THE DAILY DISPATCH.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 20, 1865. NO. 11.

North Carolina State Convention.
Thirteenth Day.
MONDAY, Oct. 16th, 7 O'CLOCK, P. M.
An ordinance providing for the election of two members to the House of Commons from the county of Cumberland, and one from the county of Harnett, passed its third reading.
On motion of Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, "an ordinance declaring what laws and ordinances are in force," was made the special order for 11 o'clock to-morrow; and,
"An ordinance to provide Revenue for 1865," (which was made the special order for 11 o'clock to-morrow, during this morning's session) was taken up for present consideration.
The ordinance was read by sections, and numerous amendments were adopted, after which it passed its second reading. The Convention then adjourned until 10 o'clock, A. M., to-morrow.

FOURTEENTH DAY.
TUESDAY, October 17th, 1865.
The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock, A. M.
The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.
Hon. R. P. Dick, one of the delegates from Guilford county appearing was qualified.
Mr. Donnell, from the committee on Constitutional Amendments not otherwise referred, reported that certain matters referred had been already acted upon and asked to be discharged from their further consideration; also, from same committee, a resolution in relation to the qualification of voters.
The committee on the Calendar, through its Chairman, Mr. Winburne, submitted a report, specifying what ordinances, in their opinion, should be acted upon at this session and recommending an adjournment on Thursday next at 5 o'clock, A. M. This report was concurred in.
Mr. Howard, from the committee to which was referred Mr. Nicholson's resolution relative to a reorganization of the Militia, reported an ordinance to organize for temporary service, a sufficient force to preserve law and order in the State. [Provides for the enrollment of all male citizens between the ages of 18 and 35, and if necessary 45 years.] This ordinance was made the special order for 11 o'clock to-morrow.
On motion of Mr. Eaton the rules were suspended and a resolution directing the President of the Convention to transmit certain ordinances passed by this Convention, to the President of the United States, was taken up and passed.
The Convention at 11 o'clock, A. M., proceeded to consider the special order, viz: an ordinance declaring what laws and ordinances are in force, and for other purposes.
Mr. Caldwell of Burke, moved to amend the 5th section, so that it read "that no person in the civil or military service of the Confederate States shall be liable to indictment for any act done in the proper discharge of his duty." He further moved to strike out all after the word "Government." The section proposed to be thus amended, reads as follows:
"No person who may have been a civil or military officer of the State, or of the Confederate States, shall be held liable for any act done in the proper discharge of the duties imposed on him by any authority, purporting to be a law of the State or Confederate States Government, but such officer thereof, in like manner as if such acts had been done under lawful authority: Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to bar any citizen of the State from his civil action for the recovery of damages on account of any improper or illegal execution of the law or authority imposing such duties."
On motion of Mr. Eaton the rules were
President of the Convention to transmit certain ordinances passed by this Convention,
to the President of the United States, was taken up and passed.
The Convention at 11 o'clock, A. M., proceeded to consider the special order, viz: an
ordinance declaring what laws and ordinances are in force, and for other purposes.
Mr. Caldwell of Burke, moved to amend
son in the civil or military service of the Confederate States shall be liable to indictment for any act done in the proper discharge
as follows:
"No person who may have been a civil or
military officer of the State, or of the Con-
act done in the proper discharge of the
duties imposed on him by any authority,
purporting to be a law of the State or Con-
been done under lawful authority: Provided
shall be so construed as to bar any citizen of the State from his civil action for the re-
proper or illegal execution of the law or authority imposing such duties."
Those who voted in the negative were Messrs.
Adams, Alexander, Allen, Baines, Baker, Barrow,

Mr. Starbuck moved to amend the section by inserting after the word "damages" the words "or from indictments: provided that no order issued without authority of what purported to be a law of the State or Confederate States." Adopted.
Mr. Pool moved to amend by striking out the 5th section entire, and inserting as follows:
"No person who may have aided in the passage or execution of any law of the State of North Carolina, or of the Confederate States, shall be held liable to indictment or civil action, for such aid, because of the fact only that such law was void on account of its being in contravention of the Constitution of the State or of the United States." Mr. Phillips moved to amend by declaring the fifth section as amended, a part of the ordinance.
On this motion the yeas and nays were ordered, on motion of Mr. Love of Jackson.
The motion prevailed. Yeas, 88, nays, 18.
