

The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battle-field and patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the Chorus of the Union, when again touched, as surely they will be, by the angels of our nature.

We find in the New York World of last Saturday, what is represented to be the official returns from fifty counties in Pennsylvania at the recent election compared with the majorities in the same counties at the election in 1866. The footings show that the Democratic majorities in 1866 were, in those counties, 37,300; in 1867 31,498—a clear Democratic loss of Five thousand eight hundred and two votes!

OUR NEW YORK LETTER. New York, Oct. 12, 1867. Since our last of 5th inst., we have to notice an unsettled market for most articles of commerce; buyers holding back, and indisposed to purchase, owing to the elections in several of the States, which have taken place during the week, the results of which you have ere this received.

ROYAL COMPLIMENTS TO COLOREL MOSBY. Major John Scott, of Fauquier, now in Europe, has just written, informing his friend here, that the Prussian War Minister, Count Bismarck, has ordered a government translation of his late work, "Partisan Life with Mosby," for the purpose of adopting in the Prussian service the system developed by Colonel Mosby during the late war regarding its as entirely original and effective.

As We Anticipated. In a paragraph elsewhere we prophesied outrages by the negroes. It will be seen that by telegraph it is stated that the Mayor of Savannah is afraid to let the colored people parade. Comment is unnecessary.

THE Northern Copperhead presses are still harping upon Mrs. LINCOLN'S wardrobe. There are people in this country yet who would dance with delight to see the pillars of the Republic pulled down.

The Mexican election has been held, but the result is not known. Juarez and Diaz were the opposing candidates. The latest news makes us presume that Juarez has been chosen.
