CHARITY.—Simon the Just, in the Talmud, is recorded to have said "On three things stands the world; on law, on worship, and on charity."

The two former of these qualifications are eminently the gift of the citizens of Wilmington, but of the latter—we regret to say it—there is but little.

We are a law-abiding people. The record of our forefathers back to and before the days of the Revolution, as well as the later history of our own days, is the best proof positive of this fact. We do not hesitate to say that the records of our courts, if compared with those of others, either in the South or the North, would show, indisputably, that the reverence for law and order is one of the distinguishing characteristics of ourselves as a people.

Why cannot the young men of this city form such a society as this, and give us, during the winter months, some of their personations? We are confident that there is equally as much, if not more, talent here than Raleigh can boast, and if our young men would form a theatrical association, and give occasional performances, they might, by that means, obtain considerable sums of money, which, if placed in the hands of some charitable association, would greatly help our poor to pass safely through the rigors of this winter.

Let our young men think seriously of this matter. THE DAILY PROGRAMME.—The above is the name of a little sheet, published in Charleston, for daily circulation. The principle upon which it is conducted, is similar to that upon which the Daily Visitor was established here during the winter of 1865—the advertisements which it contains paying the cost of the issue. It is a very neatly arranged little sheet, and appears, from a glance over its columns, to meet with abundant favors from the enterprising men of Charleston.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE.—After a very lengthy and important session of six days, the Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, adjourned since die on Tuesday night last. There were in attendance on its sessions a large number of delegates, both lay and ecclesiastical, among whom were some of the ablest men of the State.—The reverend Bishop Doggett has been filling the chair.

ACCIDENT.—The steamer General Howard, owned by the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Rail Road, and forming the connecting link of the road between Riverside and Wilmington, was yesterday injured to such an extent as to necessitate her being placed upon the ways for repair. The accident occurred during a dense fog on Tuesday morning, and while the boat was rounding Point Peter. She there ran upon some obstruction and stove two holes in her bottom. She has been taken to Berry's Ship Yard, and in a few days will have been thoroughly repaired, and ready to resume her usual labors.

MAYOR'S COURT, DECEMBER 3, 1867.—Two white men, named respectively C. M. Bonham and Thomas Thompson, were arrested and brought before His Honor, charged with having indulged too freely in a street fight. It was proved conclusively that the provocation came from Thompson, that individual was fined $20, and Bonham $3, for his share in the fracas.

LIBRARY NOTICE.—We are requested to state that hereafter the Library Room of the Wilmington Library Association will be opened on Monday and Thursday evenings of each week, when members can obtain books, or remain and read the periodicals and papers to be found there.

POSTPONEMENT.—On account of the inclement appearance of the weather yesterday, it was decided to postpone Col. Barr's lecture. As the address of the Colonel will be addressed more particularly to the feelings and sympathies of the ladies than of their rougher consorts, it is well, perhaps, that this postponement has been held. The city papers will announce, in due season, the evening which has been chosen for its delivery.

INSULT TO A LADY.—On last Saturday evening, after dark, as a lady resident of the eastern portion of Princess Street was returning home after a day's labor, she was accosted by a stalwart colored man, who professed his services to see her home. She of course refused, and ran from him, and succeeded in getting clear of him.

We regret that such a thing as this should have occurred, and it is the first time that we have been called upon to record a similar incident. We hope that our colored friends will see to it that it is the last, and thereby prevent the evil disposed few from such acts as will tend to cast reproach upon the morality of the whole.

CRIMINAL COURT.—This court has been steadily engaged, since Monday last, in the trial of such cases as are brought before it from the docket. On Tuesday was tried a suit, in which the State was plaintiff, and the authorities of this city, defendants. The case was relative to some obstructions which had been placed in a portion of the city, which the authorities failed to remove. It was, as was thought, successfully established by Wm. A. WATSON, Esq., the able City Attorney, that no street had ever existed at the point where these obstructions were placed, and therefore that the city Council were not held amenable. To this effect was the jury charged by Judge MEARES, but they brought in a different verdict. Under the circumstances, an appeal will be taken from this decision.

Yesterday the Court was occupied in the trial of several petty cases of assault and battery. But one larceny case was tried during the forenoon. In this latter, Jerry Maek, alias Jerry Pillyaw, colored, was sentenced to twelve months imprisonment at hard labor in the County Work House.

THE SPIAN ASSOCIATION.—A number of the gentlemen of Raleigh have met together, and have organized themselves into a Thespian Association. They have already given two performances in Tucker Hall, and threaten the people with more. Their efforts have been most successful. Crowded houses swarmed them on each occasion, and the Raleigh papers speak of their efforts as laudable in the extreme.

Why cannot the young men of this city form such a society as this, and give us, during the winter months, some of their personations? We are confident that there is equally as much, if not more, talent here than Raleigh can boast, and if our young men would form a theatrical association, and give occasional performances, they might, by that means, obtain considerable sums of money, which, if placed in the hands of some charitable association, would greatly help our poor to pass safely through the rigors of this winter.

ature being 22 degrees below freezing point and the country covered with deep snow. "The famine stricken provinces are Jemtland and Westernoverland, and the whole of Westernbotten and Norrbotten, beginning at the 63d parallel and extending 100 miles beyond the Arctic circle. Through out the whole of this region, covering an area of more than 50,000 square miles, the crops have entirely failed, the frost having completely destroyed the grain, the wheat of bread, but of seed for next spring. It must not be inferred from this utter destitution and want, that the people of Northern Sweden lack thrift or omit to prepare for bad harvests. The fact is that the 1-fated region alluded to has suffered from bad harvests six years in succession. Hence the calamity of a complete failure during the seventh year has overtaken the people when utterly exhausted by previous efforts to year up under their misfortune. True to the humane custom of the inhabitants of those inhospitable regions, mutual relief has been given until now the entire population stands in need of that speedy assistance without which thousands will perish during the coming winter. Unfortunately, Sweden never was less able to afford the relief needed, than at present. The harvest in many of the midland provinces has proved almost a failure, while the commerce of the country is in a very unsatisfactory state, owing to the steadily decreasing demand by foreign nations, for the products of the iron mines and the forest, which have enriched Sweden. Yours very truly, HON. G. V. FOX.

The facts here given must appeal powerfully to all Americans when stated by that native of Sweden who in our moment of dire necessity came to our relief so effectively with his Monitor.

We are requested to state that contributions can be sent to Mr. Gert Looz, Swedish and Norwegian Vice-Consul, at 27 Central Wharf.
