A DEMOCRATIC FRAUD-THE PEOPLE BEING CHEATEN. REGISTRATION BOOK STOLEN -BRUNSWICK COUNTY TO SUF

We have just discovered a first class fraud that is being practiced on the Republicans of Brunswick county. It is well known that the election in Brunswick county will be a close one, and the destructive Democracy are determined to elect their man there, and to do so are resorting to every species of vil-

A respectable gentleman of that countvinforms us that one day this week he applied to the Registrar of the Lower Division of Northwest Township to have his name registered as a voter. and he was informed by that Democratic official that the registration books for that division been but, and that he could not register!

The Republican majority at that voting place is about two hundred, and if the Democratic County Commissioners of Brunswick County do not produce the registration book which they have so conveniently spirited away, they may rest assured that they will find themselves indicted, each and every one of them, in the United States Court in just as many cases as they by their failure to produce the registration books. prevent Republicans from voting.

This sort of thing won't do at all, and if these County Commissioners lend themselves to such a disreputable act for the purpose of securing the election of Mr. Cowan, and defeating the will of the people, they must take the bitter consequences.

They had better produce the books, and that quick, too.

The Goldsboro Aere, a paper published in Goldsboro, under date of August 7th, 1872 in an article over the signature of Mr. John Robinson, a genfleman too well known in eastern North Carolina to require an undersement from us, in a card published by him,

"We give the above morceau from the columns of the Carolina Messenger We hope its patrons are satisfied with the truthfulness of the charges made against John Robinson, and least the readers of the News-"the Goldsboro Radical News-should miss the enjoyment of the elegance of taste and refined truthfulness of this man of clear conscience, we transfer it to our col-"Rumor has it that Julius A. Bonitz, during the late 'unpleasantness,' was employed for some time in the service of the confederacy in some misappliance of the leather which rought upon him the uplifted arm of justice, and as a punishment he was imprisoned but was subsequently released upon the condition of his vol unteering in the confederate service. This fact is a rumor which we gleaned from the public press while we were confined in prison.

"Another rumor has it that Julius A. Bonitz did and does now cohabit with a certain, negro woman, even to the ex tent of begetting his own image and likeness on the body of said negro aid negro woman (or some other) was concealed behind the door of Bonitz room on the occasion of Scuator Matt. W. Ransom's visit to him while on a visit to Goldsboro.

"It is a fact that a book containing ictures of the most obscene and disusting character that could be pictured y the most depraved imagination, was ound on the table in Bonitz room as he will remember, at the time whon T. T. Hollowell was Mayor of Goldsboro and that by order of the Mayor it was lestroyed because of its obscenity." John Robinson.

We want to know if this is not the same Julius A. Bonitz who, in 1861, employed some negroes (who were then in his service) to break into a smokehouse and steal therefrom a quantity of bacon stored therein; if the said bacon was not found next day in said Bonitz house, and when it was discovered if he did not take leg bail and kept himself out of the way of the officers of the law until the matter had blown

And this is one of the men who belongs to the Democratic party which claims that they possess all the virtue Lord save the mark!) and the intelligence of the State! This is one of those high toned chivalry who never do naughty things, oh, no! This man who rants and raves about the infamy of the Civil Rights bill is himself a living, breathing, walking exemplification of it, living in open adultery with a negro strumpet, and raising up a family of bastard mulatto children. Bonitz had better "dry up" on the Civil Rights question, he is too much like a great many of his Democratic friends whose private lives are like his, and who would find it almost impossible, were he to throw a brick into almost any crowd of little negroes on the street, avoid cracking the skull or breaking the shins of some of his own flesh and blood.

BONITZ AGAIN.

The following remarks are to apply to Julius A. Bonitz, of the Goldsboro

N. C., Messenger, Last week we had occasion to make few broken remarks about this man, because of his continued attacks on the priciples and the upholders of the principles of the Republican party in this State. We like consistency; consistency in politics as well as in everything else, When we say personal we mean what | daylight and practices social rights the this neighborhood, that is, some of his We prefer not to condescend to per-, children have-blood relations, too,

Perhaps, though, all these matters will be ventilated before a jury when the young man brings the suit for slander that he so glibly talks about, but which he will consider a long time before he undertakes. "Like all young men, he may have had his foibles," so he says, and no doubt of it. Several of these faibles were born to him and were well known as his children-their mother's name is Louisa Cowan.

Julius, in an article in his paper of 19th inst., calls us a dirty tagaboud, a miserable hound, a brute beast, a miserable wretch, a mid-night assassin, a raving hyena, a scoundrel, a reptile and a dirty dog, and says be means every word of it. We cannot imagine where Julius obtained all these pet phrases from, when "the good people of Goldsboro and his friends throughout the State know that his private deportment is that of a gentleman(?) and his association unexceptional." It may be that the last three years have worked wonders for the young man in the way business transactions which required of a reformation, and we hope it has, the use of leather. Bonitz made some but his memory must be a very retentive one to have so well remembered the bawdy house expletives that he had formerly been so accustomed to and had used so freely.

Why don't Julius do something besides using disgusting language? We don't retract a word that we have said about him, and we refer him to the first paragraph of our "Personal" article of last week. We are preparing a biography of this Democratic social woman. A third rumor has it that the rights saint, and propose ventilating lots more of his tascality.

> DEMOCRATIC RASCALITY IN GOLDSBORO! BONITZ CAUGHT AT ANOTHER OF HIS DIRTY TRICKS!-HE HIRES COLORED PEOPLE TO FORCE THEM-SELVES ON THE WHITES!!

Below we give publicity to the affidavit of a respectable colored man in Goldsboro, who swears that a white man, and a Democrat, hired him and others to force themselves into the Town Hall last week on the occasion of the exhibition given by the children of the orphan asylum. This was evidently the work of Bonitz and his equally virtuous(?) crowd, and done solely for the purpose of making political capital out of the affair, and affording the Messenger an opportunity of getting off a column of brazen lies.

Pass it around. The destructive democracy are in their 'last ditch' when they resort to such damnable means to effect their bad ends. Read the affidavit

Goldsboro, N. C., July 21, 1875. Personally appeared before me Arnold B. Williams, an acting Justice of the Peace for Wayne county, James T. Burnett (colored), and made oath that on the evening of July 12th, 1875, before the town hall was opened for the entertainment given by the children of the Orphan Asylum, he, the said Burnett, was offered by a persen unknown to him, who claimed to be a democrat. the sum of ten dollars if he would go to said entertainment, occupy and persist in retaining a prominent seat in the front part of said hall. He further swears that he was told by said unknown person that he (affiant) had as much right there as any other person, and that he (affiant) was thus induced to act as he did in retaining said seat. JAMES T. BURNETT.

Sworn to and subscribed before me July 20th, 1875.

A. B. WILLIAMS, J. P. Villianous democrats in Goldsboro hired colored people to force themselves into the Town Hall at an exhibition given by the children of the Orphan Asylum, for the express purpose of creating a disturbance, that they might raise a cry against Civil Rights. They were willing to have their wives, sisters and daughters crowded into seats with colored people, just for the sake of an opportunity to make political capital. Probably those who did it wanted their concubines as well as their wives to witness the show.

Banditti.

With reference to that worthless, cutthroat class of southern whites, characterized by General Sheridan as banditti, Charles Nordhoff, in a recent letter to the New York Herald, speaks as fol-

They are mainly the descendants of the overseer and negro trader class in the South and naturally despise honest labor and take readily to brute force. They have litical harangue, and they are a curse to the community. * * It was these wretches that Sheridan called 'banditti.' To have hung them by the dozen

Are the poor men, the mechanics who have families to support, those who make their living by the sweat of their brows, going to allow themselves to be. bamboozed by such men as the aristocrats of the Journal into voting for a Convention to make laws which will make a rich man richer and a poor man poerer? Poor Joe cant fool that class of people. Not much.

Maj. PEBLIC SPEAKING IN PENDER. -On the 16th inst., at Lillington, J. 11 Smyth, Esq., nomince of the Republi can party of New Hanover and Pender counties, for the Constitutional Convention addressed a large and attentive audience, and on the next day at Rocky Point the same gentleman and Gen. S H. Manning, made speeches to large numbers of Republicans, and not a few Democrats who wanted to hear both sides of the question. If these gentlemen cou'd be induced to make some of their telling speeches in some of the doubtful counties, the effect would be very beneficial.

THE NATIONAL LABOR TRIBUNE OF Pittsburg, Pa., a paper "Devoted to the Interests of Labor and to the Protection of Home Industries" says in its issue of July 17th.

"A broken down aristocrat, who publishing a paper called the Journal in Wilmington, N. C., owes his hands upwards of $1,600, wages. The latter have struck, and send us a circular containing the facts. Why it is that the proprietor of that paper does not sue those printers for "conspiracy" for presuming to ask their wages, is something that we refer to the daily newspapers of Pittsburg to answer."

Alas, poor Joe!

REV. DR. M. YASTROW .- It was our good fortune to listen to the gentleman while delivering his sermon at the laying of the corner-stone of the "Temple of Israel," in this city on the 15th inst.; also to his reply to the toast, "Religion and Good will to all," at the dinner given by our Jewish friends in celebration of the event. One would not suppose that Dr. Yastrow was of foreign birth and education, so pure and choice were his expressions, filled as they were with the most elegant and comprehensive thoughts of the English language, and, in common with all others who heard him, congratulate and thank him often sufficient education to make a po- for the rich literary treat which he so generously furnished us. NICE LITTLE GAMES .- The demo crats of Brunswick county make it convenient to loose the registration books of Northwest Township where there is a clear republican majority of two hundred voters; and the democrats of Goldsboro, with Bonitz in the lead bribe colored people to force themselves on white people, so as to enable them to raise a hue and cry against Civil Rights.

Too thin; it wont do.

SUMNER LIGHT INFANTRY with their invited guests, companies A and B Wilmington Rifle Guard, had their excursion on the 21st inst. on the steamer Waccamaw to Smithville. The battalion was under the command of Capt. J. S. W. Eagles, Major commanding. Their reception at Smithville was very flattering, and they had a glorious time generally. We are pleased to learn that a handsome sum was realized which will be applied to the payment for the uniforms of the Company.

ANOTHER PENITENTIARY CONVICT SHOT AND KILLED. -On Wednesday afternoon a colored man named Coffin. one of the convicts recently brought to this county from the penitentiary at Raleigh, and at work at the New Hanover County Work House, in attempting to escape was fired on by the guard. He succeeded in cluding the pursuit of those who were trying to re-capture him, and this morning his dead body was found in the woods some distance from where he was shot. He had been mortally wounded when shot at by the guard, from the effects of which wounds he had died.

Coroner Hewlett was notified.

While denying the truthful statement made by the National Republican some time ago that Jeff. Davis had been nentioned as a proper person to be the president of the North Carolina Uni versity, the Wilmington Journal says

"The lest we may be misunderstood from what we have said above, we take occasion here to declare that in our opinion no better man than Jefferson Davis can be found in all these United States to put at the head of the university, if it is desired to put that institution upon a sure and stable foundation from the very outset. The equal, if not the superior, of any man in the United States in natural ability, in general scholarly learning, in broad statesmanship, in personal purity and in highminded patriotism, and beyond any man living identified with the cause of whose name heads this paragraph the South, Jefferson Davis would give to Chapel Hill an eclat and prestige that, no other man could give. Unlike the Republican, we look upon Jefferson Davis as the properest person to instruct the youth of this country in its history, its government and obligations."

We commend this extract from a representative Southern Democratic journal to those people of the North who remember Jeff. Davis as the archtraitor of the rebellion. The "highminded patriotism" of such a man could at ence give him a forward place in the Gush movement which is just now so popular with certain classes of weak-kneed Republicans and designing Democrats, If the University at Chapel Hill is to be used as a hot-bed of treason instead of an institution of learning in the true sense of the word, Jeff Davis is the man to take charge of it. as no one will deny that he was directly "identified with the cause of the South."

For the Post. Convention in Union County.

MONROE, July 20th, 1875. The Democrats of Union county met n Monroe on the 10th inst., and nominated a candidate for the convention in the person of Dr. Redwine. This gentleman is not known, except to a limited extent, in the political circles of the county, and owes his nomination more to this tact, and the underlying sentiment of opposition to a convention which permeates the public mind of the people. It is significant, that more of the party leaders who heretofore led the masses to victory, such as Colonel Walkup and others, have not been selected for the position. Col. Walkup is a gentleman of high character and superior attainments, and would have carried the county despite of any opposition that might have been offered by the anti-conventionists; but he was not once mentioned in the convention that nominated Redwine. This indicates unmistakably the feeling in this county, and that the people do not care a straw "whether school keeps or not." Redwine was in the confederate service and commanded company F, 35th N. C. T., during the period that Col. Jas. Sinclair commanded the regiment. He is an amiable, easy, inoffensive man, without any decided talent one way or another, and practices medicine in the country on a slender scale with very slender returns, pecuniarily, for his services. He supplements his professional revenues by farming, and being scarcely known outside of his township prising and popular man that may run in opposition. The anti-conventionists have taken advantage of the situation and have put in the field J. J. Husty, Esq., one of the most popular men in the county, and the peer, at least, of Di constitutes the qualification of a mem ber of the convention. Mr. Husty was twice elected to the office of Sheriff and carried the county over the heads that day, under the chief marshalship of a host of competitors by overwhelm of Mr. Sol. Bear, the procession was ing majorities. It is conceded on all hands that he will be triumphantly elected. We Republicans have had no or ganization in this county since 1870. and the colored element became thereby much demoralized; so much so indeed, that the colored people have uniformly voted with the Democrats since. Matters, however, are changed, and the colored people of the county of Union conventionists and their votes will tell next August. The anti-conventionists, composed of some of the best men from the Republican and Democratic ranks, have organized and appointed the following gentlemen as! the Executive Committee to conduct the campaign in Union county, viz: James Sinclair, Chairman; G. W. Flow, J. J. Pickard, A. J. Love, At the conclusion of the ceremonies | L. B. Fincher, E.S. Harkness, John H.

Rely on one thing, viz: that this movement is a success, and J. J. Husty, the anti-conventionist, will be elected to the Convention.
