REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The National Republican Convention meets at Cincinnati on the 11th day of June next. The State Republican Convention convenes at Raleigh on the 13th day of July next.

81,000 BERT.

We are authorized to bet one thousand dollars that North Carolina will go Republican next November. Who will take it?

A REQUEST.

Persons writing for the Post will please make their communications short as we are receiving a great many that we cannot publish on this account. Long communications are not read, short ones are.—EDITORS.

A CARD.

We request the honest men of this State to send us the names of all the defaulters of public moneys, all the bribe takers and givers, or any other frauds that have been committed. We want the names of the parties, the amount of money used, and the county as well as the office held, if any. This we want in the interest of an honest government of North Carolina. Send at once.—EDITORS POST.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC THIEF.

The Springfield Republican says that in settling the affairs of Patrick Donahue, proprietor of the Boston Globe, facts of the most disgraceful character were brought to light. Donahue received funds from persons who wished to place them in safe hands. He had their unlimited confidence and especially of the Irish Catholics, who regarded him as their best friend. He had been the recipient of thousands of dollars from this class.

IT WILL BE REMEMBERED THAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN THE COUNTRY AND HAS WIDDED A LARGE INFLUENCE AMONG THE IRISH CATHOLICS, AND IT COMES WITH CRUSHING FORCE ON THIS CLASS OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE HERETOFORE REPOSED THE UTMOST CONFIDENCE IN THIS THIEF, DONAHUE, AND IN WHOM KEEPING THEY DEPOSITED ALL OF THEIR HARD EARNED SAVINGS, TO FIND THAT THEY HAD BEEN CHEATED OUT OF THEIR MONEY AND THE ACCUMULATIONS THAT THEY HAD BEEN GATHERING TOGETHER FOR YEARS SWEEP AWAY AS IT WERE, IN A MOMENT. IT IS HARD THAT THESE POOR PEOPLE SHOULD BE SOCH STIFFENED BY THIS DEMOCRATIC THIEF.

THE ROBESONIAN.

Last week the Robesonian led off in an editorial headed "Sound Radical Doctrine," taking as a text what purported to be an article taken from the Post concerning the late decision of the Supreme Court of the United States on the Enforcement Act.

We have no objection to our Democratic friend republishing our articles in his columns and commenting on them to his heart's content, if he will only be honest and not garble and misrepresent us. We think that our advice to the colored voters of the county good—very good—sound Republican Doctrine, and hope that they will act up to it, and we hope that every honest man who values the elective franchise and the great boon which it bestows upon him, will be equally jealous in guarding it. Let Democrats also act on that advice, and let them not be overawed nor brow-beaten by the political tricksters of their party who would drive the negroes, to either vote the way that they desired, or leave the polls.

But why could not the Robesonian tell the truth when it was quoting us? What we said was this: "If they (Republican voters) wish to enjoy the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to them by the Constitution of the United States, let them go to the polls and vote for the Republican ticket."

We have before called the attention of our readers to the fact that a long and continued stream of rejoicing has gone up from the Democratic press all over the land at the decision of the Supreme Court declaring the Enforcement Act unconstitutional. Why is it? Did that act do any injustice to any man? Did it interfere with any proper exercise of any amount of freedom by any man, white or black throughout the length and breadth of the land? Did it restrict any Democrat in his right to vote or to hold office? Yet this ku klux paper says that our remarks are "the last will gone up from the charged radical officials at the proper construction of the force bill." It is false that "this bill has been misconstrued to oppress the white people of the South," in what way have they been oppressed by it? Have they been kept from the polls? Or has the oppression been in the allowing Republican voters to go to the polls? Congress in its wisdom saw proper to pass the law because a great and pressing necessity existed for its passage. Ku kluxism was rampant throughout the South. It was a common and constant thing for Republicans to be murdered in cold blood when trying to enjoy the very rights and immunities guaranteed to them by the Constitution of the United States, and this law was passed to protect them and to save their lives. And now that law is of no more force; these ku klux cut throats breathe more freely and offer up a heartfelt "thank God" that they can resume their butchery with impunity.

We hope that the effect of our advice to our friends will be to act on it; if the ku klux go to the polls armed and prepared for murder and violence, let our friends go there prepared to exercise their fullest rights, and if any man or set of men stand between them and the ballot box in which they may have a right to deposit their ballots, let the ballots be deposited, even though it has to be done over the dead bodies of the miserable men who stand in the way.

INVESTIGATE.

The Confederate House of Representatives having resolved itself into Investigating Committees, has neglected all important legislation and every interest of the country suffers. The Senate is powerless. While the sun shines democratic law must be made. Capital for the democratic party must be manufactured for the next campaign, and democracy does not think the cost too lavish nor the expenditures too extravagant for this purpose. History tells not of any investigations set on foot by a democratic House to detect democratic corruption, and History's iron pen will never be used for that purpose. "Retrenchment" is the cry of the democracy.

INVESTIGATE.

The Confederate House of Representatives is authorized to have printed all the testimony taken before its Investigating Committee. The greater part of all this testimony is of no value whatever, being entirely irrelevant, and can only be utilized as waste paper. It will cost not less than three hundred thousand dollars to print all this stuff, and no one is benefited by it except the democratic printers who print it and the rings of democratic politicians who have the giving out of these jobs. "Retrenchment" is the cry of the democracy.

INVESTIGATE.

The Confederate House of Representatives have now their Investigating Committee in full blast. Each committee has at least one clerk and one stenographer. These clerks and stenographers cost about $15,000 per month or about $150,000 for the session. "Retrenchment" is the cry of the Democracy.

DECORATION DAY.

The thirtieth day of May is the day set apart all over the country for decorating the graves of those gallant Union soldiers who died that the Republic might live. As years roll away into the vast eternity of the past, the asperities and ill feelings that found place in the hearts of many become mellowed and finally forgotten, while at the same time the noble traits of the "loved and lost" are alone remembered and their valor and their virtues talked about. And this is well. It is well to point the attention of the rising generation to the acts of heroism of the brave men whose blood saved their country from dishonor and dishonor. It is well that a grateful people should assemble on a fixed day, throughout the land, and lay floral tributes and tokens of gratitude on the graves of those who "sleep the sleep that knows no waking."

Decoration Day will be a grand affair in Wilmington. We learn from the committee having the matter in charge that the celebration will be on a grander scale than ever before—possibly grander than any similar demonstration that has ever occurred in the country. In addition to the grand central attraction that will exist in the person of the orator of the day, Senator Morton, there will also be many other distinguished gentlemen who will grace the occasion.

As soon as the programme is arranged by the committee we will give it to our readers.

SMITH, THE JOURNAL CLERK OF THE KU KLUX HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Smith, the Journal Clerk of the ku klux House of Representatives, a leading ku klux Democrat, issued circulars to the United States soldiers, stating that if they would give him twenty per cent. of the amount, he would get Congress to pass the bounty bill and collect the money for them. Behold the beautiful spectacle, the last act of officers the Democrats have had since the war: he offers to bribe the House to pass the bounty bill. There can be no doubt but that Smith was authorized by his ku klux supporters to make the offer, with the understanding that he would divide the money with his ku klux brethren. Smith says in his circular: "I WILL HAVE IT EASIER IF YOU SOLDIERS WILL GIVE ME TWENTY PER CENT." I, Smith, the Journal Clerk of the Democratic ku klux House of Representatives, and whatever I want done, will be done at my command. I, Smith, will pay my ku klux brethren for their honest votes, twenty per cent. of the whole amount of the appropriations, and if it is found out all of our ku klux papers will call it very small "irregularity," or they will speak of it at all, WE ARE THE HONEST DEMOCRATS, no one can accuse us of stealing, or of bribery, the Republican papers don't dare to do so, they all want to belong to our hightoned society, and if they accuse the Democrats of stealing we would have them driven out, and our honest backs would be turned on them, which would force them to immediately retract their accusation.

The above is the way in which honest Smith put it to the soldiers and to the ku klux House, when he wanted the soldiers to bribe the ku klux House of Representatives, through him. Honest voters of North Carolina, what do you think of the hightoned ku klux party now. The first State officer the Democrats had in the State since 1868 has stolen the poor children's school money, thereby preventing them from being educated. The very first Democratic Congress since the war has offered through its subordinate, the Journal Clerk, to pass the bounty bill, if the soldiers will pay them one-fifth of the amount of the appropriation. Do you not think they should, by all means, be put in every office in the land, so that they could steal everything, as they would do in less than four years.

INVESTIGATE.

The Confederate House of Representatives have more than thirty Investigating Committees. These will demand an average attendance of at least five members of the House on their sessions, or at least one hundred and fifty of the honorable gentlemen are daily engaged in their Investigating Committees' rooms. Depleting the time of these gentlemen spent in their committee rooms in which absolutely nothing has been accomplished, and which time might have been profitably employed in the proper and regular routine duties of the House, and we find that they have cost the country about $15,000 extra already. "Retrenchment" is the cry of the democracy.

WAKE NICODEMUS.

Will our little 7x3 friend, the Wide Awake tell our distressed soul what its politics is? It goes one eye on something, but we can't tell what it is. And won't it tell us something more about Rance and Vansom? Please.

Our ku klux contemporary, on the other side of the street wants "some one to prepare a list of friends and corruption in the government during the past four years." Let some one do it, by all means, and we pledge the public to prepare one on the Democratic side, and will BETWESTY DOLLARS TO ONE that the Democratic stealings will amount to FOUR TIMES THE AMOUNT of the Republican government of U. S. Grant.

Because General Rutherford, at the suggestion of several gentlemen, wrote to Senator Morton asking if he would consent to deliver the decoration oration at Wilmington on the 30th of May, some scribbler has written to the Robesonian a scurrilous attack upon both Gov. Morton and Gen. Rutherford. The Union soldiers of this region are more than gratified at securing a statesman of so great eminence to deliver the annual address, and the aforesaid scribbler need give himself no further unnecessary about the matter. As to his fling at Gen. Rutherford, he knew he was stating what was false, if he knew anything, which is doubtful!

MORE DEMOCRATIC IRREGULARITIES.

The Democratic Treasurer of Jersey City has just been found short, behind in his account—appropriated a small sum to his own use. Poor Democracy, we know not what will become of your honest souls unless you get control of the State and national governments, so that you can steal from both. You stole the election in Robeson county last summer, now keep your hands in by stealing the election in November next. In the meantime, steal whatever you can get your hands on.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Correspondents of the Post must remember that it is an inflexible rule that the name of the writer will be sent with all communications. We do not publish the names of the writers when we are requested not to do so, but we do not publish any communications unless we know who they are from.—Neither do we undertake to save or return communications that we do not publish, they go into the waste basket and are used for kindling fire.—Correspondents will send themselves and us both trouble and annoyance by observing our rule and governing themselves accordingly.—THE EDITORS.

MORTON VS. BLAINE, THE TIMES VS. POST.

The Times is for Blaine, the Post is for Morton, is the right way to put it for Cincinnati. We will support the Cincinnati nominee, let it be who it may, in preference to the ku klux thief that the Democratic Convention will nominate. Though Morton is the best, and can poll more votes than any man yet spoken of, and every Southern man should go for him. Morton has been their true defender in the Congress of the United States. Let any delegate to Cincinnati go against him, and they will find out whether Morton was popular in North Carolina or not. If there had been a Convention in the State the delegates at large would have been unanimous for him; as it is, we understand some of them are his friends.

SENATOR THURMAN.

Another Democratic thief named, caught, detected in one of those little things the ku klux Democrats call "IRREGULARITIES," when it is in their party, but when a Republican, it is steal. We call it stealing, bribery, corruption, &c. Let an investigation be had, and they will find plenty more of just such honest, hightoned Democrats in the Senate and House, as Senator Thurman, who have been stealing. For instance: Mr. Lamar is nothing more than a ku klux highwayman. Any man who ever belonged to the ku klux, a white liner, a robber, thiever, murderer and pickpocket, let them be Governors, members of Congress or President. We can point out several of them in this city who belonged to the ku klux, and to-day stand high in Democratic society, notwithstanding the blood of many a poor victim is on their hands. We thank God the time is coming when they will be properly rewarded for their sins.

There is a courage in whiskey that is truly surprising, even to the most timid Democratic oyster of it, who, when so much under its benign influence that they cannot stand steadily alone, believe that they could whip a sober man.

The Democratic District Executive Committee meets on the 25th of April to fix up their State for the Wilmington election.

TAX COLLECTOR OF PENDER.

Mr. Jones, the Treasurer, denies in a letter to the Tax Collector, of circulating the report that he was behind in his money matters. We shall be able, without any trouble, to prove that he has caused to be circulated the report. We don't know officially as yet, whether the Tax Collector is or is not behind as we have asked the question of the Treasurer and he refused to answer it. We shall have more to say about this matter in our next.

A LIE NAILED TO THE COUNTER.

The Washington Echo of the 18th inst., says: "The Washington Republican says the article in the Wilmington Post, reflecting on General Ransom, accusing him of corruption, is a 'slander on that gentleman.' The Republican says there is no paper man in Congress."

This is a lie cut from the whole cloth. The Washington Republican never made any such statement stigmatizing the article in the Post about Ransom as a "slander," and the Echo man who made that statement made it knowing it to be a lie. It does seem impossible for a democrat to tell the truth.

INVESTIGATE.

The Confederate House of Representatives with its more than thirty Investigating Committees costs the country more than $12,500 per day in its search for corruption. How much of this money they pocket themselves one may judge. They have not yet found where as much as one dollar has been stolen from the government. "Retrenchment" is the cry of the democracy.

INVESTIGATE.

The Confederate House of Representatives has caused hundreds of Deputy Sergeant-At-Arms to be sent all over the country to look up witnesses to be brought before its investigating committees. These men all draw large salaries, and while traveling their hotel bills and other expenses are paid by the government. One hundred thousand dollars will hardly be sufficient to pay the cost of this item alone of this investigating furor. "Retrenchment" is the cry of the Democracy.

INVESTIGATE.

The Confederate House of Representatives have caused their Sergeant-At-Arms to bring witnesses from every State in the Union to testify before its investigating committees. They have been summoned in almost countless numbers, and they come up in multitudes. Each witness is entitled to a per diem for his attendance, besides his mileage for travel.—The money paid to each witness for his per diem and travel will average not less than $3.00. There has already been about two thousand witnesses who have been or are in attendance before the committees, and thus far the Treasury of the United States has been or will be called upon to pay out to them about six hundred thousand dollars! "Retrenchment" is the cry of the Democracy.

W. N. C. RAILROAD.—The Commissioners will meet at Asheville on Tuesday next, to consider some important matters in connection with the road.

We call attention to letters from Hatteras and Fayetteville, one recommending Mr. West of New Bern, and the other Gen. Rutherford, for Secretary of State.

Only two days for listing your taxes, to-day and to-morrow.

All that do not list will have to pay double tax, besides stand a chance to be indicted for failing to list their poll tax.

The City Tax Collector intends to sue out warrants for all those who are behind in paying up their license tax in a few days. Our merchants had better look after this matter at once.

The local editor of our little back alley cotemporary found out that the toll house for the turnpike road had been commenced, a week after it was finished. What enterprise for a local.

Gen. Allan Rutherford has returned to Wilmington and is now engaged in the practice of law. If any of our friends have any legal business they wish attended to at the capital of the nation they could not trust it in better hands.

The suit against the Western North Carolina railroad, in favor of the Southern Express Company, for money loaned said road before it was sold under mortgage and purchased by the State, was argued before Judge Dick, at Greensboro, on last Tuesday, by Messrs. Bailey & Ball for the Express Company and by Hon. Daniel L. Russell for the Railroad Company; the case was decided on Friday last in favor of the Road. The full amount involved was some $18,000.

UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE DEPARTMENT OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA, WILMINGTON, APRIL 21, 1876.

United States vs. One and no name. Seized on the 15th day of April 1876 on the property of Yancy Blinger or unknown, whereof the said Yancy Blinger and any other person claiming the same have been notified and shown cause why the same should not be forfeited to the United States for violation of Internal Revenue Act. J. E. YOUNG, Special Agent, by J. M. SMITH, Deputy Collector.

PLOTS FOR ORGANS.

Send for price list and list of instruments to J. E. YOUNG, Special Agent, by J. M. SMITH, Deputy Collector.

We have this to say about Gentlemen.

Pendleton—he cannot possibly feel as cheap as Robbins, no matter how much he was caught robbing the little girls.

MR. DANIEL F. BEATTY, manufacturer and proprietor of the Beatty Piano and Beatty's celebrated Golden Tongue Parlor Organs, Washington, N. J., is certainly a very reasonable and generous man to transact business with. He makes this very fair proposition to any who may favor him with an order, as follows: "If the instrument does not prove satisfactory after a test trial of five days after receiving it the purchase money will be refunded upon the return of the instrument, and he will pay freight charges both ways." This is certainly an exceeding generous and safe manner in which to transact business with him. He warrants his instruments for six years. See Jan 28-66.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A Card to the Republicans of New Hanover County.

At the earnest solicitation of many friends I have consented to become a candidate for the nomination for sheriff, I wish my claims submitted to the next Republican Convention of New Hanover county and there abide the result. We must have harmony, every true man to the Union must stand or fall by the Union Convention, the issues are too important for any fighting in our party. I call upon my friends to do nothing that will create any discord and split in our ranks, and support no man who is not a true and tried Union man. None but old soldiers should be trusted as the masthead during a storm, our best pilots must be at the helm, and if we see it that we have those success to ours, otherwise we are doomed.

The accounts to our Constitution, to be submitted to the people, are calculated and intended to take away the rights of every poor man, white or black, in North Carolina, therefore I call upon them to stand together in this matter and see that they are defeated. If we should by any division allow them to be adopted, a Republican form of government in this State will be forever gone and the white and black man alike will be slaves to the rich aristocracy. Let no man deceive you, read them and decide for yourself. In my opinion there is strength left us stand or fall fighting for the right. DUNCAN HOLMES, April 21-76.

In the matter of Bankrupt, William G. Matthews vs. the Creditors of April 1876, a warrant in bankruptcy was issued out of the District Court of the United States for the Cape Fear District of North Carolina against the estate of William G.
