

THE CAPE FEAR.

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 22, 1876.

10 CENTS A WEEK

THE STATE FAIR.

THE IMPORTANT DAY.

Thursday, October 19th.

Yesterday was the crowning day of the fair and capped it with success. By nine in the morning seven car-loads of people came in from the Chatham road and fresh streams of country people poured into town. Fayetteville street looked a Broadway on promenade. By ten o'clock this scene of moving life was transferred to the fair grounds and really it was such a multitude of visitors. Various estimates were made of the crowd. The grand stand was packed to every tier and every seat. To bring it down to a very fine point of seven thousand would be the very largest.

The crowd was in full promenade in the exhibition building. Every department was well filled with entries.

A floral display by Alfred Palmer of an as of mosses decked with ornamental flowers was very pretty.

The ladies swarmed thickest around the elegant cakes prepared by Mrs. Blackhall.

A banana display by Capt. Denison, with an India rubber tree in the middle, was adorned with lovely foliage, war much admired.

Dr. Grisson has on exhibition a cotton stalk he raised himself and that attracted much attention from the old farmers. It was planted in the spring of '73 and has borne a crop every year since. Dr. Grisson trims it every spring.

The pageant that attracted all eyes was the reception of the military band. The military band, and the companies from Wilmington, Fayetteville and Newbern, the battalion joined by the Raleigh Light Infantry and the entire command set in the field under the supervision of Major Manly.

At 1 o'clock two straight heats of a half mile dash were run by Hope entered by Quizer and Dancy, and Eliza Hyatt, by James Norwood. Hope won the two heats in 53 and 54.

THE TARGET PRACTICE.

From the Raleigh News, condensed.

At 12 o'clock on Thursday, the Wilmington Light Infantry and a detachment of 10 members of the Newbern Grays, arrived. The first named had 43 men in line and was officered as follows: Captain, M. P. Taylor; First Lieutenant, A. L. DeRosier; Second Lieutenant, N. H. Sprunt; Junior Second, J. J. McRee; Orderly Sergeant, Walter Conroy; Second Orderly, W. L. Smith, Jr.; Third Orderly, J. M. Cronly; Fourth Orderly, James G. Bradley. The detachment of the Newbern Grays were: Captain, Wm. W. Whitford; Second Lieutenant, John Roberts; Orderly Sergeant, David Ward; Corporal, Clark Whitford; Privates, Wm. Ellis, Stilly, J. W. Mannix, H. W. Stevenson, Jas. A. Jones, Wash. Bryan.

The Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry brought 32 muskets and were officered as follows: Major Haigh, Commanding; 1st Captain, A. H. Worth; 2d Captain, A. A. McKethan, Jr.; 3d Captain, R. B. Lutterloh. They were met at the depot by a detachment of the Raleigh Light Infantry.

The Raleigh Light Artillery was composed of 18 men. The officers were: Captain, J. W. Lee; 1st Lieutenant, J. L. Johnston; 2d Lieutenant, J. D. Whitaker; Orderly Sergeant, A. B. Stroman; and several non-commissioned officers.

The target shooting was participated in by 10 men from the Wilmington, Fayetteville and Newbern and two Raleigh companies. The distance was 200 yards, and the shooting according to Upton's tactics. The Wilmington Light Infantry took the first chance and made the following score: Capt. Taylor, 22, 22, 63; Ensign Cazaux, 22, 22, 41; Serjeant, Smith, 3 blanks; Serjeant, Bradley, 3 blanks; Bowles 22, 2, 7; Burlbank, 22, 22, 7; Brown, 22, 22, 3; Berry, 3 blanks; Effe, 22, 22, 4; Vann, 3 blanks.

Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry: A. H. Worth, 22, 22, 43; E. P. Powers, 3 blanks; T. B. Fuller, 22, 22, 63; J. B. Davis, 3 blanks; J. W. Maudsley, 22, 0, 24; R. F. Devane, 3 blanks; T. M. McLaughlin, 3 blanks; R. McMillan, 22, 33, 44; J. B. Broadfoot, 3 blanks; Chas. Haigh, 22, 22, 5.

Raleigh Light Infantry: We give the names and the scores of the members of the Company. It was no fault of ours that we were unable to get the score of each member. The members of the team, however, were C. D. L. P. church, G. Whitfield, Thos. C. Mansden, John Beasley, G. W. Smith, T. W. Allen. — Brown, M. Hayes. The scores were as follows, but we do not know who made them: 3 blanks; 22; 22, 7; 3 blanks; 3 blanks; 3 blanks; 3 blanks; 3 blanks; 22, 22, 0; 3 blanks; 3 blanks; 22, 22, 3.

The Newbern Grays have been named. Each member of the team made 3 blanks.

Raleigh Light Artillery: Capt. J. W. Lee, 3 blanks; Lieut. J. J. Johnson, 3 blanks; Private Crosby, 3 blanks; Reeves, 22, 1, 63; R. Turner, 3 blanks; J. Miller, 3 blanks; Jasper McKay, 3 blanks; A. Williams, 3 blanks; Dr. H. M. Wilder, 22, 22, 64.

It will be seen from the above that each member fired three shots. The contest being over, it was found that Private J. W. Maudsley of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, having made the best single shot, had won the prize plume, and that the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, having made the best series of shots, was entitled to the prize flag.

At the request of the committee on the military contest in target shooting, the Secretary and Superintendent of the fair, Capt. C. B. Denison, delivered an address from the Judge's stand, in presenting the prize plume to the successful shot. The companies were drawn up in hollow square.

This address was responded to very handsomely by a gallant member of the successful company.

After this, Capt. B. C. Manly proposed three cheers for J. W. Maudsley and the Fayetteville Light Infantry, which were heartily given. Capt. M. P. Taylor proposed three cheers for the State Agricultural Society, and for the city of Raleigh, and after other cheers for other people, and things, the military marched out.

The most authentic information we can get as to the scoring, in the target practice, is that the bulls-eye was scored 0 and the shots were counted by inches from the centre of the eye. — CAPE FEAR.

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

Judge Cantwell Announces that He has Abandoned the Republican Party—Will Support the Amendments and the Democratic State and County Tickets.—A Card to this Effect.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 21, '76.

I observe my name is announced as a speaker, &c., on the Republican side. Allow me to say that I have made no appointments in this canvass, and am making no speeches. I have made none and will not make any. I have, since the war, been acting with and for the Republican party, but I have abandoned that organization. In the pending election I shall vote for the Ratification of the Constitutional Amendments and the Democratic State and County tickets, in accordance with what I humbly conceive to be the interests of the community.

Respectfully,
EDWARD CANTWELL,
Remarks.

For several months it has been known in the city that Judge Cantwell was not in full sympathy with the views and aims of the Republican organization. He has always favored the Constitutional Amendments. Now that he has formally withdrawn from political associations that could not be otherwise than degrading to a gentleman of his refinement and culture his friends may well feel gratified and he may have a sense of satisfaction which he could find in no other way. Democrats are pleased with his return to the fold not because they have urgent need for him, but for the reason that he places himself now where he ought to stand politically, with his contemporaries of the bar and the forum. It is for this reason that we are glad Judge Cantwell has formally announced himself a Democrat.

The following from the President should command the attention of those to whom it is addressed:

The officers and visitors of the Ladies Benevolent Society are heartily requested to meet at the Hook and Ladder Hall, at 4 o'clock next Tuesday, to consult on business of vital importance to all concerned—both members and recipients.

Have We a Maryland Murderer in Our Midst?

The police authorities have received a copy of the proclamation of the Governor of Maryland offering a hundred dollars reward for the apprehension of one B. J., or Joseph Hughes, alias St. Leon, alias St. Leno, who murdered R. G. Hook in Calvert county, in that State, on the 13th of September, 1876. Said Hughes, St. Leon, or St. Leno, is thus described: He is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches in height, dark complexion, dark hair, (not straight); round full face; scar over his right eye; two fingers broken on his left hand; the little finger and the one next to same; quick and active in his movements and weighs about 165 to 170 pounds.

The W. E. I.

This fine Company will arrive this morning. It is understood, from Raleigh, where they had been in attendance upon the State Fair, The Company, although it missed the prizes offered for the best shooting in the target practice, showed to fine advantage in drill and parade, and won many encomiums.

An Item for Carnivorous Readers.

During the past week three meat shops or stalls were established in the vicinity of "Mad Market." There are now six, nearly all of which are within a stone's throw of the Market House, that beautiful specimen of Grecian architecture, which has been an ornament to the city for almost a quarter of a century.

To City Subscribers.

For a few days longer the City Agent, Mr. Thornton, asks indulgence of the CAPE FEAR subscribers. In some measure the route is new to him, and being quite extensive requires time to learn it thoroughly. In a day or two more it is probable there will be no trouble in the delivery.

We regret to learn that our fellow-citizen, Mr. W. Roddick, of the firm of Brown & Roddick, who had just returned from the North, was recalled by a telegram stating that his wife's mother was dead. He left Wilmington yesterday for Boston, where the deceased lady resided.

The Mails.

For two nights past the mails from the North have been behind, Thursday's and Friday's mails only reaching the city last night. The detention was north of Weldon.

The Weather To-Day.

The predictions are warmer and clear or partly cloudy, falling followed by rising barometer, southerly wind, shifting to cooler northerly, partly cloudy weather and rain areas.

New Advertisements.

Danforth, school books, buys and sells second-hand books. Next to the Postoffice.

J. A. Springer, different kinds of coal, wood sawed or delivered long. Corner Front and Market streets.

Charles D. Myers & Co., family supplies—sauces, pickles, preserves, fish, meats, wines, brooms, brushes, etc., etc.

The CAPE FEAR has no free list. Everybody may read it upon paying ten cents a week.

City Marshal Price has ordered that no member of the Police Force shall mix in political affairs (except to vote while on duty).

The Rev. Mr. Mann will preach at Fifth Street M. E. Church this evening.

Rev. W. S. Black, Presiding Elder, will officiate in the Front Street M. E. Church to-day.

The members of the Historical and Literary Society, alluded to a few days ago, will meet to-morrow evening for organization.

A Correction.

You are in error about the abundance of Uca ursi in our Cemetery. The error has no doubt arisen in the fact that the Uca ursi and Vaccinium repens are possessed of the same medicinal properties and resemble each other in some botanical relations, both being long to the same natural order; repens grows in abundant profusion in our pine barrens, and is largely used as a domestic medicine, thanks to the introduction of it, by our venerable Dr. Anderson; but Uca ursi is not at all abundant. Patches are found here and there in our swamps, and are at once recognized by their beautiful scarlet berries; V. repens (vulgar name—running huckleberry), the plant your correspondent means, has a small black fruit.

GENERAL MAIL SUMMARY.

W. H. Bailey, Esq., and Mr. J. M. McCorkle, both prominent Republicans here, have left the party, and are now ardent supporters of the Democratic ticket. Mr. Bailey has gone to South Carolina to stump that State for Wade Hampton.

Secretary of State Howorth, in his annual report, now ready for the printer, demands an investigation at the hands of the Legislature respecting the charges of corruption that have been brought against him.

At the meeting of the State Agricultural Society, Hon. George Davis of New Hanover, Gen. R. F. Hoke of Wake, and Col. J. M. Heck of Wake, were appointed to represent the Society at the fair of the Virginia Agricultural Society.

RUSSIA'S ULTIMATUM

THE POINTS RUSSIA INSISTS UPON.

Autonomy for the Christian Provinces—Reforms to be Executed Under Supervision of the Powers—Italy Not in Alliance with Russia—Modification Views—Pall Mall Gazette Despondent.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The Paris correspondent of the Times intimates the probability of Turkey throwing overboard the protection of the powers and negotiating directly with Russia. Turkish statesmen think they can save Bulgaria by granting the liberty of the Bosphorus to Russia. It is true Turkey is bound by the treaties of 1856, to which the freedom of the Bosphorus is contrary, but the powerlessness of Europe is driving Turkey into negotiations with her bitterest enemy, and the Porte may break the treaty in despair.

The man-of-war Shah, 26 guns, the swiftest vessel in the English navy, is ordered to Besika.

A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Paris says: "It is stated here that England has replied to Russia that she has already supported a six months' armistice she cannot now recommend one of six weeks, but she will not oppose it. No power appearing willing to take the initiative the question rests between Turkey and Russia. A solution can thus only be looked for at Constantinople. Diplomatic circles here still hope for a pacific settlement."

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—The National Zeitung states that Germany has defined her position upon the armistice question as follows: She is indifferent whether an armistice of six weeks or six months is granted; therefore her interposition with the object of bringing about an understanding between the powers on this particular question can avail little; but on the other hand Germany never fails to recognize that the object to be arrived at is the restoration of an understanding between the powers with the view of procuring a durable peace.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A Reuter dispatch from Ragusa says: "Medun has capitulated to the Montenegrins who hold the Turkish garrison of four hundred men as prisoners of war. The Montenegrins have also taken the guns and the ammunition of the Turks."

A Reuter dispatch from Constantinople says: "The ambassadors of the powers met yesterday at the residence of Gen. Ignatieff, Russian ambassador. It is believed that they agreed upon common action for procuring an understanding with the Porte regarding an armistice and conditions of peace."

A special from Berlin to the Pall Mall Gazette says: "The report is current here that the powers have again collectively urged the Porte's unconditional acceptance of the English proposals."

A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Vienna says: "Russia has presented to the Porte an ultimatum embracing in substance the following points: 1. A six weeks' armistice unconditionally. 2. Administrative autonomy for Bulgaria, Bosnia and Herzegovina. 3. The execution of reforms under the supervision of commissioners named by the great powers and to be protected by an armed foreign force."

Today's dispatches necessitate a serious modification of previous views in regard to the Eastern question. By confession of the Times Vienna correspondent he was mistaken about the Powers which had declared their acceptance of six months. Neither Austria, France nor Italy had notified the Porte of their adhesion to that proposal, though none had objected to it. England alone, therefore, took formal action in its favor. The effect of this is that all powers except England remain in a position to urge the Porte to accede to the Russian demand. On the other hand it seems certain that Russia has not the support of either Germany or Austria in the contemplated movement against Bulgaria.

The announcement that the Czarowitz will visit the courts at Vienna, Berlin and London seems to indicate that Russia is hesitating to act separately. We have also a contradiction of Russian Italian alliance from several quarters, including an inspired Reuter dispatch from Rome which says: "Contrary to rumor Italy up to the present maintains an attitude of reserve."

HURRICANES.

Havana and Key West.

HAVANA, Oct. 20.—A fearful hurricane prevailed here all last night. Telegraphic communication throughout the whole island interrupted. The lines connecting with cable are down but will be repaired immediately if the weather allows. The barometer is still very low and there are signs of another hurricane.

During the gale the wind obtained a velocity of 90 miles an hour. Nothing can be seen of Philadelphia steamer Godfrey Kieker, reported ashore. City of Houston, from New York for Galveston, ashore, half out of water. All saved. Will probably get off after lightning.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Sitting Bull's hostile camp of Indians are going towards Fort Peck, Montana, and say they desire peace. The Indian Commissioner at Washington telegraphs to T. T. Mitchell, the Indian Agent, that S. B. and his forces must surrender, when they will be treated as prisoners of war.

Tweed will be closely confined on his arrival, and allowed no communication with any one.

The Secretary of War has signed two hundred Southern claims awards.

If talent and energy will give a paper success, the CAPE FEAR may be classed in advance a successful institution, for it will surely have both of these necessary essentials.

The CAPE FEAR, besides the political and news department, will be enlivened by an original story from the pen of Mrs. C. W. Harris, who has already won a high reputation among the most popular authors of the day. Terms of the daily Cape Fear, $5 per annum.
