PERSECUTION OF THE EDITORS OF THIS PAPER.

In our last issue we spoke of the political persecutions of the editors of this paper for polical purposes. We expectted to Lave been tried before to a, but the c.se was put off and the t.ia set for to-day, so our readers will have to wait patiently until our next issue for an account of this political outrage. Mr. J. J. Cassidey, one of the former editors of this paper has been dragged from Peoria, III., to stand a tria'. Still the dough faces of the north are crying out pacification, while the Democrats of the s u.h are hunting down every outspoken Republican and persoluting him to the last extremity, for nothing else but his peculiar views. We tru y hops he par journa poli ; will be sucbut we wou if like to see the poor, persecu ed, bleeding, abused Repub icans of the south pached a littleits a very small crumb-while the great pr fouling is going on. In other words, we high tha there are : wo sides to this question, while Republicans are doing every ung possio e, humiliating themselves, to pacify the Democrats, wouldn't it be in place for them to require the Democrats to meet them-not hal way, (), no-just a ve. / small portion of the way. O would a not be better to abdicate and turn everything over to them, and then have all those outspoken Republicans sent to the penitential on account of the r political views, or be shot at the stake, I to Colgrove; or hang to a lies, I ke Outline.
