R. KENNEDY, Business Manager.

There has been another fire in St. John, N. B. It was in a suburb and the loss is $300,000. Insurance $90,000.

Several Republican members of Congress have held consultations at Washington with a view of harmonizing the the party in regard to all questions relating to the interests of the country.

Congressman Blackman of Kentucky made a most disgraceful allusion to the President in his speech at a Democratic wake in Washington the other night. Whereat Ben. Hill was shocked and snubbed him.

The old and familiar Hartford, one of the historic vessels of our navy, having been repaired at Norfolk has proceeded to the South Atlantic squadron. She bears the broad pennant of Commodore Nichols.

An Augusta (Me.) dispatch says: "Alice, the eldest daughter of Senator Blaine, was injured Saturday evening by the premature explosion of a toy pistol. She is quite comfortable, with a prospect of recovery."

John Baxter of Tennessee who is appointed by the President Circuit Judge of the 6th District is the brother of Governor Baxter of Arkansas, and uncle to the late Plato Durham of Cleaveland. He is a native of North Carolina.

Niles G. Parker, ex treasurer of South Carolina, against whom a judgment was found under Gov. Chamberlain for $75,000, has gone over to the Hamptonites, and is aiding that fearful rascal ex Gov. Moses. They have turned states evidence. They have both found fit associates in the men who are struggling to put the Hamburg massacre in the U. S. Senate.

The Rev. Dr. Fulton writes a long letter to the Brooklyn Eagle in praise of Conkling. In the course of his remarks he says:

Conkling is a Republican. He is not a so called Liberal. He never was. When these Reformers were loud in fault he was attending to his business. He stood for liberty seven days in the week. He stood for humanity seven days in the week. He stood for Grant and the administration. He never dipped his flag. It was such men as he that made it possible for the Republican party to have an existence.

They are a very polite people in Mississippi as the following clause from the Grenada Sentinel shows:

We understand that Scurlock a notorious radical negro of Yalobusha county is going to stump this county in the interest of Matt. Master, our sweet scented, Democratic Conservative, Independent Liberal-Republican. Rather say that broken candidate for sheriff of which will do well to stay at home. We might add it rather unhealthy in this county as we have had about enough of Robical carpet bag scoundrels. Captain, can't you get a more respectable villain to assist you in the campaign?

The man Master was a Confederate soldier and is a bolting Democratic candidate for sheriff.

The Supreme Court of the U. S. has now about one thousand cases on the calendar. By very hard work it can get through about three hundred and fifty cases in a year. It may therefore be said to be three years behindhand, which is a very serious matter. The Court ought to be strong enough to clear its docket at any time within a year. Justice long delayed is no better than justice denied; and with the existing and increasing tendency to bring important causes before the federal Courts, rather than before state courts, with their elective judiciary, and the natural propensity of litigants to carry cases to the highest court on appeal, it is not probable that the business of the federal courts will decrease. It is more likely to increase constantly.

The Boston Advertiser says the true course for Republicans who have faith in the patriotism and usefulness of the party is to stand by it and keep it as nearly right as they can. It advises Republicans to quarrel, if quarrel they must, with the enemies of the party, not with its friends. That's the doctrine for us. What we are trying to discover now is who are its friends.—Inter Ocean.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

We publish below, as a matter of great importance to our readers and of interest to them, what the South Carolina Republicans think of things, and how they are being treated. This letter is written to the National Republican:

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 11.

The Charleston Journal of Commerce, Rhett's paper, exultingly exclaims today that "the State Senate will stand, upon reassembling next month, sixteen Democrats, one Independent, Republicans none." This boast is not without foundation and yet, even after the surrender of April 10th had crowned the rifle club campaign of last fall with victory, the State Senate stood—Republicans 18, Democrats 14. The lower House was purged of Republicans by wholesale. The Charleston delegation, seventeen in number, elected by an average majority of 6,500, were excluded upon the ground that "the colored Democrats of that county were intimidated by the use of United States troops at the polls, and that there was not, therefore, a full and free election." The audacity of South Carolina Democrats would be laughable were it not known to be accompanied by a cruelty which has proved itself to be terrible. At the special election to fill these seats not a Republican voted. Ten or twelve other vacancies were made in a similar way. The House was made Democratic by two ma-was purged [illegible] voluntary withdrawal of [illegible] every one of the Republican majority. All but three of the colored men. Feeling themselves ostracised by the national party, they have [illegible] to their foes. The most [illegible] has generally been also [illegible] pursued with Senator Maxwell, of Marlboro. Woodruff, the former Clerk of the Senate, having been promised immunity in return for his [illegible] work, swore that upon some [illegible] years ago he secured the vote of Maxwell by a check for $5,000. Woodruff swore that he kept a memorandum of the bribery in his diary. The diary, when produced, is in a short hand which can be read only by Woodruff himself. He says it is an invention of his own. There is no check produced, and not a bit of evidence other than Woodruff's oath. Upon this Maxwell is committed to jail in $5,000 bail. He is then promised immunity if he will

which he does. The Senator from York, Dubois Walker, was arrested on a charge of forging a school warrant. He had been tried and convicted upon a similar charge in 1876, Judge Mackey presiding. Shortly after the trial reported to the Governor that subsequently discovered evidence had convinced them that the Senator was innocent and that the real culprit had been discovered, whereupon the Governor granted a pardon. The same Judge, who became the unscrupulous tool of the Democrats, had Walker arrested for forging another school warrant. The Judge visited him in jail and told him that he would be liberated and re-established again if he would resign. The suggestion was made out on the spot and Mackey forwarded it himself. [illegible] natures have been perverted by [illegible]. They were told that [illegible] would thus concentrate their white fellow citizens, whereas if they stubbornly continued to place themselves in the front of "reform and home rule" the consequences would be on their own heads. Another Senator was told that his Democratic friends had made up a purse of $[illegible] to which he would to Mason, Nash and Swails as this letter is written. The report is that both will [illegible] to the Senate meets. The [illegible] will probably deprive the Republicans of two, if not three of [illegible] Congressmen and [illegible] party in spite of Hamburg, Ellenton and the rifle clubs. We [illegible] by the News and Courier that Messrs. O'Connor, Richardson and [illegible] have to-day for Washington to [illegible] the seats in the House to which they are entitled. We have every hope that they will be promptly seated. [illegible] O'Connor was defeated by R. H. Cain by a vote of 21,383 to 16,071, [illegible] majority being 5,314. Had it not been for Democratic frauds and violence his majority would have been 10,000. The natural Republican majority of the district is at least 13,000.

Tillman was defeated by Rob't Smalls by a vote of 19,954 to 18,516, Smalls' majority being 1,438. This is the district in which the horrible butcheries of Hamburg and Ellenton took place, it is the district in which Edgefield polled 3,000 more Democratic votes than there are voters in the county; it is the district in which three Republican precincts were broken up by mounted ruffians, the managers driven off at the point of the pistol, and the ballot boxes destroyed. The natural majority in Smalls' district is not less than 10,000. In 1874 his majority was 13,291.

RICHARDSON WAS DEFEATED

by J. H. Rainey by a vote of 18,180 to 16,661, Rainey's majority being 1,519. In this district also Democratic violence and fraud prevented a full Republican vote. The district is Republican naturally by at least 8,000 majority.

The first step in the Democratic attack upon these Republican seats in the House has been similar to that described as to the State Senators. Woodruff has sworn in 1873 he bribed Smalls, then a State Senator. He also says he bribed Rainey and Cane, who were members of the General Assembly six or eight years ago. He has no other evidence than undecipherable by any one but himself. An entry in that, however, is enough to secure an arrest in South Carolina, and a conviction too, probably.

Republicans here have naturally very little hope of justice at the hands of a Democratic House for these Republican members. They feel that they have been deserted and betrayed by the national party. They have seen Hampton installed in an office to which he was not elected; they have seen Butler, the hero of Hamburg, become a potent counsellor to a Republican Administration; they see a Republican Senator from South Carolina hastening to say that he will vote to seat that hero beside him in the Senate; they see a United States District Attorney appointed to please Hampton, under a pledge that the Ellentou and Hamburg murderers shall go free; they see a Republican President introducing the leader of the shot-gun campaign of last year as "that great and good man, Wade Hampton." Seeing all this, can they be blamed if they conclude that the tender mercies of the Democratic House are likely to be no less cruel?

STILL HERE.

Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine for November contains 128 pages of the best reading matter the month will afford us. To its readers it must prove a source of mental pleasure and recreation. Non sectarian in its principles, it is purely religious in tone and teaching. It contains 100 fine engravings. The opening pages treat of the progress of Japan. Russia, Egypt, Greenland and other far away places are also noticed in its columns. The usual number of beautiful stories, the "Home Pulpit," by the editor, Dr. Deems, a quantity of witty paragraphs, poems, etc., complete the work. Its intrinsic value to the home circle is far in advance of the price. Every family should subscribe for this beautiful publication during the year 1878, the January number of which begins the third volume, and will be issued early in December. The Magazine contains an average of 170,000 words, and the annual subscription price is but $1 00, single copies 25 cents, free by mail. Address Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 537 Pearl Street, New York.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for November contains some highly interesting matter. It is full of variety, just what our readers delight in. It contains an excellent and very liberally illustrated article on the late M. Thiers, ex-President of the French Republic, one on "The Coast Fisheries of America" (about 30 illustrations); another on "The Artificial Production of Light" (20 illustrations), and several others. To these are added some very excellent short stories, continued a number of welcome paragraphs and anecdotes of tales, natural and political history, while science, art, poetry, wit and humor find their places among its many columns. The end of the year draws near, and a subscription to the Monthly for 1878 would make a very desirable holiday present or a New Year's gift in the home circle. The Popular Monthly is the best and cheapest publication of its kind in the world. Each number contains 128 pages, 100 illustrations, and an average of 100,000 words, and the price per year is but $2 50, or single copies 25 cents, free by mail, which is 16 to 22 per cent. cheaper than Harper's or Scribner's Magazines, which contain an average of but 48,000 and 112,000 words, and cost $4 per annum. For the Popular Monthly, address your orders to Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 537 Pearl Street, New York.

"That Girl of Mine," a love story, by a noted author, is in press, and will be published in a few days by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. It will be found to be one of the most brilliant society novels issued for years, being a true story of Mabel's flirtations during a winter passed by her in the best and most fashionable society in Washington. It will be issued in uniform style with Mrs. Burnett's popular novel of "Theo," in cloth and paper cover, and at the same price.

There is one seat in the Senate made vacant by the severe and prolonged affliction of its distinguished occupant, that of Senator Morton. Some kind hand placed upon it yesterday a large bouquet, a floral tribute to the worth and merit of one whose absence is conspicuous to the whole nation. He will be missed now by friends and foes.—His services, always valuable, would at this time be inestimable. We join with every patriot in the land in wishing him a speedy restoration to health.—Knoxville Whig.

Gov. Vance has issued a commission to Judge A. A. McKoy to hold a special term of McDowell Superior Court, and to Judge W. R. Cox to hold the special term of Robeson Superior Court. What a gathering of the saints.

MILITARY SHRIMMAGE.—On Monday last the military met, and after several black eyes, the Whitings were successful, and was awarded the prize for being the best shoulder hitters. We understand the second meeting is not yet arranged.

Rose and Harry Watkins, second class actors, were here Wednesday and Thursday nights last, and were very poorly patronized, as they ought to have been. Our people are tired of such actors. Capt. Pennypacker should try and secure some first-class theatrical companies to visit our city, or none.

The Wilmington Light Infantry won the fine flag at the State Fair, being the best drilled company on the Fair ground. Wilmington has considerable to be proud of in the record made at Raleigh by her military. They brought home the two best prizes that were offered.

Judge W. A. Moore has very properly put a quietus on professional jurors. He ordered the sheriff, on last Monday after court was opened, to summons none but the very best men in the city for jurors, and to give the professional fellows, who have been in the habit of lying around the court house for the purpose of serving on juries, the go by.

THE SOUTH ATLANTIC.—The November number of this splendid literary magazine came to hand on Monday last. It is all its Editor claims for it; in fact it is a first class literary magazine, and one that the people of this city should be proud of and patronize, as well as the people of the whole state. Price, single copy 30 cents; one year, $3 00. Address Mrs. Cicero W. Harriss, Wilmington, N. C.

That fine mountain, stall fed, beef on sale at Messrs. Munroe & King's stall, Second street, between Market and Princess streets, makes the tenderest, juciest and sweetest steaks and roasts that you ever eat. Try it. It will make the poor forget their poverty and the rich feel charitably inclined.—They also keep the very best pork, sausages, &c., and venison, when it is be had in the market.

OUR MILITARY.—Lieut-Col. M. P. Taylor left our city last week with the best wishes of his friends, they all expecting that he would return a full-fledged Colonel of the first N. C. Regiment. He having by his personal efforts secured the requisite number of companies to organize a regiment. But to his surprise, and that of his friends, on reaching Raleigh Col. Manly claimed that he also had the requisite number for his regiment, and claimed that he was entitled to the ranking regiment—the first. He based his claims on the fact that a man from Newbern had in his pocket an application for authority to raise a company, or something about equal to that, while Colonel Taylor's companies were already organized. But the pressure brought to bear by Col. Manly was sufficent to force Governor Vance to revoke the order for the organization of Col. Taylor's regiment. From all the facts, Col. Taylor is entitled to the first regiment, and should insist on it. He has the support of this entire community, and we are glad to learn that he has no intention of giving way.

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,
