GOLDSBORO, N. C., June 5th, 1876 EDITORS POST :- The scene at the N. Railroad ticket office in Goldsboro, rendered so deeply pathetic by the Memenger man, must have been viewed by him with tearfully sympathetic eyes and sketche i by tremulous fingers. I suspect that the immense reservoir of pity and human kindness condensed and pent up in that man, Bonitz, rarely ever springs a leak as it did while recording the story of the "aged colored woman," and so overwhelmed was he at thought of a ticket agent so destitute of kindly impulses as to refuse a contribution in case of such dire extremety, that it never once occurred to him that his compassionate soul might have devised other and better means in aid of the poor unfortunate, than by making record of her distress and want in the columns of his newspaper. The gallantry of a $5,000 salary mas in bequeathing the estate of fifty cents in charity is to be admired and his example emulated by others of his rank and station; and, too, his gratuitous words of counsel to "strap him well," when she should overtake (not ber "sick child"-but) her runaway boy-we hope were treasured up and carried into effect. As for the paper man, be it hoped that in his extreme destitution of thought worth the utterance, he will continue to note arrivals at the ticket office, as far as possible abtain the financial status of each, donate liberally to the thousand and one applicants for reduced transportation, and of all make a truthful report. Yours, J. N. G.

EDITORS WILMINGTON POST:

It is now time for us to become alive to our nominations for State officials, There is one in particular that I desire to mention through your valuable paper, that is, the Hon, W. H. Howerton for Secretary of State. He has hitherto made a very efficient officer, he has been vilely slandered and assailed by the Democratic press, and some of the leading Democrats, but with all their Cigars, Tobacco, Keresens Oil, attacks upon him, about his paper, books, inks, peus and carpets, they have signally failed to justify their falsity, he has vindicated himself from all their vile abuse, and now stands firmer in our ranks than he has ever done before. They have failed to put a blot upon his official career. With him as our nominee for Secretary of State man appointed a commit- we cannot fail to be victorious at our Groceries at Wholsale, backbone on the part of the next election. Then let us unite, nominate and re elect him to the position he now fills, and has filled so honorably in the past. Eastern Republican.

> The Way They Do It in Georgia-Ouly One Election I recinct in Chatham County.

In the county of Chatham there are nearly eleven thousand voters, and for the convenience of this great number of persons the aufflorities have provided one election precinct, which is established at the Court House; from all parts of the county the citizens must wend their way, at considerable inconvenience and loss of time, and at that place await their turn to vote, to say nothing of the personal danger to be apprehended where so many excited persons are congregated together. To insure that this violence should continue, the democratic legislature passed a law forbidding the establishment of additional precincts without the recommendation of two successive grand juries. To those who are acquainted with this section of the State, it may be unnecessary to say that the grand juries are democratic in composition, but those not acquainted would naturally suppose that all classes of citizens were reprusented thereon; such being the requirements of the law, but in Georgia we have passed beyond regard for law JOB where it interferes with our prejudices or apparent interests, so that the grand juries, with a half dozen individual exceptions, have been democratic for years, and the requirement of the law as to election precincts amounts to this. that when the democrats of Chatham county are graciously pleased to per-mit, the six thousand republicans of

The republicans have not quietly submitted to this outrage. Four times they have appealed to grand juries to the shiften to fine they have appealed to grand juries to recommend the establishment of additional precincts. The first time the jury did so recommend; the second is the will not be a candeclared "after due consideration of the would heartily supin General T. L. Hargrove, General and Separate of the establishment of addicommend the establishment of addi-tional voting precincts in this county."

Now this is capable of two construc-tions, the jury being democratic, found that in their judgment it was not ad-visable, and that judgment may have been made up and influenced by party considerations, but what shall be said of the action of the grand jury of the February term of the superior court, which was published last Friday, May 12th. Here it is:
