The Campaign.

The campaign has opened, and on all sides do we hear the rattling of drums and the blowing of partizan bugles. A very liberal spirit has developed itself among liberal minded men of both parties and the article we copied in our last issue from the Tarboro North Carolinan is one of many we might quote, showing that progress has been made in the right direction, and the Post policy is bringing forth good fruits in the accession to our ranks of the better class of our opponents. No really conservative man can stomach the insane virulence of Joe Turner or the small try of journals following his leadership. A Christian cannot be a blackguard neither can a gentleman or true conservative, fellowship with men who have no higher idea of political discussion than to villify opponents. Editors are very much like other men, and although exatted into a position where the use of the royal "we" is freely used: still personally they are to be seen in their various organs all eager for popular favor just as the trader or dealer in small wares shows avidity to please the customer who shows a disposition to purchase.

believe in an impersonal journalism where the editor is lost in his paper, but we do not believe in the style pursued by the mass of the opposition press in keeping at the head of party organs men who are mere dummies and who do not write but offer their columns to the crowd or clique controlling the supposed owner and who is no more responsible for the articles appearing in its columns than the man in the moon. Thus we see the Star of this city daily publishing articles treasonable in their nature and so revolting to every principle of common sense, that the inference is plain that Mr. Bernard-a shrewd business mannever saw the vile production. So with the Journal, Sentinel, and Messenger, of Goldsboro, which last takes us to task for calling upon our people to unite and keep cut the disorganizers called democrats. Says the Messenger :

The cry of alarm and despair comes from every quarter of the radical camp. They go back to days of slavery-days that have long since passed—to hunt up themes for subjects, in hopes to win back the many colored men that have already and are fast leaving their rotten, corrupt, thieving ranks. They go back to days of the war, to speak of outrages committed by the "rebels," to win so-called "Union" men back to their bosoms. But they fail to speak of themselves! They fail to speak of their actsboth during and since the war! They fail to tell the people how they have robbed them-how they have stolen the public moneys and gambled it away and then taxed the over-burdened population to re-

But the people need not now be told-They are aroused to a sense of their present bemocrats and Conservatives take courage when you see such words as the following being uttered by the radical leaders, ances or horns just above the forehead, and especially those papers published and employed by the Government! The Post says: "The enemy is united, bold, and defiant, we are disorganized, and vacillating."

Yes, brother scribbler, we know the Post did say "we are disorganized and vacillating." We were, but are so no longer. Let us remove the veil from the eyes of the contributing editor of the Messenger. Let him read carefully the columns of the Republican journals published in this State, and then turn to those of his own party. Verily the shoe is on the other foot, and the disorganization appears only among the demon-ocracy who are like blind leaders of the blind-" they go about like a drunken man"-wandering; helpless; forlorn! On the other side-let but the Messenger man turn his eyes to the Republicans, and point to one difference now existing in our ranks; whether as regards policy to be pursued or men to be selected to bear our banner. All unimportant issues have been sunk, and the host of little men with little minds have been snowed under so that only the giants lead us in the fray. Holden will remain Governor, Abbott and Pool will continue Senstors, and most of our represen tatives will be permitted two terms, as this is the right thing when a man has proved himself worthy. Our Sheriffs will generally continue in office, as they have proved themselves worthy, and as for the legislature most men are willing to stay home that have served a term in that turbulent body, and those who want a second term are of a most singularly self-sacrificing disposition

Advice. Already do the dogs commence to howl around our independent neighbor of the Tarboro Carolinian. We tell him to keep independence. If the sham conservatives send you out of your party, come and join the Nation's party which is the true Repub-Noah we call to our brother Carolinian to come in to the Republican ark, and "keep out of the wet." No storms can drive us to any other coast than that of safety, and though the foolish bray and wag their big chins, and long ears; the free writers will always prevail over the loose talkers.

THE stern necessities of partisan journalism are illustrated by the Terre Haute Ex- A negro sober is certainly as good as Saulspress, which pathetically exclaims: "If bury drunk. you don't want the rate of taxation increased five cents for every three-quarters of a million of wealth added to the city, and exported 48,000,000 of products. Dur-turn out to-day and defeat the party that ing the past six months our exports but at Thos. Williams' old place in said Township, "Or the Leopard his Spots." The Standard says: We see in the Conservative address to the people of this State, signed by the Conservative, as well as the Democratic, members of the General Assembly, the following paragraph:

"The colored man now enjoys the same political and civil rights as the white man. We accept his status as fixed by the Constitution of this State and the United States in good faith. We regard it as a final settlement of the question. It now becomes our duty as good citizens to elevate him morally and intellectually."

The above would deceive almost an man, who was not conversant with the sy tem of deception practiced by the "scallawags" of Legislature. But it is plain They promise to aid and elevate the colored man "morally and intellectually," but not politically. "Ay, there's the rub."

They elevate him morally by burning his churches and encouraging the kuklux t hang and shoot him.

They elevate him intellectually by tearing down or otherwise destroying h school-houses, and by encouraging the ku klux to mutilate or scourge him.

Yet the Journal declares: We have frequently wondered, and it is a subject of special wonder, how long this unnatural and unreasonable prejudice shall overcome the promptings of interest and sympathy. All questions which may have given just grounds for the political separation of the races in the past have been settled. Those which now agitate the country affect the interests of Southern whites and blacks alike.

This spirit of "moral and intellectual development" will be made still plainer by the following article, which has gone the the school. With this endeavor carried rounds of the Southern press, and which we clip from the Richmond Enquirer. After reading it, further comment is unnecessary:

[From the Lexington (Mo.) Caucasian.] Down! Down!! Down!!! During the whole nine years of Radical rule! The proudest, freest, most enlightened, prosperous and happy nation on the globe, in 1860. The lowest, basest, poorest, most utterly bratalized and enslaved, in 1870! Cotton field niggers legislating for the descendants of the Washingtons, Randolphs, Hamptons and Lees! A Pennsylvania nigger befouling the seat of Pickens and Pinckney, on the Supreme Bench of South Carolina! nigger barber scrawling his boorish X mark to the legislative enactments of Louisiana, as Lieutenant Governor and President of the State Senate! A nigger cabin boy signing the commission of Congressmen, Sheriffs and Circuit Judges, as Secretary of State of Mississippi! And a thievish nig-ger preacher grinning and combing his lousy wool, in the place once filled by the hero, statesman and patriot, Jefferson Davis, in the United States Senate, so-called.

The Chicago Post gets off the following The devil is dead ! He died in Indiana, where the soil seems to have been congenial. He was buried in the unpaved precincts of rustic Mooresville, by some grateful friend -probably Dan. Voorhees-and his well preserved skeleton has just been dug up by an unhappy spadist. The frame is said to which is likely enough, and the vigilant telegrapher goes on to say: "It measures nve feet ten inches in height; the skull is depressed in front, having two protubercurving backward; the arms are long; the spinal bone is of remarkable length, and terminates in a tail about a feet in length." That's the fellow we have read about ! Nothing is missing but the cloven hoofs, and some mean Hoosier had probably dug into the grave and got those out to make glue of. This proof of his demise will be decay of the Democratic party.

GEN. JORDAN, Commander-in-Chief of the Cuban army, arrived in New York on the woman is undermined. Friday. The object of his visit is to procure munitions of war for the patriots, and he will return to Cuba after a brief stay. He represents the Cuban cause in a better condition than at any previous stage, and the success of the revolution depends only on time. The Cuban' army now numbers about 10,000 men, well equipped and supplied with artillery. The season is now in favor of the revolutionists, giving them what they most need-time for organization and collection of supplies. There are not fifty foreigners in the Cuban army. Gen. Jordan says the Cubans are in no way discouraged at the prospect, and that the Spaniards have lost their opportunity for putting down the revolution. Gen. Jordan left Euba in a small sloop, and when three days out was chased by five steam gunboats, but a storm arising; succeeded in making is escape.

Admiral Porter has written a letter in which he says that the Delaware is the most defensible river in the world, and that Chester, Pennsylvania, is the very best location in the United States for building iron ships. He adds: "There is going to on and light the good fight of journalistic be an immense business done in the next ten years in iron ships. Our Government is awakening to the necessity of rescuing our commerce from the hands or the Enlican and you will be saved. Like another glish, and must necessarily, from year to year, grant liberal drawbacks and subsidies until we can stand on our legs again."

> SAULSBURY, who runs the State of Delaware, and generally finds himself high and still dry, has issued a powerful appeal to the people of that wonderful State to organize a "white man's party," as against the operation of the Fifteenth Amendment.

In January, 1870, we imported 37,000,000 and exported 48,000,000 of products. Dur-

As we forgive we can afford to pity these narrow minds and dwarfed souls who have been so free to find fault with this paper, for its even course of fair mindedness, as between man and man; for its just appreciation of the rights of those whose notions are not all in accord with it, as well as for the extraordinary and reprehensible conduct of this Editor in admitting into his columns arguments of Republican gentle-

As to political integrity, established by a journalistic career of more than four years, we challenge record with any man in North Carolina, and we will add, merely because it is so, that no man in the country has sacrificed more of pecuniary interest to political principle than has the Editor of this paper.

It would be rather late in the day to desert principle now, in the absence of any hope of gain or preferment, and after every inducement to abandon the Democratic WHITE GOODS. party has been rejected, and every argument for the Conservative course of policy and expediency hopelessly exploded .- Tarboro Carolinian.

ROBERT HABLAN, a colored man, struck the right key in his speech at the Fifteenth Amendment Jubilee in Cincinnati, recently, when he said:

Knowledge is power; and those who know the most, and not those who have the most, will govern this country. Let us combine and associate and organize for this end. In the pulpit, in the press, in the street, everywhere let our theme be education; education; until there can not be found anywhere a child of us that is not at out, who can measure the progress that may be made in a single generation of freedom by a poor, despised, and enslaved race? Then, indeed, would vanish prejudice; then would the noble martyrs to our cause not have died in vain, and human slavery would evermore be an impossibility.

COLONEL GALLOWAY has withdrawn from the Memphis Avalanche, because the chief stockholders of that paper did not believe, as he did, that the old secession leaders were best for the Democracy. The remaining editors very emphatically say: "Save us from the supremacy of the old secession leaders, who did all they could to plunge the South into war.

A young lady married a man by the name of Dust, against the wish of her parents. After the honeymoon they lived unhappily together, and she returned to her father's house, but he refused to receive her, saying: "Dust thou art, and unto Dust shalt thou return."

The facts presented below, by a lady in Texas, will not be read with any very pleasurable emotions: There is as much passion for display and dress, perhaps, as anywhere else; for tight lacing and pinching shoes; tor beauty in form and features, but generally the "belle of the village" is regarded by one from the North as remarkably plain and unattractive. There is no real beauty here, though this is no fault of nature. I have seen young ladies of twenty, whose features and symmetry of form would make New England ladies the admired of all admirers, who absolutely are repulsive to the lover of true beauty, so expressionless and lifeless are they. This is one of the products of excessive snuff "dipping," to which every Texan woman is enslaved; go where you will, and this disgusting custom greets you. Young girls of ten years make a broom of one end of a stick, by chewing, dip it into the family snuff-box-which is no mean size-restore it to its place in one corner of the mouth, then chew and spit, and there is no cessation of this vile practice till the end of life. After continued received as a full explanation of the rapid and careful observation, I am convinced that this wholly forbids the existence of beauty in a woman indulging in it; the skin is made unnatural, the lips and mouth

PREPARATION OF COMPOUND EXTRAGT BUCHU.

The component parts are BUCHU, LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

Mode of Preparation.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries; very little sugar is used, and a small proportion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopæa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of prepa-
