Death of an old Citizen of Wilmington.
The News and Courier this records the death of Mr. Malcolm McInnis: This estimable citizen, who died yesterday morning, was born in Cumberland County, N. C., on June 8, 1824; and went into business as soon as he attained his majority, at Wilmington, where he remained until the war broke out. During the war he served in the engineer department, and at its close removed to New York, where, as a member of the firm of Burnett, McInnis & Co., he is well and favorably known. He came to Charleston in 1872, and the firm of McInnis & Co. afterwards McInnis, Jones & Co., cotton and naval stores commission merchants, enjoyed confidence and respect. Mr. McInnis won and kept a host of friends in Wilmington, New York and Charleston who mourn his sudden death. He leaves a wife and two children.

Take Care of the Poor and Sick.
The venerable President of the Ladies' Benevolent Society again asks us to appeal to the good people of Wilmington to contribute something to the support of the afflicted and destitute. Many persons in the city are without food, adequate clothing or fuel. Mite boxes will be placed in some of the stores, and citizens are requested to drop therein their charity offerings. Donations of food, fuel and old clothes will be faithfully applied.

Hon. George Davis.
This distinguished gentleman will address his fellow citizens of Wilmington at some place yet to be designated on next Friday night. This will be a treat. Seldom is it the pleasure of our people to hear two such able speakers in one week as Robert Strange and George Davis. As the combat teickers the greatest of our leaders go to the forefront and encourage the men by their personal example and magnetism.

Dispatch.
Mr. A. D. Cazaux and his efficient corps of assistants have given us another evidence of what can be done at this port in the way of quick work. The steamship Ashland and Gulf Stream, with the schooners Nancy W. Smith and W. L. Burroughs in tow, arrived here on the 27th, discharged cargoes and took in full cargoes principally of cotton, and sailed the 28th on the return trip to New York. This is certainly much to the credit of all concerned.

The boys in the Fourth Ward succeeded in erecting their pole on Friday night with the assistance of the Bucket Company, in whose yard it stands. The boys themselves cut the pole, which is 60 feet high.

The Tilden and Vance Guards will be out at the Oaks on Monday night to attend the Fifth Ward Democratic meeting. They are requested to meet at their hall at 7 1/2 o'clock, with lanterns and caps.

The strike of the stevedores, at the wharf of the New York Steamship Line is over to the satisfaction of all parties. The men having resumed work.

NORTH CAROLINA.
The death of Col. S. H. Walkup, of Wake county, was much deplored.
A Tilden and Vance club with 28 members has been organized at Charlotte.
The cotton gin of W. G. Upchurch, of Wake county, was burned last Thursday—loss, $35,000.

The Roanoke News claims that the crowd at the Weldon fair on Thursday was the largest ever seen on the grounds.
Three houses were burned in Salisbury, two belonging to Mr. B. E. Rogers and the other to Mr. Wm. Plummer. Both were insured.
The Observer says if there were ever any fears of Democrats not being able to carry Mecklenburg county they have certainly disappeared now.

Donald Goddard, a young man about 28 years of age, was caught in the machinery of a cotton gin at work near Durham, and mashed to death Wednesday afternoon.
The bedroom of Mrs. Midyett, at the residence of Mrs. Cherry, postmistress at Bay River, was invaded, the lady was badly beaten by disguised men and the house robbed on Wednesday night last.

In declining reluctantly an invitation to address the people of Warren county, the gallant Senator Bayard writes a letter on the political situation in the course of which he says: "The victory we have achieved in Indiana places the Radicals in jeopardy in every Northern State, and forbids their concentration."
The Alabama State Grange Fair at Montgomery the past week was a great success. The prizes offered by the Montgomery Shooting Club amounting to $2,500 were hotly contested. The silver tea service was won by E. S. McClurg, of Knoxville, who scored 33 successive birds. W. E. DeLoze, of Chattanooga, scored 19 out of a possible 20, taking the diamond trophy.

Three Methodist ministers in Pope county, Ark., while riding their circuits were shot from the bush by illicit distillers, and one of the preachers is dead and the others are probably fatally injured.
Great jubilation at Grand Cayman Island from the 17th to the 21st day. Destroyed 170 houses. Paid Island was submerged. (LITTLE NEWS)

BY TELEGRAPH AND CABLE.

A GRAVE CHANGE.
The French Centennial Commissioner Talks Ugly About Americans—Some Severe Reflections on Men and Women.
New York, Oct. 28.—A Herald special from Paris says: "The Figaro prints a letter translated from German newspapers, written by M. du Sommerai, chief of commissioners of France at Philadelphia, published in Germany in which M. Sommerai says: 'Accounts transmitted to me from my deputy are of the most grievous character. Americans themselves set fire to buildings containing the empty cases of French goods, hoping, to destroy French merchandise and articles for exhibition stored in the galleries. The second attempt of the same kind has been made in the city of Philadelphia, and worse than all this, the police employed by the Centennial Board are purposely chosen from the worst and most degraded elements in the United States. The keepers are thieves without exception. They steal openly from exhibitors in the French department and others. There seems to be an understanding in existence between these knaves and the judges. The judges call up rogues for a hearing, when complaints are made at points unknown to complainants, and as a result a witness of criminal's guilt being present, they are acquitted. It is even worse than this, if such a thing is possible. The judges count on the judges themselves to give them signal when the discreet moment has arrived to begin the pillage.'"

The correspondent says the article concludes with an attack upon the virtue and manners of American women.

THE ARCTIC EXPEDITION.
Discoveries in Natural History, &c.—Coal and Gold—Not Possible to Reach the North Pole.
Associated Press Telegrams.
London, Oct. 28.—Capt. Nares' report to the Admiralty contains the following additional particulars of the Polar sea: "It is never navigable. The average thickness of the ice is 80 feet. Animal life and northern migration of birds ends south of Cape Columbia. Esquimaux traces (base on west coast) latitude 81 and 82, whence they cross to Greenland. The impracticability of reaching the pole is proved. During the winter rich collections of natural history and scientific observations were made. Excellent coal was found where the discoverers wintered a fortnight. It was fifty-nine degrees below zero when encountered; it once reached one hundred and forty degrees below zero. Peterson, the interpreter, died forty days after the amputation of both feet from frost-bite."

All the members of the expedition declare the impossibility of closer reach than theirs to the north pole, which is 400 miles.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.
Charges of Cowardice Against the Servians—Peace Likely.
Associated Press Telegrams.
London, Oct. 28.—A Times dispatch from Belgrade confirms the statement that self-wounding is again becoming frequent among Servians. A dispatch says during the fight at Krevet a distinguished officer brought half of a Russian battalion to the front, saying he was compelled to leave the other half behind to prevent the Servians from running away.
A dispatch from Vienna states that Prince Eversperg's reply in the Reichsrath yesterday to interpellation on the Eastern question is not satisfactory. There will probably be an animated debate on the subject in that body.

The Times in its financial article says the feeling that the war is staved off at least for the winter has become more prevalent and inclines to a rise in stock.
Belgrade, Oct. 28.—The Servian cabinet difficulty is in a fair way of being settled. It is probable that Nicolli will consent to retain the portfolio of the minister of war.

A telegram from the Minister of the Interior at Belgrade to Prime Minister Ristars in reply to enquiry says: "The Turks have not taken Djunis."
The Post, reviewing the situation, says it only remains for all the powers to concur in recommending six weeks armistice with prolongation, as proposed by the Porte. All the correspondents concur in the pacific change in the Russian attitude. Russia's motives are variously construed.

Latest from the Seat of Agitation.
Associated Press Telegrams.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 28.—An extraordinary council of ministerial representatives from Germany, Austria, Russia and Italy was held Thursday.
RAGUSA, Oct. 28.—Highly excited. Turkish has killed back to the Italian District. The surrender of Median to the Montenegrins has produced a profound impression in Albania. The Montenegrins have liberated the Albanian prisoners.

London, Oct. 28.—The Ball Mail Gazette are fearful of a peaceful solution. They think Turkey ought not to be excluded from a conference of the powers.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Slight snow with easterly storm in New York yesterday.
A link said to have been charged with dynamite exploded on a New York and Philadelphia train Friday, destroying some $500 worth of baggage. An intricate clock arrangement was found in the links.

An insurance agent has brought suit against the U. S. Life Ins. Co., N. Y., in the Supreme Court of Kings county before Judge Gilbert, alleging in his complaint great and various irregularities chiefly against John E. DeWitt and James Buell. They are charged with conspiring to transfer the reserve fund of the company to other companies for their own advantage. Judge Gilbert granted a temporary injunction and an order for an examination for Buell and DeWitt for trial by a referee.
