WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY MORNING APRIL 28, 1872

GRAND REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING TO MORROW NIGHT, IN FRONT OF THE CITY HALL.

The Republicans of Wilmington will assemble in mass meeting to-morrow night in front of the City Hall, to ratify the nominations for Aldermen. Let every man turn out in the swelling tide of a rousing and overwhelming demonstration. Address will be delivered by prominent speakers in the Republican ranks.

Jos. C. Hill, Esq., has consented to act as our city agent, and will call on our friends to renew their subscriptions to the Post. He is, also, duly authorized to collect and receipt for money due this paper,

REGISTRATION UP TO LAST NIGHT. - 1st. Ward, 21 whites, 93 colored. 2nd. Ward, 38 white, 36 colored. 3rd, Ward, 29 whites, 40 colored. 4th. Ward, 47 whites, 86 colored. 5th. Ward, 26 whites, 95 colored.

Gen. Rutherford has to leave our city and his many friends Monday morning, he has a special engagement, Friday, in Washington that forces bim to return, he does not expect to stay more than a week. He regrets very much that he cannot be here Monday night.

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES OF FRANK ROWE .young man, who was so suddenly hurried into eternity, were rendered to his mortal remains yesterday. The solemn services of the Episcopal church were conducted by the Rev. C. I. Brady of St. Marks church, and the funeral cortege was followed to the grave by an unusually large concourse of SERENADE TO GEN. ALLEN RUTHER-FORD .- A serenade was given to General Rutherford, about 11 o'clock last night a large crowd were present who called him out, he returned his thanks for the compliment paid him. He stated that he would not be able to be present at the Massachusetts meeting to-morrow night, but would return here and be actively engaged in the coming campaign. The assemblage then gave him three cheers and after music from the band quietly dispersed.

GRAND EXCURSION TO SMITHVILLE AND FORT FISHER .- A Grand Excursion on the steamer Waccamaw, to Smithville and Fort Fisher, will come of on the first of May, Wednesday next, in aid of Giblem Lodge. No. 2. F. and A. Y. Masons. The proceeds of the excursion will be devoted to the com pletion of the new brick building of the Lodge, corner of 8th and Princess streets. Fare one dollar for the round trip, Children under fifteen, 50 cents. The Committee of Arrangements are Wm Henry Howe, Owen Dove and James Green. The public are respectfully invited.

REMEMBER, REPUBLICANS, A NEW REGIS TRATION IS REQUIRED .- RALLY IN YOUR WARDS -LET EVERY REPUBLICAN DO HIS Dury.-We loudly and earnestly beseech every Republican voter to bear in mind that an entire new registration is required for the city election. Go into every street, by way, lane, and alley, and arouse your unconscious brethren, and bring them up to the registra tion places. Suffer not one man to linger behind, and fail to register his name. Remember that every man must register anew this election, that no man can register on election day unless he becomes twenty-one years old on that day. Bear all this in mind, and do your duty as becomes freemen and American citizens.

"Over Land and Sea," will be presented at Sheriff. An inquest was held upon the the Opera House on Wednesday night next and four succeeding nights. It is highly There was slaughtered for market purpo- recommended by the New Berne Daily Times which pronounces it the best it ever saw, it also says: "The statuary appears as natural and beautiful upon the canvass as the original works of art standing out round and life-like and the scenes in various cities. grand, natural and perfect beyond description. The famous painting and grand Christian Allegory, called "The Rock of Ages," is worth four times the price of admission. We advise all to visit this exhibition and enjoy the rare treat of a jaunt through the cities of the old world, without the annoyance of travel.

A DEPLORABLE ACCIDENT. DROWNING OF A PROMINENT YOUTH. - Joseph Price, son of the late A. L. Price, was accidently drowned in the river nearly opposite the city. A party of young men, young Price being one of the number, sailed across the river to a vessel lying at a wharf for the purpose of delivering a message. As they were about to return, Price in attempting to shove the boat off, lost his balance and fell overboard, not being able to swim or to grasp the oar which was launched out to him, he became exhausted; and sank beneath the bubbling tide. By this sad catas" troplie an interesting family who were al-

Is THAT ALL, ONLY A NEGRO WAFTER We therefore call upon all good Republi-KHLED!—On Friday, immediately after caus to be up and doing. So into the high the appalling murder at the National Hothe appalling murder at the National Hotel, we inadvertently overheard a conversation between some parties as they were coming out of an office near the scene of excitement. "What is the matter?" "A murder has just been committed by a young man in the National Hetel." (Speaker very much exceted.) "Who is it ?" "One of the botel servants has been stabled by another and killed," "Oh! only a segro!"-Simultaneously another individual, a prefessing Christian, approached the group hurriedly, exclaiming, "Gentlemen, what's the matter? what's the matter? What is all this excitement about?" "A negro waiter has been killed in the National Hotel." "Oh, is that all?" and then walked away, exhibiting an intense relief at the announcement. Is this the feeling and doctrine of a true Christian? A professor of religion forsooth(!) Heaven save the mark!

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for May is full of the most attractive reading matter, profusely illustrated. It hopens with the second installment of Porte Crayon's mountains, embellished with a dozen of the author's most characteristic and effective drawings, representing some phase of rural life in the acuntains of Virginia that belong to the past, but are soon destined to disappear with the approach of a new era. To read these sketches of country life is like rusticating by proxy. He gives us a kind of mental vacation and his work contrasts pleasantly with that executed by most of his contemporary literateurs and artists who are unconsciously, perhaps, but very materially affected by the absorbing influences of a too busy life. In Jefferson's Pet, Mr. Schole DeVere has contributed a very important chapter to Mr. Jefferson's biography. The illustrations are especially interesting. We have the concluding portion of the history of Tammany and of the origin of mobocracy in the State legislation of New York. There is, also Saltaire and its Founder with five illustrations. California, which is very effectively and beautifully illustrated. For the first time we have an accurate descrip-American Desert" Also, a new serial story. "Old Kensington," by Miss Thackeray; "Stolen secrets;" "The Manhattan Well Murder." and "The Editor's Easy Chair," with peculiarlo happy descriptions.

A HORRIBLE AND BLOODY DEED-PLUMG-ING A CARVING KNIFE INTO A YOUNG MAN. -HE FALLS DEAD, DRENGHED IN HIS OWN BLOOD. - VERDICT OF THE GORONER'S JURY. -On Friday morning last about 9 o'clock, the citizens on Second street, between Princess and Market streets, were shocked and agitated to an intense degree by the perpetration of a murder most toul, the result of an altercation between two of the young colored waiters in the dining room of the National Hotel, respectively named John Kittrell and Frank Rowe. Kittrell called Rewe a fool after they had been wrangling for a short time, which was followed by Bowe's slapping Kittrell in the face. Whereupon Kittzell seized a large carving knife. which was on one of the dining tables, and plunged it into Rome's left breast, dividing one of the main arteries. Rowe gasped out, you have killed me," and attempted to strike Kittrell with a chair; then went into the back yard and fell down almost instantaneously dead, absolutely weltering in his own blood. Kittrell was immediately arrested by Officer Scott of the Police Force. and conveyed to the guard house, but sub-OPERA House. - The great exhibition of sequently transferred to the custody of the body of Rowe and a verdict was rendered. "that deceased came to his death by a knife in the hands of John Kittrell." Great excitement prevailed, and it was barely possible for a time to keep back the crowd John Kittrell, is a light mulatto about twenty-two years old came from Henderson in this State, about two weeks since. Frank Rowe was also a bright young mulatto, aged about twenty, a youth of much promise, sober and studious, and had been preparing himself for admission into Howard University, Washington.

WARRENTON, N. C., April, 25, 1872. DEAR POST:-Some enemy of John H. Hyman has circulated the report that he (Mr. H.), and his friends, knew that he Hyman) stood no chance for the nomination for Congress, and that he was incompetent for the position. This is talse, for he and his friends are certain of the nomi nation for him, and, also, certain of his election. He will certainly be our next Congressman from this district, and we are WARRENTON. proud him.

Arouse to Action. EDITOR POST: - The Republicans and all good citizens of this city, on the 6th of May, will be called upon to exercise a freeman's privilege. It will be an election of great mportance to all, not only residents of the city, but the surrounding country, by exsimple. At the same time, should apathy
