RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 5tb, 1871. EDITOR POST :

Dear Sir :- I propose to say a few plain words concerning affairs generally here at the capital.

The session of the Legislature has begun, as you are all well aware. Party feeling still exists to a great extent among the members that comprise the Democratic ku klux wing of the Assembly, Every good, true citizen throughout the entire State was glad to see the boldness and candor that the old county of New Hanover displayed when her the Holy Sabbath. citizens, through their talented representa tive, G. L. Mabson, Esq., petitioned the Legislature, and asked that the charges of kukluxing that had become wide spread all over the country against McAffee, Strudwick and Jones, all members of the Legislature, be investigated. New Hanover ought to receive the thanks of the whole people for thus being the first county to come for ward and ask that these representatives of ic Hall Tuesday night. PLEASANT HOME, Dec. 7th, 1871. MESSES. EDITORS :- In addition to the very sensible remarks which have been pre sented in your columns, in regard to the management of the Cape Fear Agricultura Association, I would like to present a few the purpose of finding fault, but that H CORRECT, a remedy may be applied by a change of management, on the part of its officials.

First. The religious portion of the com munity cannot understand the necessity o evening, Mr. Chas. W. Hutchins won the opening the Fair with prayer if it is con tinued and ended with horse racing, side shows, &c.

> Secondly. If it is an agricultural exhibit tion, as its name would indicate, farmer should be invited to exhibit their produc earnings by side-shows, gambling, tricks prizes, &c.

Thirdly. Seats should be erected where the weary may rest themselves, without in curring the unnecessary expense of an ad mittance the to the grand stand.

Fourthly. The actions of the societ should dispel [all such false charges as tha you must belong to a certain clique, party denomination, or lamily to secure a premium serve on a committee, or be an officer of th association.
