WILMINGTON, FEBRUARY 9, 1867.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SECOND SESSION.

SENATE.

RALEIGH, Feb. 7. The Senate was called to order at 10}

Mr. Avery, from the Joint Select Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred sundry bills to change the jurisdiction of the courts and the rules of pleading therein, reported by bill as a substitute for the whole, recommending its passage.

On motion of Mr. Cowles, the rules were suspended, and he proposed to amend by striking out so much of the bill as requires the defendant to make oath. The amend ment was adopted by a vote of 36 to 5.

Mr. Cowles moved that the Speaker appoint a committee of three to revise the bill and report as soon as expedient. Agreed to. The Speaker designated Messrs. Cowles, Leach and Moore, as the committee.

A message was received from the House transmitting a resolution proposing to adjourn sine die on Monday the 18th inst. On motion of Mr. Love it was laid on the table. Also a bill to repeal an ordinance to alter the time of holding the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions in the county of Stanly. On motion of Mr. Marshall, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

A message was received from the House transmitting a resolution authorizing the Governor to pay freights on supplies furnished by benevolent associations from other States; on motion of Mr. Kelly the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings.

CHATHAM RAILROAD. Bill to declare valid an act of the General Assembly amending the charter of the Chatham Railroad Company, having been made the special order, was taken up on its second reading, and the amendment offered by Mr. Robbins was agreed to. A discussion of of its affairs was at all times easy. some length ensued. Messrs. Avery, Jones, Leach and Paschall urged the passage of the dressed the House in support of the subbill, and Messrs. Wilson, Speed and Berry in stitute. opposition. At the close of Mr. Berry's remarks he offered an amendment. Mr. Hall favored the bill. He believed it was right and just, and that he should vote for it. On the amendment offered by Mr. Berry, the ayes and nays were called and the amendment was lost by a vote of 23 to 13. The question recurring on its passage, on motion of Mr. Wilson, the ayes and nays were called and the bill was rejected by a vote of 21

Mr. Cowles from the select committee who were appointed to consider a bill to change the jurisdiction of the courts and the rules of pleading therein reported back the same with various amendments, which were read and will come up to-morrow as unfinished

On motion of Mr. Wilson the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 101 o'clock.

An examination of the act of Congress had subsequently shown him that this Land Scrip could only be give en to an institution under the control of the Legislature, and that only the interest on BROWN'S COUNTER. the money could be used. He wished to know if a new institution were erected, who was to pay for the necessary buildings, and who would pay the Professors? He was forced, from a sense of duty, to vote for the bill and against the substitute.

Mr. Durham addressed the House in support of the substitute. He opposed the transfer of the Land Scrip to the University. although he believed such transfer would be made. The triends of the bill urged the transfer to Chapel Hill, mainly because of the Constitutional provision which required the keeping up of the University The University, he said, had not been managed as it people, and would not regain it until its management was changed.

Mr. Morehead asked the genfleum from Cleaveland, (Mr. Durham,) whether he would amend his substitute by adding a proviso. making an annual appropriation to the University of $20,000, until the number of its students should reach 400. Dr. Durham declined making such amend-

Mr. Morehead opposed the substitute at some length, setting forth the claims of Chapel Hill, its superior advantages, etc. Mr. Davis opposed the substitute, defended the University, and suggested, in reply
