FOR SALE.

A VERY VALUABLE COTTON FARM, situated eight miles from the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, at Alfordville, containing 600 acres of land, 350 of which is cleared and in a very high state of cultivation, well improved, buildings of every kind and the health of the place unsurpassed by any in the State.

I will sell the land for the proceeds of it of one year's work of ten hands. A large amount of provisions and stock on the place can be bought with the land, at market prices. I offer better inducements to the right kind of a purchaser than can be had anywhere in the South, as my present crops, (through a short one) will show cash prices for almost the place.

DAILY DISPATCH.

WILMINGTON, N. C., JANUARY 12, 1867.

A CONFEDERATE COLONEL COWHIDES A NEW YORK LAWYER.—Yesterday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, the denizens of the commercial region of lower Broadway were much amused and interested in witnessing one of the choicest scenes of "cut and come again," in the shape of a racy cowhide case on the part of an ex-rebel Colonel and a lawyer of the class recently termed in one of the French courts "a New York lawyer."

A certain gentleman, named Mr. —, is an attaché of a legal firm in Wall street in this city, and Colonel —, of Broadway, has been a client of said firm. A few days ago Colonel — satisfied the monetary claims there by paying a very modestly figured bill of $2,500 for "services rendered."

Of this sum the gentleman attached claimed $108 upon some inexplicable plea for "mysterious influences" rendered, that produced an imaginary grand result unknown either in the practice or the theory of law.

This sum the Colonel refused to pay, whereupon —, Esq., who is a semi-professional "bruiser," about 200 pounds weight, gave notice, both verbally and epistolary, of fistulicuffs for two, at sight. The gallant Colonel, not to be intimidated by any such process of collecting debts, even if honestly due, immediately had recourse "to arms."

Just about 3 o'clock —, Esq., entered the Colonel's office and asked him out to a "tough and tumble," which the Colonel responded to by producing a stout cowhide, which he most vigorously laid on the head, face, shoulders and principally the back of —, Esq., who ran some twenty feet, yelling and crying, yet still receiving the generous lashes of the now excited Colonel.

An immense crowd had gathered to behold the castigating Colonel and the cringing lawyer. One hit-woman and the other score and the interposition of third parties ended the scene. — Y. Times.

THE ROAD TO POOR FARMING.—1. Invest all your money in land and run in debt for more.

2. Hire money to stock your farm.

3. Have no faith in your business, and be ever ready to sell out.

4. Buy mean cows, spavined horses, poor oxen and cheap tools.

5. Feed poor hay and mouldy cornstalks exclusively, in order to keep your stock tame; fiery cattle are terribly hard on old rickety wagons and plows.

6. Use the oil of hickory freely whenever your oxen need strength; it is cheaper than hay or meal, and keeps the hair lively, and also pounds out all the grubs.

7. Select such calves for stock as the butchers shun—beauties of runts, thin in the hams, and portbelly'd; but be sure and keep their blood thin by scanty herbage; animals are the safest to breed from that have not the strength to herd.

8. Be cautious about manufacturing manure; it makes the fields look black and mournful about planting time; besides it is a deal of work to haul it.

9. Never waste time by setting out fruit and shade trees; fruit and leaves rotting around a place are unhealthy.

Long ago, in Massachusetts, it was the custom for a person to go about the meeting-houses, turning divine service and wake the sleepers. "He bore a long wand, on one end of which was a ball and on the other a fox tail. Which he observed the men asleep, he rapped them on the head with the knob, and roused the slumbering sensibilities of the ladies by drawing the brush lightly across their faces."

A California wife in San Francisco, writes thusly to her husband in the interior: "Dear Sir: It may be proper, and perhaps my duty to inform you that about two months ago I succeeded in getting my divorce from you, and also that I have since married again. You may continue your monthly remittances, as I may need them for your three children."

A wicked wag says the reason young ladies look so bold and fierce in these latter days is, that they tie their hair so tightly on the back of the head that they cannot shut their eyes, which gives them their fierce look, and then their tremendous waterfalls so balance their heads up that they seem to "cock their chins" at everybody, hence their bold, defiant look.

It is announced that a party of twelve fierce-looking Camanches, on their way from the far West to the Paris Exposition, have arrived in New York city. They are a delegation from one of the wildest, most blood-thirsty, treacherous and cruel tribes of the Plains, and the public generally keep at a respectful distance from them.

A party of one hundred and fifty Cheyenne Indians, on the morning of the 1st instant, surrounding the telegraph office at Sweet Water Bridge, killed and scalped the operator, named Calcicoft, and burned the station. Three soldiers were with him, one of whom was found dead. The others have not been heard from.

"I bequeath," said an Irishman, in his will, "to my beloved wife all my property without reserve, and to my eldest son, Patrick, one half of the remainder, and to Dennis, my youngest, the rest. If anything is left it may go to Terrance McCarty."

A subscriber writes to a Western editor—"I don't want your paper any longer." To which the editor replies: "I would not make it any longer if you did: Its present length suits me very well."

A Utica paper says that during the fiftal fever of her life now ended, a woman in that city had been married three times, and each successive husband was named Tompkins.

The total amount of tobacco annually produced throughout the world is estimated as follows: Asia, 309,900,000 pounds, Europe, 281,544,500; America, 248,280,000; Africa, 24,300,000; Australia, 714,000; making in all 965,033,000.

It is now stated that three hundred people perished by the burning of the steamer Fashion on the lower Mississippi. They were mainly freedmen who were abroad on a holiday excursion.

Rev. Paul Whitehead, the newly appointed President of Murrefreesboro' Female College, entered upon his duties, and is making a fine impression.

The Rev. W. B. Weldon purposes to revive the Christian Sun at the former place of publication, Suffolk, Va.
