It is a part of history that Generals February. Jackson and Beauregard advocated the principles enunciated in the resolution which Ben Hill reported, though strange to relate none of the numerous biographers of Stonewall have adverted to it. Such a policy was urged by many other lesser lights. How many Jederal officers were "outlawed" by Jefferson Davis? How many co'ored people wearing the uniform and regularly mustered into the military service of the United States were butchered in cold blood after resistance had ceased? these superinhuman atrocities still cry aloud for justice.

But the amozing spectacle of a member of the Federal Congress defending a viltainous eroposition is presented to the gaze of the country- and his defense is applauded by the Democrats! Great God!
