There are some who hold the canons of criticism like Andrew Johnson held his ideas of administration. With such persons criticism is a matter of pronouns. "My" judgment is By the Hon. George Davis, of Wilmington. mature; yours necessarily immature. This jaunty, off-hand manner carries conviction, but it convinces only those who are already of that opinion or that class which accepts any dictum however crude or ill-digested it may be as authority. Now egotism in criticism, as in some other things, is not bad when it is confined within reasonable bounds. Some of the raciest books in our language have been written by men and women who were profound egotists. The godlike "I" has varied and abundant uses. At none of these does THE SUN cavil, but only at the manifest abuses. So delightful a writer and so potent a critic as Sainte-Beuve has insisted on the personal or biographical element in criticism, and if he could employ it as to his subjects surely it could enter in at another door, namely, inspire the man who addresses himself to the subject in hand. No, we believe in a moderate Ego.

From that remark to the idolizing of men. We have said that judicious high praise of eminent men is admissible. What is judicious praise-for example, of such a man as Vance, who has just been nominated a Senator of the United States by the Democratic caucus of the North Carolina Legisture? If a critic were to say that Gov. Vance is the greatest living orator, only the noodle-headed hero-worshipper would concur. If he were to pronounce Vance a more brilliant writer than Burke or Macaulay and a more consum. mate statesman than Richelieu or Bismarck, nearly every intelligent man would value the criticism at nil. Again, if this supposititious critic were to assume that now that Vance is likely to take his place among his peers in the Senate a greater than all Americans who have ever lived was rising on the world, there would be no one to give him a moment's consideration. The Sun takes this instance because it is at hand. True hero-worship is distinguished from false by the exercise of common sense, and the application of the principles of justice and truth. To affirm either of the above supposed claims for our excellent Governor and Senator-to-be, is to flout common sense and outrage probability. The Governor may do "unutterable things" before he dies, but few men are so wild as to plant him now on an Olympian throne. If he gets there, however, there is no sin against the canons of criticism, no crime against self-respect in plainly awarding him homage. THE SUN finds that many of those who decry here-worship and partisanship are themselves on occasions the supplest flatterers or the intensest partisans. After all the only safe rule in these as in other matters is to be frank, hearty and manly-to avow honest opinions, to have opinions and not prejudices and to be willing to allow that other views than our own are sometimes entitled to consideration.

The State Board of Health.

A number of public-spirited physicians have contemplated for years a system of State hygiene. This they were enabled to inaugurate by the help of the last Legislature, which, however, doled out pecuniary aid with a niggard hand. An appropriation so meagre aud inadequate was made as almost to defeat the plan of a State Board of Health so zealously urged in the interest of humanity.

4 We purpose this morning briefly to call the attention of the present Legislature Union.

to the necessity for doing something which will put this Board on a safe footing. The Board is a public institution. Its establishment is a public benefit, provided it can secure a modest sum to enable it to work efficiently. It is well organized, and only needs a small fund to put it on a firm footing. The North Carolina Medical Society has hopefully nursed the enterprise. But doctors are poor, and after all it is not their duty to provide a ready-made sanitary system for the SQUARE ONE DAY; $3.50 PER SQUARE State, and keep the wheels greased too. The Society has, however, MONTH; $20.00 PER SQUARE THREE with a noble generosity employed what it could of its own means to assist in getting | the patent, the Board into operation. It is now the becoming thing for the Legislature to come to its assistance. The paltry appropriation A LINE FOR FIRST, AND 15 CENTS A LINE of $100, made by the last Legislature, was hardly sufficient to pay the stationery and printing bills. Let the General Assembly make an appropriation which-shall contribute materially to the great cause of our

> ing in all possible ways. In this connection we would say, referring to the extended circular of the American Public Health Association, printed in THE SUN of the 16th, that the Associa-Nice whiskey that makes you forget Time's tion relies for information and advice to some extent, at least, on the State boards of health. Af these boards are not provided with means, how can they obtain information? Of course not having scientific data on which to base an opinion advice would be impossible. Therefore, and Remember George Myers and be sure to for the reasons previously stated, we hope

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

Outgoing and Incoming Senators -- Contested Seats in the House.

The terms of office of the following named Senators will expire on the 4th of March next: George E. Spencer of Alabama, S. W. Dorsey of Arkansas, A. A. Sargent of California, J. B. Chaffee of Colorado, William H. Barnum of Connecticut, S. B. Conover of Florida, John B. Gordon of Georgia, R. J. Oglesby of Illinois, Dan W. Vorhees of Indiana, J. J. Ingalls os Kansas, Thomas C. McCreery of Kentucky, James B. Eustis of Louisiana, George R. Dennis of Maryland, D. H. Armstrong of Missouri, John P. Jones of Nevada, Bainbridge Wadleigh of New Hampshire, Roscoe Conkling of New York, A. S. Merrimon of North Carolina, Stanley Matthews of Ohio, J. H. Mitchell of Oregon, J. Don Cameron of Penn sylvania, J. J. Patterson of South Carolina, . S. Morrill of Vermont and T. O Howe of Wisconsin. Senators Gordon and Morrill have been re-elected. The re-election of Senators Conkling, Voorhees and Wadleigh is considered certain; Senators Ingalls and Eustis will probably be re-elected; George S Houston has been elected to succeed Mr. Spencer; General Williams of Kentucky will succeed Mr. McCreery: ex-Governor Groome of Maryland has been elected in place of Mr. Dennis; Governor Thayer of Oregon will be yr. Mitchell's successor, and Governor Wade Hampton will fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Patterson's retirement; Governor Vance of North Carolina is likely to succeed Mr. Merrimon, although the latter desires to be his own successor; George H. Pendleton has been elected to succeed Stanley Matthews; Mr Armstrong is serving the unexpired term of Lewis V. Bogy, deceased, and there is a hot fight between a dozen candidates who are all anxious to succeed Mr. Armstrong; a Republican will succeed Mr. Barnum in Connecticut; ex-Senator Yulee is seeking to be re-elected to the Senate in place of Mr. Conover; Mr. Howe is anxious to come for another term, but it is said that his chances for re-election are very slim. After the 4th of March next the United states Senate will consist of 42 Democrats, 33 Republicans and one (Mr. Davis of Illinois) independent.

CONTESTS IN THE HOUSE.

The annexed embraces a list of all the sexts in the House over which here will probably be contests in the Forty-sixth Congress: Florida .- The majority for Hull (dem.) in the second district being only 13, Bisbee

(rep.) may contest the seat. Illinois.-In the diffeenth district the seat of Forsythe (nat.) may be contested by Decius. (dem.) In Shelby county the Republicans printed their ballots "Forsyth," without the e," so as to be able to claim or repudiate the candidate, as might be necessary. The judges returned 595 for Forsyth and 1,528 for Forsythe, but the State canvassers gave them all to Forsythe, whose vote was 13,196 to 12,942 for Decius, who claimed that he should have recieved the certificate and the burden of showing that Forsyth and Forsythe were iden tical been thrown on his opponent. In the second district W. H. Condon (nat.) has given notice that he will contest the seat of S. R. Davis, (rep.,) whose plurality was 4,236, Condon only recieving 259 votes in a poll of nearly 21,000 votes, but the notice is said to | For Freight Engagements or Passage apply to be irregular. Indiana .- In the ninth district the seat of Orth (rep.) will be contested by McCabe, (dem.,) who was beaten by 97. There are charges that some twenty-five or more college students, not residents the State, voted for Orth, and fraud is alleged in Virmillion and Montgomery counties. The latter was at first reported as having given McCabe 369, but fifteen hours afterwards this was reduced to Iowa.-There is likely to be a muddle in consequence of the claim that the October election was not legal, and that the members elected in November are entitled to their seats. Elections were held in six districts in November, when the following gentlemen obtained 2. Hiram Price, R. 5. Rush Clark, R. 6. J

B. Weaver, D. and N. 7. E. H. Gillette, D. S. J. C. Holmes, D. 9. John W. Wilson, D. The first four were elected in October, and took this step to mak either claim good in either contingency. Republicans having done this as well as democrats, it cannot be alleged that the move was a "party dodge," and the best legal opinion of Iowa is divided as to the regularity of the first election. Louisina.—In the third district Hebert (Rep. and Nat.) will contest the seat of Maryland .- In the fifth district Crane (Rep.) will centest the seat of Henkle (Dem.) on the ground of fraud and interference with Massachusetts .- In the sixth district Boynton (National) will contest the seat of Loring, (Rep.;) alleging, among other reasons, that 431 votes for the latter did not specify the office to be filled. Loring's plurality over Boynton was 113. Minnesota.-In the third district Donnelly (Dem aed Nat.) will contest the seat of Washburn (rep.) on grounds of bribery, &c. Washburn's majority was 3,013, but the contestant will further claim that it was largely made up by counting votes of counties not properly organized and omitting Democratic

New York-In the twenty-fifth district J M. Wieting (nat. and dem.) will contest the seat of Hiscock (rep.), who was elected by 3,425, on grounds of alleged corruption and

North Carolina -- In the first district Yeates (dem.) will probably contest the seat of Martin (rep.), the State canvassers having declined to go behind the returns, which on their face gave Martin 51 majority. In the second O'Hara (rep.) will contest the seat of Kitchin (dem.) claiming that his votes were illegally thrown out in Halifax, Edgecombe, Craven and Lenoir counties, which sent up amended

Pennsylvania-In the twentieth district Curtin (dem.) will contest the seat of Yocum (nat. and rep.) on the ground of fraud and bribery; Yocum's majority was 92. There is a squabble over the seat of Klots (dem.) in the eleventh district, which is claimed by Albaight. The canvassing board split but Klotz has filed the judicially certified returns of all the counties with the clerk of the House as a safeguard. They give him 95 majority. There has been some talk of McCandless (dem.) contesting the seat of Bingham (rep.) in the first district, where, Bingham's plurality was Virginia-In the ninth district it is said that McMullin (ind . dem .) will contest the seat of Richmond (dem.), who was elected by a plurality of 291. Wisconsin-In the third district King (nat.) will prohably contest the seat of Hazleton (rep.), whose majority was 120, on the ground of colonization of voters in Lafayette county.
