

CAPE FEAR.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 9, 1876.
NORTH CAROLINA.

Thos. R. Farnell, State Librarian, has resigned.
The Friends of Temperance State Convention meets at Shelby on Wednesday, Nov. 15th.

The devil was the first spirit medium for he was called the Prince of the Power of the Air.
Savannah physician accuses each other of unwise treatment of patients during the yellow fever epidemic.

The Sumter True Southerner says: The CAPE FEAR, straight-out Democratic in politics, is well printed, and is a newsy journal.

Burlington Hawkeye: "They are performing the cantata of 'Joseph' at the opera house in Des Moines. They had no trouble in securing talent to represent most all the members of Potiphar's family, but they had to send clear to Burlington to get a man to play Joseph."

A riot occurred in Raleigh Thursday night at the last Grand Democratic rally. Pistol shots were fired and a policeman was beaten; the secretary of the Radical State Executive Committee was an aggressor in the affair, the windows of Dr. Blacknell's private office at the Yarrowhouse House were broke.

The Raleigh Observer

ON THE 16TH DAY OF NOVEMBER 1876, and in the city of RALEIGH the undersigned will commence the publication of

THE OBSERVER,

A DAILY AND WEEKLY Democratic Newspaper.

Of long experience in their profession as editors, respectively of the Fayetteville Observer and the Wilmington Journal, they do not affect to doubt the soundness of the general judgment which assigns them ability to furnish a newspaper suited to the needs and adapted to the tastes of the people of North Carolina. Differing in politics in the olden time, there was never a difference between the Observer and the Journal in zeal for the interests and honor of North Carolina. To promote the one, and to uphold and add to the other will be their high aim. To deserve the public confidence by earnest efforts to promote the public welfare, first and foremost of North Carolina, next of all the Southern States, and finally, and through these, of the whole Union. They think that this can only be effected by the prevalence of Democratic principles and the dismissal of the Radical party from the places and power which they have so greatly abused, and under whose baleful rule the South has been outraged and the whole country has been impoverished and disgraced.
