The Sheriffs and the Electoral Vote.
The law requires (see Battle's Revision, Section 5, Chapter 40), that the Register of Deeds shall envelope and seal up the abstract of the electoral vote in the county and endorse and direct it (to the Secretary of State) and by the 5th day after the election shall deliver the same to the Sheriff, who is to deliver it to the Secretary of State within ten days, including the day he receives it. So the abstracts should have been in the Sheriff's hands by the 12th inst., and are to be returned to the Secretary of State by the 21st inst.

The W. L. I. at the Inauguration.
We are informed by Captain M. P. Taylor that he has received a telegram from Gov. Z. B. Vance, accepting his company as an additional escort from Charlotte to Raleigh on the occasion of the Governor's inauguration. Captain T. expects to carry 80 men rank and file, and has strong hopes of securing the Wilmington Cornet Concert Band.

The inauguration will be a grand affair, and one of the most attractive features of the day's parade will be the appearance and movements of the W. L. I.

Almost a Fire.
Last evening, about dusk, while a clerk in the employ of Messrs. Hall & Pearsall was arranging some cotton samples near a lighted candle, a bunch of it coming in contact with the flame, was ignited, and in an instant a large pile of cotton was on fire. Several buckets of water were thrown upon it, which prevented its spreading. The only damage done was the burning of a few pounds of cotton.

The Meat Market.
For the past week the clerk of the Market reports as follows: Number of cars 140, beefs 58, sheep 4, calves 7, hogs 84, deer 1.

Look here, now, does everybody in this great city live on fish and oysters?

Mortuary Report.
There was only one interment in Oakdale the past week, that of a child 2 years old, who died of diphtheria.

Interments in Pine Forest Cemetery: adults, 1; children, 2.

Four companies of Infantry from Charleston, passed through the city yesterday morning enroute for their old quarters at Fort Monroe. Some of the officers stopped over and were seen on the streets yesterday.

Four tramps, who had stored themselves in a locked box-car from Portsmouth, Va., broke out at the Old Union Depot yesterday morning.

THE COURTS.

Mayor's Court.

Nick VonGlahn, drunk and disorderly; fined $50 and costs or thirty days in prison.

The same, for resisting a police officer; case dismissed.

Three other cases which were continued over from Friday, were tried and disposed of.

Magistrates' Court.

Adam Martin was before Justice Gardner, for violation of Sec. 7th of City Ordinance. Defendant was dismissed on payment of costs.

Hotel Personals.

Says the Raleigh Observer: "Major Dunham would be a great acquisition to the House." Indeed, you are right.

The cotton on the line of the C. C. Railway is accumulating rapidly.

New Advertisements.

Charles D. Myers & Co.—Dr. Shattuck's Celebrated Charcoal Biscuit; E. J. Lanabee & Co's Oatmeal and Oswego Biscuit.

Shrier—Clothing.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Mrs. Mitchell, relict of Rev. D. Mitchell, the celebrated scientist, died in Statesville on the 11th, at the age of 80.

The thriving little village of Mt. Mourne which has sprung up within the last year or two on the A. T. & O. railroad, was almost entirely destroyed by fire on Wednesday night.

Raleigh News: They say Judge Greasy Sammy Watts made a speech a few days ago to the negroes, at Weldon, in which he endeavored to instill into his dusky hearers the best kind of Democratic doctrine.

Raleigh News of Friday: It pains us to announce that Mrs. George E. Badger, relict of the illustrious jurist, patriot and statesman of that name, died at her residence in this city last evening.

Last Friday evening she was stricken with paralysis, and from that time her life has been despaired of. Mrs. Badger was a lady in whom shone more of the beauties of character than fall to the lot of ordinary mortals. Cultured, amiable, genial, pious, she was one of those singularly attractive women whom to know is to love.

How They Fix Things in Louisiana.
Under the registration and election laws of Louisiana the Governor appoints a supervisor of registration for each parish, and the supervisor appoints the judges of election. The decision of any supervisor on all questions relating to the registration of votes is final, and is not subject to revision or correction by any court.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

DOINGS IN THE THREE STATES.

Democrats to be Present at the Counting of the Vote in New Orleans—The South Carolina Returning Board Declare for Hayes—The Matter to be Decided by the Supreme Court—The Vermont Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Herald's New Orleans dispatch says: "Governor Curtin has informed your correspondent that among the official returns received by the Returning Board are those of five parishes in which no intimidation is alleged or charged, in which, by a mistake of the local Republican politicians, only the names of the two electors at large and the one for the district appear upon the ticket, thus leaving the balance of the Republican electors running behind the ticket some 1,900 votes. All these parishes are Republican by a large majority, and it is known that other similar errors exist, which will increase the discrepancy to nearly 3,000 votes. Mr. Wells, of the Returning Board, has addressed a letter to Senator Trumbull and others providing for a committee of five of each party to be present during the counting of the votes."

A Times New Orleans dispatch intimates that the Chairman of the Democratic Louisiana State Committee will be allowed to nominate a person for the vacant place on the Board.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—At twelve o'clock there was quite a gathering at the room of the Returning Board. Messrs. Casanave and Wells, members of the Board, were there. Judge Trumbull, Judge Stallo, Gov. Palmer and ex-Gov. McHenry, of the Northern Democrats, and the Democratic Committee which has charge of the evidence to be presented of the part of the Democrats, were present. There were a number of Republicans present also. There was delay in the meeting on the part of the Board on account of the absence of Messrs. Anderson and Kenner. The Board met at 12:30 and authorized the Sergeant-at-Arms to procure a room for the meeting of the Board. A resolution, offered by Gen. Anderson, inviting the presence of five gentlemen from each party of Northern Democrats and Republicans in the city, was adopted. Col. Zacharie filed a plea as to the jurisdiction of the Board, which thereafter went into executive session.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 18.—The result of tabulating the returns of the County Canvassers gives the State to the Hayes electors by a majority ranging from 230 to 1,133. The counsel for the Democratic candidates immediately filed exceptions to the aggregation on the ground of irregularities, errors and omissions between the canvassers of the returns and the statements of the County Canvassers, which they claim vitiate the above result. The Supreme Court, it is understood, direct the Board in its duties as to the final count.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Democrats will contend for everything allowed by the law. Amos Aldrich, who has the highest vote on the Democratic electoral ticket, will claim the place of electoral, ineligible by reason of holding a Federal office.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The situation in Europe is still critical. It is stated that two of the Republican electors in Louisiana are office-holders.

THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

Second Day—Thursday.

Some routine business transacted. Visiting brethren accepted seats, viz: Rev. Dr. Tupper, of Va., and Rev. Mr. Mendenhall, of S. C.

The report on State missions was taken up. Mr. Huffman said the debt of the board was about $550, which it is hoped will be paid off at this meeting of the Convention.

Mr. Richardson urged that the associations make reports of their work, that the results may be seen in the statistics of the Convention.

Other remarks were made on the report by Jacob Allen, of Raleigh. W. A. Graham, of Lincoln. Mr. Cohen, of Edenton, Messrs. Babb, Overby, Pritchard, Whitfield and others.

The discussion occupied most of the morning session.

Mr. Durham offered an amendment to the report looking to missions among the colored people of North Carolina, but the amendment was lost. The report was adopted.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention met at 4 P. M. Prayer by Rev. J. J. James.

On motion, the evening session was set apart to hold a mass meeting on the subject of ministerial education.

The report of the Board of Education was called for and read.

Prof. L. B. Mills, of Wake Forest College, said that last year nineteen young men had been under the patronage of the board, but hard times had put the board in debt, and now only six brethren were receiving aid, while there is a debt of about $300.

The report was further discussed by

C. T. Bailey, C. Durham, T. Whitfield, E. Dodson, W. R. Gwaltney and others, and the report was laid on the table until to-night.

Resolutions commending an effort to build a better church, in a more eligible location, in Charlotte, were introduced and advocated by Dr. Pritchard. After remarks by W. A. Graham, Rev. T. Whitfield and Rev. R. H. Griffith, the resolutions were adopted. Adjourned to 7 o'clock P. M.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Tupper, of Va.

NIGHT SESSION—MASS MEETING.

Rev. J. B. Boyce, D. D., of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, was introduced. He was glad to address the Convention on the subject of ministerial education. He was proud of being a Baptist, because he believes they hold the truth, and because of their past history. As soon as it was possible for us to establish schools, the Baptists directed their attention to education. We have had English scholars to whom worthy reference might be made. The same might be said of our own country. In every Southern State there is a Baptist college. More than one-half of the Baptist population of the world is now found in the Southern States. About ten millions of the inhabitants of the world are under Baptist influence.

Rev. H. A. Tupper, D. D., corresponding secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, next addressed the Convention.

Mr. J. C. Scarborough was introduced as the next speaker. Two hundred and sixty thousand children of the State have to look to the common schools for an education. What is to be our future if this state of things continues? Our people spend their money in attending the big show at Philadelphia and then complain of poverty.

Prof. L. R. Mills made some very happy illustrations—comparing the preachers to different kinds of guns. He wishes that the brethren had read the appeals which he has read from the poor young men of the State.

NOTICES OF PROMINENT MEN.

Perhaps the oldest man in the body is Lockey Simmons, of Montgomery county, and the father of Prof. W. G. Simmons, of Wake Forest College. Next to him we would place Mr. Aldbow, of Orange, who is 77. Younger, but still to be numbered among old men, we notice Daniel Webster, of Franklin, and Mr. Ireland, of Wake. Jordan Tyson, of Chatham, is here also, and apparently enjoying the meeting as much as anybody.

Rev. James P. Boyce, D. D., L. L. D., is a native of Charleston, S. C. His father was a man of large wealth, and his brother, W. W. Boyce, was for many years a member of Congress from South Carolina, now a leading lawyer in Washington. Dr. Boyce was taught letters at Brown University, and theology at Princeton. He was at one time an editor, had charge of the Baptist Church of Columbia, S. C., to which he gave ten thousand dollars for the erection of a house of worship. He has been a member of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Greenville, S. C., from its origin, and has had charge of its financial management, especially since the war. For the past two years he has scarcely taught at all at the Seminary, having been engaged in raising the endowment of $500,000 with a view to its removal to Louisville, Ky. Dr. Boyce is here in the interest of the Seminary. He is not only chairman of the faculty of the Seminary, but President of the Southern Baptist Convention, and has merited for himself the very distinguished honor of being one of the finest presiding officers in America.

Dr. H. A. Tupper was called from the pastorate in Washington, Ga., to the corresponding secretaryship of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, in Richmond, four years ago, to succeed the lamented Dr. James B. Taylor, and it is high praise to say that the mantle of the ascended saint has fallen upon a worthy successor. Dr. Tupper is quiet and gentle in manner, but a very interesting and effective speaker and a ripe scholar. He represents the cause of foreign missions.

Rev. J. K. Mendenhall is of North Carolina Quaker extraction. He is now identified with South Carolina, having been pastor at Columbia and other prominent points in that State, though now he is connected with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, located at Marion Alabama.

Rev. Amos Moore, of Johnston, is doubtless the oldest preacher present. C. M. Cook, the President, is a portly, good looking gentleman, we should say about 33 years old. Mr. Cook is a native of Franklin county, was graduated at Wake Forest College, and was a member of the State Senate in 1874-75. He is a lawyer by profession, and a good one, and is a very useful and active member of the church.

The Secretary, Rev. J. D. Huffman, is well known as editor and pastor, and we pass to the Assistant Secretary, Rev. F. R. Underwood. This gentleman was born in Johnston or Sampson, was educated at Wake Forest and Greenville Theological Seminary, and is now pastor in Oxford.
