United States Senator.

The various State journals have been discussing for some time past the subject of who shall sit in the Senate of the United States. The Post has remained silent, and believing that the windy war of opposing candidates would soon expend itself-as indeed it has - we now quietly suggest to the Legislature that there are some interests butside of mere party patropage in the position of United States Senator. As has been acknowledged by every fair minded citizen of the State, Hon. Joseph C. Abbott has honestly sought the public good industriously and ably. At all times he has been found in his seat in the Senate, and approachable on all occasions. He has endeavored to obtain from his old associatesnow high in power-those favors, no mere politician could obtain for a State politically powerless.

man in the Senate could have obtained a tithe of the favors extended North Carolina by the present administration. H; must be stupid beyond hope of redemption who believes any ex-member of the contederate Senate, army or resident in the State during the late rebellion, could have obtained, or can now obtain, even recognition at the hands of a majority sternly loyal and opposed to assisting any of the old classguilty of leading North Carolina in the secession movement. We are pleased to know | help themselves the best they can. that many of the opposition are at last returning to reason and will, we hope use all possible influence on conservative representatives to obtain votes in favor of General Abbott. As the man to benefit the State we advocate his return, and from the fact predict a union of moderate Conservatives with Republicans to secure a most desirable end, viz, the return of Senator Abbott to familiar with the facts and circumstances. the seat he fills so acceptably to his State and people. Let the people of North Carolina read the following from the organ of the National government at Washington, the return of one standing so high in favor with the administration. We copy from

The most important question, however, nationally or locally, is perhaps, the selection of a United States Senator. North Catolina has never before been more ably or faithfully represented than by General Abbott. While he is a thorough Republican in principle, he has never resorted to the tricks of the partisan or demagogue, and has guarded the interests of his adopted State with zealous care. Having a somewhat extended knowledge of his predecessors in the Senate chamber, we are free to say that we can not call to mind one who has done so much for the State. Senator Abbott is a man of fine presence, genial, and possessing marked ability; and being widely and favorably known at the North, he commands the respect of every one, even that of his political opponents. The weight of his influence his been felt in the United States Senate and to the great advantage of North Carolina. That he has taken the most carnest interest in the material interests of the State is shown by the measures he has advocated. Through his instrumentality an appropriation was secured for improving the Cape Fear river; he earnestly pressed the Southern claims bill and the payment of bounties to soldiers. In relieving the distillers of fruit from the unequal operation of the internal revenue laws, his constituents of whatever political faith will ever feel grateful.

Another favorite measure of his, and for which he has worked unceasingly, is the Southern Pacific railroad, in which the whole South is interested. His place can not be filled by any person at present named for the position, and his retirement will be a serious loss to the "Old North State." Unfortunately for her, the successful candidate will be opposed to the Administration position before the public.—Charlotte Demand a majority of both houses of Congress, ocrat. and his influence in the Senate must necessarily be very limited. It will be difficult indeed for a Kuklux representative to secure favors from a Republican Congress.

It is understood that Senator Abbott, upon the expiration of his term, will return to the management of his private business in North Carolina, already too long neg- good, and we wish Dr. George and his prolected. That he is a valuable citizen, it is hibition protege success. only necessary to state that he has been the means of introducing more capital into North Carolina for permanent investment than any man of the present or any other day. Having a large capital to operate with himself, he owns land by the thousands of seres and gives employment to hundreds of men. He has already built up one town in what was, before his advent, a howling wilderness, and is actively engaged in almost every enterprise the object of which is to develop the resources and increase the wealth of the State. Truly it may be said that, in retiring from the councils of the nation, what will be North Carolina's loss will be his gain.

Brave and True.

We like courageous men, and the plain, honest democrats of the country will sustain Mr. Yates in his excoriating of the "chivalry" writer (D. H. Hill), who seems passed away and mere boast and wind will no longer give men position or public favor. The class Gen. Hill represents are here repudiated by the real leader of the democrats of this State:

RATHER MEAN. A communication appeared last week in a paper published in this City called the "Southern Home," of which Gen. D. H. Hill purports to be the Editor, pretending to make inquiries about the action of the late meeting at Wilmington of the Stockholders of the Wil., Char. & Ruth. Railroad. The communication is a mean attempt to misrepresent, and we believe that the said Gen. D. H. Hill is the author of it. But no matter who wrote it, the author (whether Gen. Hill or another person) knew all about the transactions at Wilmington, and the inquiries are mirely made for the purpose We regret that we feel it our duty to talk Republicans, in such a plain way about Gen. Hill, but mean insinuations. He has been guilty of such things heretofore.

The closing paragraph of the article men-tioned is as follows:

"It is reported that the old life-long Dem- work. ocrat, William J. Yates, Esq., representative for the Mecklenburg stock, whose moral, social and political life has so long been a beacon light, actually strayed so far from his usual walk as to embrace with avidity the reputed miscegenationist (Martin) in full Radical regalia, regularly perfurmed. Do telleus if it is true. We hope not."

Now, when it is remembered that we publicly proclaimed at Wilmington how we voted, and afterwards published a statement in regard to our action, all of which Gen Hill knew, are we not justified in pronouncing his conduct mean in admitting an article into his paper calculated to make a false impression? The writer of the article knew that we voted for the new Board of Directors (Mr. Martin among the number) for the purpose of throwing out the old set. We publicly proclaimed our purpose to do Mr. Martin, the new President, is as decent and honest a man as Gen. Hill or his anonymous scribbler, and the new Directors (such men as John L. Brown of Charlotte, W. H. Michal of Lincolnton, T. No sane person can believe any other P. Wells of Shelby, Thos. S. Ashe of Wadesboro, H. M. Houston of Monroe, and Kidder, Kerchner and Cronly of Wilmington,) are as good men as any of their predecessors and far better than some of them. They will never take advantage of their positions to make money off the Road.

We know that the people generally interested in the Road, and especially the business men of Shelby, Lincolnton, Charlotte, Monroe and Wilmington, are delighted that a new Board of Directors were elected. We are proud to say that we aided to a considerable extent in the good work, and it any one is displeased with our course they may be Twelve Dollars and fifty cents per month,

It ill becomes any one who served under Dr. Sloan's administration to talk about Mr. Martin's being a radical. Politics have nothing to do with the matter under consideration, and we have made no attack on Dr. Sloan nor on the State Directors, for we believe their administration has been as good as any preceding one-none have done that no one else maintained prominently for much towards building the Road since the the position can take a seat if elected, we close of the war-but our complaint is against Gen. Hill for publishing an article in which our name is used in a manner cal culated to injure us with those who are not

We stated in the Democrat last week that we favored a combination of the votes of Cleaveland, Mecklenburg and Union counties with the vote of the City of Wilmington to secure an entire new Board of Direcand remember that the public good demands tors. There was no secret or underhanded work about it. The Agents of the three counties named had a right, and it was their duty, to do what they thought best Washington Chronicle of November for the interests of their respective counties. It was well understood that the Road could not be built by those who have heretofore controlled it-all admitted that-and it was important to put it into the hands of those who might be able to complete it it it had not already been too much embarrassed. When we voted the stock of Mecklenburg county for a new Board of Directors (all of whom are gentlemen of unimpeachable character) we considered that our duty had been discharged, and we would not have again alluded to the subject had not a mean attempt been made to misrepresent us and impugn our motives. It Gen. D. H. Hill or any one else means to insinuate that we were influenced by improper motives, or acted in the interest of any individual or corporation apart from the interest the county has chase tickets in Wilmington before entering the in the Road, we denounce them as guilty cars. of wilful misrepresentation and actuated by mean selfishness and spite. We repeat, every member of the new Board (Mr. Martin included) sustain as good characters as Gen. Hill, and are not near as jealous and vindictive.

We have had communications offered us for publication assailing Gen. Hill, but we refused to publish them because we make it a rule never to permit any one to assail a brother Editor through our columns. We always do that sort of work ourself when we think it necessary, openly and plainly, and not in a sneaking manner as Gen. Hill

Many of our readers may be surprised when reading the above, but they must understand that we have had good cause for using the language we do. We regret it as much as any one can, but we do not think we ought to be silent when a mean attempt is made to place us in an unfair and false
