The Superintendent of Police has from Maine, and turn it round; but as do so," From this we are led to believe that but for the tender compasion that Cox had for his opponent he would pray, what had this to do, after all, with the question under discussion? We cannot see, and it is not likely the Democratic House cared. What they wanted was to get the people laughing over the picture of Andersonville, and in this the speech was a success! In

When General Sherman's invasion or some other invasion, of that portion of the country was under way, and when there was a danger or supposed danger that it might come to that neighborhood, the regular military order No. 13. dated Headquarters Confederate States Military Prison, Audersonville, July 27, 1864, and signed by Brigadier General Winder, was issued, in these words: The officers on duty and in charge of Battery ----- of Florida artillery will, on receiving notice that the cnemy has approached within seven miles of this post, open fire on the stockade with grape-shot, without reference to the situation beyond this line of defense." Here were those 35,000 poor helpless, naked, starving, sick and dying men, to be shot down like cattle at the approach of their friends.

I hear it said that we are going to elevate Mr. Davis into very great consequence by refusing amnesty to him. That is not for me to consider. The law ! white leaguers of this congressional disthet do not want any nonsense about i the flag and the Union. They care not for either, and while they are willing that their representative should throw dust in northern eyes, they do not wish him to go too far. to recover the ground he has lost by his centennial oration, he must come back and speak as he did to the confedstate survivors of Fort Fisher The estrardinary attachment to the lost cause which he then displayed may possibly atome for his recent indiscretion.

But it is laughable to hear a cx rebel officer say to the northern people, from his reat in Congress that he forgives them for saving the Union. Funnier still, to those who know the Lieutenant-Colonel a war record, to learn that he shants himself as a representative of the southern soldiers.
