CHALLENGING VOTERS ON

ELECTION DAY. The Raleigh Constitution calls attention to the fact that many of the Demo-cratic papers in defiance of the clear decision of the Supreme Court in the casesof VanBokkelen rs. Canaday, 73 N. C. Re., advised inspectors of their party to challenge voters on election age, &c., thus throwing the burden of preof upon the voter. This is not law, and must in all cases be resisted. The following directions are to be followed implicitly :

I. A voter must before the day of election present himself to register. It he is challenged he is entitled to take an oath that he is entitled to register and vote, and if his right is not dis proved he is registered. II. No registration is permitted on election day, except when the voter ar rives at the age of 21 years on that day. If a registered person is challenged he must take the oath prescribed in Battle's Revisal-Sec. 15 .- Chapt. 52-

(which the poll holder must have on hand) and that is conclusive and he can vote without any further question. There can be no increase of names by registrars on election day, and no calling of witnesses. All these provisions of the statute except as stated above are annulled by the decision of Bokkelen vs. Canaday referred to.

It must be remembered also that the United States Supervisors of elections are to be present and that they have United states Government. power to supervise the whole proceedings at the polls, and to revise the counting, and if voters either purposely or accidentally are put in the wrong box, to change them and cause them to be counted in the proper box.

W. P. CANADAY. IT SPEAKS

THE DIFFERENCE.

During the reign of Jeff Davis over the Southern Confederacy and Zeb Vance over North Carolina, no man was allowed to say anything against the Government of the Confederate States. It was enough for a man to be suspected of a want of loyalty to King Jeff, and his fate was sealed. He was a bad law which affects to day one closs day and require bood of residence, arrested by Vance's home guards, inarched off to some military prison, or shot down like a dog. Now, the very men who made themselves conspicuous in arresting and shooting those who did not love Davis nor Vance, are the most bitter in their denunciations of Gen. Grant and the United States Goveroment. They can find no language too strong to express their hatred of the very Government which they are so earnestly seeking to control. Grant is a tyrant, and the Government of the United States a Despotism. Fuch are the epithets which they employ to express their feelings when speaking of the President and the country over which he exercises jurisdiction.

Now, during the palmy days of the Rebellion, when Jeff Davis was holding high carnival at Richmond, and Z:b Vance was drinking fine blockade liquors in Raleigh, what would have been the fate of any man in North Carolina, who would have uttered such sentiments about Davis and his Conthe Supreme Court in the case of Van- federacy? His life would have been forfeited, or ne would have been subjected to a living death in some filthy dungeon; yet it is all right for the chivalry to say what they please of the elsewhere in the wide, wide world. Old fammany suited him, and he suited Old Tammany. Let all decent people rejoice that there is an asylum where political lepers like John Morrissey and Samuel J. Tilden can be placed away with those of like faith, and find enjoyment in contemplating each others moral deformities.

may afford you consolation when you come to die, that you have at least done one good act.

Vote for Settle and Smith, and thereby aid in keeping the Old North State from the "fire and sword" policy which Vance once visited upon those who loved their country and their country's flag better than they did the despotism of Jeff Davis. Vote the entire Republican State ticket, for every man on it is worthy of the position for which he is a candidate. They are all good men and true, and will not suffer intellectnally, personally, morally, nor in any other respect, when compared with their opponents.

Vote for W. P. Canaday, and thereby aid in defeating the useless Waddell. There is no use in voting for a man to go to Congress simply to enjoy himself. We have no objection to any man enjoying life and seeing all the pleasure he can, provided he has the means and foots the bills out of his own pocket. Neither do we expect a member of Congress to deny himself every enjoyment, and work day in and day out; but we do think that when a man has been indulged for six years as Congressman Waddell has been, at the expense of his confiding constituency, he ought to combine a little business with his enjoyments, and pay some regard to the wants of those who placed him in such comfortable quarters. Vote for good and competent men for everything.

A DISAPPOINTED DEMOURAT. Hon. John Pool addressed the people of Abbottsburg on Tuesday, Oct. 24th. A little red faced, blustering 7x9 pettifogging lawyer who swells around Lumberton, named Dutch or French or something, took it into his little head that he'd put in an appearance and "divide time" with Mr. Pool. Accordingly he hitched his little mule to his little go-cart and started for the speaking, but found out that he could only get to the "big swamp," from which place he "hoofed it" to Bladenboro, a

"WE WANT & CHANGE. With many Democrats this is the only argument which they can assign for voting against Republican candidates There is a sort of vague, undefined idea that if there is a change, something may

We have repeatedly reminded th poor white men that they are not men. bers of the Democratic party, but they simply belong to the leaders, and all the leaders are lawyers; what then could . poor piney woods scrub (to use the "ills. oint" language of Mr. James T. Morehead,) expect in case there should be change? Let Tilden be elected president, Vance Governor, and Waddell to Congress, and then the srubs will feel worse than a poor man at a frolin for no crumb of comfort will they at But let us make a local application of the rule which should work bath ways, provided it can be a good one. The Democrats tell us the Republ cans have been in power long enough. and they want a change in national and State governments. Now if this be a good argument, why not apply it little nearer home?

Carteret county has been under Democratic rule ever since 1868, and the county government has done nothing for the relief of its citizens, and from what we can learn, the people of the county generally know comparatively nothing of the financial status of the county; they neither know what they owe nor what they have paid, and we would respectfully submit that those Democrats in Carteret who are so anaious for a change in National and State affairs, make a local application of the same rule. If we are to have reform as the basis of all our hopes, let it ramifv every township, every county, and thus work its way up to the State and nation. Let the axe be laid at the yery root of the tree, for it will not do just to lop off a few branches.

We do not wish to be understood as endorsing a change merely for the sake of change; we are only feeding Domocracy out of its own spoon. If there is any force in the argument, let it also operate in the case of Congressman Waddell, and let us change him off for the friend of the poor man, William P. Canaday.

But here comes the trouble about making this rule work both ways. The Democrats want a change only when it will be likely to place the loaves and fishes when they can get a taste. The don't want any change so long as they can have everything their own way .--They have held porsession of the government, with one or two short intervals, from the days of Jackson down to the close of Buchanan's administration They did not want any change thes, oh no! and rather than even submit quietly to any, they plunged the country into war, and sought its destruction. These are the men who now want a change so that they can once more desecrate the temple of liberty by cotverting it into a den of treason.

We learn that Gov. Vance in his speech at Beaufort, as elsewhere, dilated upon the great number of officeholders under Republican rule.

This may account for the want of applause which the Governor failed to elicit. From what we can hear, there are enough Democrats in Carteret who have high hopes and big expectations in case Tilden, Vance, and Waddell are elected, to fill every office within the limits of the State: and it must have been a wet blanket on the hopes and aspirations of this noble army of patriots to be informed that the numher of offices and office holders was too great.
