CONVENTION STAY LAW.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C. April 23, 1868.
GENERAL ORDERS, No. 57.
The Ordinance of the Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, convened in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," entitled "An Ordinance respecting the jurisdiction of the courts of this State," which was ratified in said Convention on the 17th day of March, 1868, and which is hereby published, is hereby approved, and will have the force of law in said State until the question of the ratification or rejection of the Constitution framed by said Convention, by the people of said State, shall have been determined by an election held in the manner prescribed by law, and in the event of the rejection thereof, for the further period of thirty days: Provided, that the terms of said Ordinance shall not be held to apply to or conflict with any agricultural or labor lien guaranteed by any law of said State, enacted subsequently to the organization of the provisional government of said State under the President's proclamation of the 29th of April, 1865, or by any military orders from these Headquarters, now in force. And provided further, that all proceedings in any court of North Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investments of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the State of North Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the government of the United States, shall, as now, be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the Ordinance herewith published, shall be held to bar or hinder any legal proceedings in behalf of any minor heir, female, or insane person, respecting trust estate, property or interests in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, commissioners, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

only, unless otherwise herein provided, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all such causes of action, except where jurisdiction has been or shall be given to the Justice of the Peace by the constitution or laws of North Carolina. Should the defendant at the Spring Term of 1869, on writs which shall be returned to that Term or in any suit for the above causes of action then pending in the Superior Court, pay or confess judgment to the plaintiff for one-tenth of the debt and demand, (principal and interest,) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until next Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the said debt and demand, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-half of the residue of the debt or demand, he shall be allowed until the succeeding spring term to plead. At the said spring term, the Plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand; Provided, however, that the plaintiff, if required, shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that whole or any part thereof, is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall pay the installment required of what he admits to be due, and the court shall order a jury at the same or some subsequent term to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next spring term the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon paying or confessing judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the admitted amount, and whatever the jury finds him indebted over and above the same: Provided, further, that should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgment for the first or any subsequent installment, then and in that case the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such installment, unless the defendant shall put in plea, in which case the suit shall proceed according to the course of the court in 1869: Provided, further, that by consent of the plaintiff and defendant, at any term of the court, may confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim.
