CITY. REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET

FOR ALDERMEN: Edwin R. Brink, For the City at large. FIRST WARD, Owen Burney. SECOND WARD, Denard Rumley, THIRD WARD, Joseph E. Sampson, FOURTH WARD, James Wilson, FIFTH WARD. William H. Thurber. Election on Monday, the 6th of May.

Note .- We are indebted to the Carolina Era for the proceedings of the Republican State Convention.

OUR DELEGATION .- In our next issue we will give the votes cast in the State convention by the New Hanover delegation.

CTRENIAN CO-OPERATIVE COMPANY .-The stockholders of this company are requested to meet at the Savings Bank next Monday night, as business of vital importance will be brought before them.

PERSONAL .- Hon. Allan Rutherford arrived here last Friday night, on a visit of a few days among his friends. We are pleased to see him enjoying the best of health and to receive his hearty congratulations on the prospect of a Republican triumph.

FOR THE BAR AND RIVER IMPROVE-MENTS .- Col. Craighill, Engineer in charge of the works at the mouth of the river, will arrive here next Tuesday night or Wednesday morning, and will make a tour of inspection with Major Griswold.

CARPET-BAGGERS ON THEIR TICKET .-We congratulate the Democratic Conservative party of this city upon their nomination of three carpet-baggers as their candidates for Aldermen. Three carpet-baggers to one native is certainly liberal. Our Democratic friends have most effectually spiked their own gun on the carpet-bag question.

A GRAND Complimentary Benefit has been tendered to the Order of Kieghts of Pythias, by the "Old Reliable," to come off on Tuesday evening next, the 23d inst., at which time an attractive programme will be presented, the proceeds of which will be devoted towards fitting up the new K. of P. Hall on Third street, in the building recently erected by the Physicians and Surgeons. The object is certainly a good one, and deserves all the encouragement and patronage of our citizens. We predict a large and ap- Monroe is a man of undoubted Republican preciative audience.

UNUSUAL ATTRACTION AT THE OPERA House To-Morrow Night.-We are promised a rare treat at the Opera House tomorrow night, in the production of an original comedy, written by a highly talented lady of this city, entitled "Life in Wilwington; or, I Married You for Your Money," on which occasion Miss Helen D'Este will personate "Mrs. Myrter, a lady married just seven years." For other particutars we refer our readers to the small bills. The Opera house will certainly be filled to overflowing by this fresh novelty.

GEN. ALLAN RUTHERFORD. - We learn from our exchanges that this distinguished gentleman is outstripping all others as a gressional District. We are glad to know this, for we know him to be a gentleman of honesty and integrity, and his record as a Republican is without a little state of the sta Republican is without a blot or blemish. Such a man will do honor to an intelligent constituency, and is entitled to the confidence and hearty support of the Republicans of his district. His familiarity with important duties of a Congressman, and his extended acquaintance and popularity give him superior advantages, and if we mistake not, he will lead the Republicans of his district to certain and final victory. These are the kind of men to give strength and power to our party, and give North Carolina a representation in the Halls of Congress, that she may well be proud of .- New Berne Republican and Courier.

OPERA HOUSE.-The grand climacteric of the past week in histrionic delineations and in truth of all the representations given by the "Old Reliable" was reached on Thursday night in the performance of Sheridan Knowles' great and crudite play of "The Hunchback." The dramatis personæ demands the highest order of talent for the cast. As "Master Walter," Mr. Tannchill displayed an acute conception, and gave an excellent reading of the author's exquisite poetry, while his action equalled every requirement in the illustration of an arduous part. In this character he achieved a tri. umph transcending any of his previous impersonations which classes him as an actor infinitely above that of a "leading man." Mr. Stuttz was not below mediocrity, in the portrayal of "Sir Thomas Clifford." Deep study, a masterly reading and scrupulous elocution, are indispensable to any artist who aims for a pre-eminence and marked identification with this creaation of the poet's sublime genine. Of the

"Julia" of Miss D'Rete, there can be but one exordium and one conclusion. In her we behold Knowles's own mental image, presenting a faultless contour gifted with a countenance that had its own charm in its perfect expression -a face with a clear and radiant intelligence in it, with woman's matchless power of endurdurance and more than woman's matchless power of thought-an embodiment for us to admire, but scarcely one for us to pity in her "Julia." For when the burden was placed upon her, when she stood transfixed by that fatal contract, when no avenue of escape seemed left for her, even then we felt no pity for Julia, for she bore her burden, and with angelic utterance. Yet it was a cruel weight, there were physicial pangs worse than any of the body, and she, a heroine, in her unconquerable love tor Clifford, winding a wreath around her brow, & Co.
which, unknown to her, was soon to be a crown of laurels. There was not a tone but that of Crow melody in her voice, blended with an element of screnest softness. Throughout the various scenes of Julia's stern ordeal, when there was no promise of happiness-when all was blank, the heraldic note of Clifford sounded on her

> "These nuptials can be shunned." "With honer?"

"Then take me, Clifford !" it seemed as if an accession of loveliness had come to her likefan inspiration. It was not the costume, the beauty, it was something deeper, richer, rarer than any of these which shed a halo over her next to divine. The girl was dead and the woman had waked to life-"I tell thee at his feet I'll fall a corse, ere I mount his bridal bed—These nuptials must be & Murchison. shunned—Do it! Nor leave the task to me!"

And there she stood before Master Walter, a transfiguration like enchantment, her whole expression changed-no sunshine then on her sweet lips-a melting pathos touched into bitter sadness darkening before the noonday into clouds and tempest, before a bright dawn that should usher her into a terrestrial paradisc. Aye, and when she was thralled by the heavenly relief, her burden tell (and to Clifford no burden had she ever been) no more the sun, the moon, the stars, a burden to the earth than she to Clifford-new fortune let him wear her.

We bid a fond adjeu to Miss D'Este's fair 'Julia," and shall cherish it as one of our most grateful recollections.

This column of the Post is at the service of Republicans, who desire to express their views upon topics of interest, for which the control will in no wise hold itself responsible.

For the Post. The Republicans of Bladen county will un W. M. Monroe for the nomination of Senator of the Thirteenth Senatorial Dis trict which is composed of the counties of Bladen and Brunswick. Mr. principles and is too well known in the county of Bladen to need any further com ment. He will, no doubt, if Lominated carry a large majority over the last majori- nuts, 18 pkgs mdser ty given in that county. We feel confident that he will make a competent Representative, as he is a gentleman of intelligence and ability for any position in which the Republican party may place him. We shall do all we can to secure his nomination. At the county convention there will be delegates elected to meet those from Brunswick to make a choice, which we hope it will be given to Mr. Monroe, knowing he will carry Dead or Dying .- Where the hair ls unnaturally dry, you may be sure that it is dying; and unless artificially vitalized, it will soon be as dead as leaves in November. Feed the withering fibers and stimulate the torpid scalp with LYON'S KATHAIRON, and the evil, which must otherwise soon culminate in baldness, will be speedily remidied. It is absolutely necessary for the health of the brain, that it be kept moderately moist with a preparation capable of nourishing and invigorating it. Lyon's Kathai-BON fulfills these conditions, and is the only article that actually puts new life into the capillary tubes, through which the natural nourishment has ceased to pass. This pure and harmless vegetuble preparation is absorbed by the skin of the head to the roots of the hair, and passes into the filaments by the force of capillary at-

DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART DISEASE. How common is the announcement. Thousands are suddenly swept into eternity by this fatal malady. This disease generally has its origin in impure blood filled with irritating poisonous materials, which, circulating through the heart, irritate its delicate tissues. Though the irritation may at first be only slight, producing a little palpitation or irregular action, yet by and by the disease becomes firmly seated, and inflammation or hypetrophy, or thickening of the lining membrane or of the valves, is pro duced. How wise to give early attention to a case of this kind. Unnatural throbbing or pain in the region of the heart should admonish one that all is not right, and if you would preserve it from further disease, you must help it to beat rightly by the use of such a remedy as shall remove the cause of the trouble. Use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery before the disease has become too seated, and it will, by its great blood purifying and wonderful regulating properties, effect a perfect cure. It contains medicinal properties which act specifically upon the tissues of the heart, bringing about a healthy action. Sold by all first class druggists.
