CAPE FRAR OFFICE,

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 3, 1876. GENERAL CITY NEWS.

THE FIRST WARD.

Devane, Dunbam, London, Merr.

A good crowd turned out in tie First Ward last night. The speaker's stand was tastefully decorated with United States flags, First Ward campaign flag. Chinese lanterns and cam paign lamps.

A little after 8 o'clock the Tilden nd Vance Guards marched up Fourth treet to the stand, bearing, in connecion with their lamps, new and neaf ransparencies, with fine pictures of ilden and Hembricks, also a crayon ortrait of Zebulon B. Vance, the next overnor of North Carolina.

Capt. Wm. M. Parker, President of he First Ward Democratic Club. spened the meeting with some pleasant nd timely remarks. Maj. Devane led off, followed by Maj. Dunham and Mr. John Londo. These gentlemen made able and convincing arguments, full of logic, which could not but impress their audience that reform was needed and reform hey would have at the hands of famuel S. Tilden and Gov. Vance.

Edwin W. Kerr, Esq., of Sampson, aving arrived about the time the peaking commenced, repaired immeliately to the place where his duty alled, and his patriotic sentiments led im, and delivered a speech of sterling worth, bringing glad tidings from Sampson and Bladen counties, where he has been doing yeoman work for he past forty days. We regret our inability to give a general outline of Mr. Kerr's speech, but suffice it to say it was one of his finest efforts.

Among the audience there was quite a number of colored men who listened attentively to the speakers. This is the last general rally of the First Ward Democratic Club before the election. It will take its place in the grand jubilation over the great victory which will be won by the Democrats next Tuesday.

Old Duplin.

A CAPE. FEAR correspondent at Kenansville writes under date of Nov. I that a number of colored men will vote in this election for the Democratic ticket. This correspondent states that the CAPE FEAR is just beginning to reach the people of the county and to be appreciated by them, and says that as a result of the interest taken in our new enterprise large numbers of subscribers may be expected soon from the county seat as well as from the towns along the railroad.

The crops of corn, cotton, peas, etc., n that section are unusually fine; busiless is brisker than it has been for sevral years, with promise of still further aprovement.

HON. GEORGE DAVIS.

Speaks To-Night.

Hon. George Davis will address his fellow-citizens this evening, at the City Hall. A tremendous crowd will doubtless be present to hear this gifted orator and popular favorite.

Bad Condition of Streets.

Second street, between Chestnut and Red Cross, is and has been for the last five years, in an awful condition. Near the corner of Mulberry the street has been cut down and left so fearfully bad hat on a dark night a pedestrian night step off and seriously injure timself. The middle of the street is is good as the sidewalk to walk on.

THE PROSTRATE STATE. TELEGRAPH AND CABLE.

SENATOR RANDOLPH'S OBSER. VATIONS.

Testimony of Republican Judges

Against Chamlerlain. Ex-Governor Randolph, of New Jersey, and now one of the United States Senators from that State, is at the present time at Columbia, South Carolina. He went there for the purpose of ascertaining by personal observation and inquiry the actual facts in regard to those districts of South Carolina declared by President Grant, on With this object he "saw and conversed with public men from Charleston, Columbia, Aiken, Camden and Edgefield," and the result of his investigations he has given in the form of a letter to the public. The great bulk of Governor Randolph's information was derived from Republican sources. It cannot, therefore, be fairly charged that the facts he gives are tainted with political partisanship.

The points upon which he sought to be specially informed were two. First. whether it was true that violence and insurrectionary disturbances really existed in those districts that Chamberlain alleged to be filled with turbulence and next, were the State authorites defied and resisted in the service of judiof the eleven judges exercising jurisdiction in the State, from the sworn affidavits of more than one-half the sheriffs of the counties, including those styled insurrectionary, and from the declarations made to him by many other civil officers, we give in his own words:

"Of one and all the districts alleged to be insurrectionary. I can say that no | that the Porte's six week's armistice is village population of New Jersey is more quiet or peaceful, and, with a single exception, arising from causes non-political, none of these districts have been disturbed.'

All the judges told him they knew of no cause that warranted Chamberlain's proclamation, or that of the President of the United States, and several of them assured him in private conversation that "the civil power. prior to the proclamation, was full and ample in all the counties, and they branded the Governor's assertion to the contrary as a libel on the State."

Judge Bryan, of the United States District Court for South Carolina, corroborated all that had been said by the ten State judges. He said he was astonished at the Governor's proclamation. * * * * Judge Bryan is now apprehensive as to the safety of the white families scattered about the sparsely settled portions of the State. He fears that the tendency of the Governor's proclamation and of the presence of Federal troops, will be, in the hundreds of townships where the troops will not be stationed, to give license to the base and brutal passions of the lower classes of negroes.

Touching the condition of the elections, Senator-Randolph says: "The board of State canvassers consists of the Secretary of State, the Comptroller General, the Attorney General, the Chairman of the Committee of elections of the House. Four of these officers are Republicans. With them rests the entire power of count. Of these six final canvassers four are candidates for re-election. In word, the members of the State board are absolutely and finally judges of their own election.

"The county boards of canvassers consist of three commissioners of election. They are appointed by the Governor. He has nominally selected two commissioners from the Republican side ond one from the Democratic.

"By public proclamation he invited the two political committees to desig nate their choice. He also announced that no candidate for office would be appointed by him. The persons named by the Democratic committee have not generally been appointed. Of the Republican commissioners, selected by the Governor, in nearly every instance the appointee is a Republican officeholder, or a candidate for election at the coming election; thus they will canvass the returns of their own elections. It will be observed that the Governor appoints the commissioners of the county, a majority Republican, they, in turn, appoint three managers for each polling precinct, a majority Republican. These managers control the ballot-box, count the votes, and make returns to the board appointing them. The reception of the votes, their count, their canvass by the county board, and their final canvass by the State board are always and wholly within Republican control."

Of the military power of the State the following was ascertained: Its militia is composed entirely of negroes. To the same offense and fined $10 and costs | them, and them alone, are State arms and ammunition given. Officers and men are Republicans, and Republicans only. The State has purchased over a half million dollars' worth of arms within the seven years past. They are now wholly within the control of the negroes and their leaders.

An Old Tree.

The celebrated old orange tree at Versailles, called Le Grand Bourbon, recently died at the age of 455 years. It seemed in good condition, and its death was a surprise. The Queen of Navarre gave the seed to her gardener, who planted it in a box in 1421 at Pampeluna. It was a great novelty on reaching maturity, and was confiscated from the constable of Bourbon, it 1532, by Franc's I., and transported to Fontainebleau. In 1684 Louis XIV placed it in the garden of Versailles.

In the Walker homicide case, Salem, N. J., a verdict of guilty of manslaught er was returned against all the prisoners. This is the prize fight care.

Proclamation Against the Use of Money at Elections-Orders Prosecuting Offenders.

Associated Press Telegrams.

NEW YORK, NOV. 2 .- Gov. Tilden this a. m, issued a proclamation regarding the improper use of money at elections. The proclamation concludes: "Now, therefore, I call upon all District Attorneys and other public officers to be vigilant in detecting and the authority of Governor Chamberlain, diligent in prosecuting persons guilty to be in an insurrectionary condition. of the crime referred to within their respective counties, and I respectfully ask all good chizens of the State to aid them in their efforts.'

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—General Ruger, commanding the department, received a dispatch from Artesia, Miss., stating that a meeting there yesterday ended in a free fight and the wounding of six negroes, one of them mortally. United States troops were called upon by the citizens and their prompt appearance prevented further disturbance. All quiet now. The citizens desire the troops to remain to prevent a repetition of the riot.

THE ARMISTICE.

Russia's Attitude.

Associated Press Telegrams. London, Nov. 2.—The latest report of the situation at Constantinople is considered a counter-proposition to Russia's ultimatum. Ignatieff rejected the Porte's offer and gave the Turks forty-eight hours from Tuesday night to reconsider the matter. The furniture of the embassy is prepared for shipment and the Russian consuls in the interior are ordered to move within reach of the frontier.

A WORD

To Authorities and Citizens. To the Cape Fear.

In order to prevent a repetition of the disgraceful riots in our streets last election day, it is to be hoped that no liquor will be sold on next Tuesday. The law should be executed with the most rigid care. Of course the functionaries will not fail to go through the perfunctory duty of publishing the order, but let every citizen who values good order give his moral aid to this matter. Seal up the dram shops and all will go on smoothly; otherwise the crazed brain of one drunken man may cause irreparable mischief.

The above communication is timely. Let the election be quiet and orderly.

Turning Over.

As soon as the news was received in Oakland county, Michigan, of the horrible Cainhoy massacre in South Carolina, the Hayes and Wheeler club of that county promptly hauled down the Hayes and Wheeler banner and hoisted the Tilden and Hendricks flag! He writes that the State may now be relied upon for a Democratic majority.
