LETTER FROM M. JEFF THOMPSON. THE LESSONS OF THE WAR—THE ONLY HOPE OF THE SOUTH.

Gen. Jeff Thompson has addressed the following circular letter to those who were under his command during the late war:

For God's sake what has Longstreet done to damn him? For what am I anathematized? For what do I need defense? The war produced no purer or braver man than Gen. James Longstreet, and surely from the first to the last I have proved myself to be faithful to the end...

WAR, with its privilege to exercise his own judgment as to the best manner to build up the country without being anathematized, and I who was a leader in the beginning, and a follower at the end, and who during the whole struggle was with you at the front or a prisoner of war, will positively assert and manfully maintain my right to express my opinions freely upon all subjects affecting the welfare of the South...

THE SOUTH really needs; this is all the truly patriotic men of the North ask; and I will advocate the best plan, in my judgment, to accomplish the object, regardless of whether originates or supports Whigs, Democrats, Federalists, Republicans, Radicals, Conservatives, or Reactionaries.

ALL NEW agree that, by right of revolution, our States were out of the Federal Union, and our Government was a de facto Government; therefore, if our conquerors think that safety or justice requires that the conditions upon which these States may be re-admitted into the Union shall be that our leaders in the field and prominent statesmen must be denied the right to vote a hold office, and also that political equality must be extended to the negro, though we make no objection to the negro, though we make no objection to the negro, though we make no objection to the negro.

Should you differ with others as to the best plans to accomplish these objects, still be friends and collaborators in one common aim, which shall be, as it once was, the greatness and glory of the whole United States. This is what I told you at our surrender, at Jacksonport, in June, 1865—this is the substance of my letter to Mr. Prentice—and I urge it upon you now; and if for this I am to be anathematized, let the dogs bark until time shall prove that I have been ever and a ways your friend.
