THE LATE ELI MURRAY.

THE STORY OF A SIMPLE. TRUTHFUL, BENEVOLENT LIFE.

A Man Dies who is Revered by the Whole Community A . Blameless Prince" in the Business Reatm Memorial Sketch of Eli Murray, Esq.

The death of Mr. Eli Murray which happened at 8 o'clock Friday evening. was in event that cast a gloom over the whole city? So long had he been conmeted preminently with the mercanfile business of Wilmington, and so honorable was his character as man and morchant, that it was only natural that his unexpected death should be a

Mr. Murray, became ill on Sunday last; but it was several days later before any apprehensions were entertained as to his safety. He grew rapidly worse, and on Friday had a congestive hour mentloned.

Eli Murray was of highly respectable parentage, was born in Alamance county, and at the time of his death was about fifty-six years of age. Without any means save his energy and prudence, he commenced his business career at Everettsville. Here he connected himself with the Presbyterian Church. of which he was a useful member until the day of his death. Mr. Murray came to Wilmington in 1853, and established himself in business. He has since. with singular fidelity, pursued the even gaining and retaining the esteem of works of eminent authors, etc., etc. his fellow merchants, and always acting the part of the excellent citizen and the exemplary man.

A strong point in Mr. Murray's character was the munificent spirit he ever exhibited toward the Church to which the like. he belonged. He gave with no desire to be praised for his gifts. The purchase of the large organ in the First Presbyterian Church of this city was largely due to his liberality, he having been by far the heaviest contributor.

Meeting of the Produce Exchange. At a full meeting of the Produce Exchange Association, held yesterday, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: "This meeting having been convened to receive the announcement of the death of a friend and fellow member. and it being an appropriate custom on such occasions to pass suitable resolutions of sympathy for his relatives, we therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

" Resolved, That in the death of Eli Murray our city has lost a useful, honored citizen, our business community an enterprising, honest and trustworthy merchant, our Association one of its most worthy. valuable and reliable members.

"Resolved, That as an evidence of our admiration for his strict integrity and an acknowledgment of his influence in the advancement of our com- per, 10 cents a week. mercial prosperity, we devote a page in the record of this Association, to be inscribed with his name and held sacred to his memory, and that all members of funeral services.

" Resolved, That the Secretary of this Association be instructed to transmit a copy of these resolutions to the relatives of the deceased, with the astheir affliction.

of our respect for the deceased this Exchange be closed for the remainder of

The remains of Mr. Murray will b taken at 3 o'clock p. m., to-day, to the First Presbyterian Church from his residence on Fifth street, and after the funeral service will be carried to Oakdale Cemetery and there interrec!.

Enthusiastic Meeting at Easy Hill, Brunswick County.

The citizens of a portion of Brunswick county assembled in a large and pluck and enthusiasm, and it knows enthusiastic crowd yesterday, for the what it is about in this campaign. purpose of hearing Maj. C. M. Sted-man, of New Hanover, and Mr. D. S. Cowan, their nominee for the Legislature. Mr. Cowan made a short but pointed speech, introducing Maj. Stedman to the audience. Maj. Stedman then came forward and delivered in his usual pleasant style one of the most effective and soul-stirring speeches it has been the good fortune of the people of Brunswick to listen to for many a day. His masterly argument was confined principally to the Constitutional Amendments, and the speech will doubtless bear much fruit on the 7th day of November next.

The Tileston School Some Notice of It-Opening of a New Term-First Review.

The Tileston Normal School re sumed its exercise on Monday last. Friday was the first general review day of the session, and we think Miss Amy M. Bradley-a benefactor Wilmington should love and reverence—had reason to be gratified with the prospects of unusual success. Two hundred pupils the largest number that have been received since the establishment of the Tileston School now attend regularly. From fifty to seventy-five other children are anxiously awaiting any vacancies that may occur. The school room was built to accommodate one hundred and sixty students. We are very glad that Miss Bradley has been enabled to admit a larger number. There are. nine teachers besides the Principal. Five young ladies of this city, who were educated at this school, now have charge of classes in the lower forms, while they pursue their own studies in the senior class with a view to graduation. This will be the first class that have ever graduated at the chill which terminated fatally at the School. Two young ladies of Wilmings ton have charge of rooms in the school. The other places are filled we think, by teachers from other parts of the country, and of their competency and fitness to occupy the position their past record speaks, in terms of compliment stronger than we could use. This institution is eleemosynary, or this notice would otherwise be tamer in words of praise.

The Fifth Ward Demonstration.

The gratifying Democratic rally in the Fifth Ward night before last, folthis body be requested to attend his lowing the splendid ovation to Messrs. Fowle, Ransom, Vance and Waddell, shows what the spirit of the Wilmington people is. Mr. Holmes ably presented the leading issues of the day. making among other points a decided surance of our heartfelt sympathy in hit when he touched upon Radical maladministration in this city and county. " Resolved, That as a further mark He stated the startling fact that New Hanover county scrip was not worth 50 cents on the dollar. He read a long list of embezzlers, who in this city had been in high feather with the Radical party. Reform is surely necessary, he urged, to correct such abuses as we and others in the South had suffered from. Mr. J. H. Currie; who is taking a most energetic part in the canvass in this region, likewise made a telling speech, and Mr. James I.
