The News and Courier estimates that the returns, covering the whole State, exclusive of Charleston county, give Hampton over 10,000 majority. NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8-The Herald says: "Twenty-one States cast majorities for the Democratic nominees and sixteen for the Republicans, one State (Colorado) having previously cast its votes for the latter; thus Governor Tilden will be our next President and Thomas A. Hendricks our next Vice President. They have received 209 electoral votes against 160 cast for Gov. Hayes and William A. Wheeler, a clear majority of 49, and 24 more than necessary for an election. There is very little chance of lessening these figures, and none of changing the result. Our next House of Representatives will have a Democratic majority of at least twenty-five. The State of New York was carried by the Democrats by probably 35,000 and the entire city Democratic ticket was elected by majorities ranging downward from 53,000. Fortunate Escape. Yesterday Rev.
