

THE CAPE FEAR.

NUMBER 32.

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 21, 1876.

10 CENTS A WEEK

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

The Member from Carteret.

The Raleigh News says: "The member elect from Carteret, William Vernon Geffroy, Esq., though unostentatious, is one of the most talented gentlemen elected to the Legislature. He is a native of Pasquotank county, and is about forty-six years of age. Even in youth he was a fine debater; and to show his ability as a writer, it is only necessary to state that articles written by him before he had reached man's estate, were admitted to the columns of the Washington Union, Raleigh Standard and Elizabeth City Pioneer, leading Democratic journals of that time. A letter addressed to the venerable Thomas Ritchie, upon the retirement of that gentleman from the National Democratic organ, was among Mr. Geffroy's contributions to the press."

Hotel Personals.

MURKIN HOUSE—Sunday—F. Scrivener, L. Lusuller, Dr. S. Angle, Charlotte; J. E. Brunson, Sumter; John B. Palmer, James Anderson, Columbia; K. Haynes, S. B. Jennings, C. D. Baldwin, J. W. Powell, S. L. Fremont, Jr., A. Branch, N. C.; W. H. Battle, Raleigh; W. F. Walters, B. F. Newcome, Baltimore; J. E. Hartman, Lumberton; W. F. Monroe, W. Mumon, Bladenboro; J. W. Hawkins, Rockingham; W. H. Lindsay, W. C. & A. R. R.

MANNING HOUSE—Sunday—H. G. Greene, New York; F. M. Foy, New York; Miss Mary Murrill, J. F. Murrill, Hickory; R. Smith, Baltimore; Mrs. Joseph Irish, New Port; G. H. Manmough, St. Louis; J. M. Mongrel, Carthage; E. B. Colet, Goldsboro; E. Murrill, Onslow county; N. Barefoot, Sampson county.

Attempt at Incendiarism.

Sunday night about half-past seven o'clock, some scoundrel attempted to burn down the house of Mr. D. J. Greer, on Seventh, between Princess and Mulberry streets. There were several bundles of laths lying under the corner of the house. The scoundrel, espying these set them on fire. Mr. T. C. Craft, who boards at the house, happened to pass through the yard a few minutes after and discovered the fire. He immediately ran for a bucket of water and pulling the laths out from under the house succeeded in extinguishing them before the fire reached the building.

A Literary Visitor.

Miss Constance Fenimore Woolson and her mother, who is a niece of Cooper, the celebrated American novelist, are spending a month in Wilmington before going to Florida for the winter. Miss Woolson is an authoress of reputation. We trust her visit may be a pleasant one, and that the health of her mother, on whose account she pays the visit, will be much improved.

A Deserved Compliment.

The Democratic caucus of the Senate on yesterday nominated our fellow-townsmen, Capt. Harry C. Brock, for Sergeant-at-Arms. This is equivalent to an election. Capt. Brock will make a capital Sergeant. We are glad the position has been awarded him. There is no better Democrat than Harry Brock.

Judge Battle.

Hon. W. H. Battle, formerly Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, and Professor of Law at the University, is stopping at the Parcels. This able and venerable gentleman is looking in remarkably fine health and spirits.

Mayor's Court.

John B. Bosan, disorderly conduct; judgment suspended.
John Hendrickson, same; judgment suspended.
Jack Bell, same offence; dismissed on payment of costs.

The Good Samaritans, a colored organization, paraded yesterday, it being the first anniversary of Mt. Zion Lodge. Addresses were delivered at Mt. Zion Church.

The Sheriffs of this (Third) Congressional District will meet in this city to-day to compare the returns and announce the result.

The probabilities for to-day are cooler westerly, backing to warmer south-westerly winds, stationary or higher pressure and clearer weather.

The practical matter of the second page of the CAPE FEAR is interesting and instructive.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Yesterday morning, about 11 o'clock, as Girard Harris, one of the street-car drivers, was standing in front of his car, near Mulberry and Front streets, he fell off, and becoming entangled in the brakes, was dragged some distance, and would have been killed if the horse had not stopped. Several parties hastened to his rescue, and raising the car, drew him out. Dr. Lane, who was passing at the time, stopped, and, after examining him, declared that no bones were broken, but that he was badly bruised.

Nine members were added to the list of the Marine Temperance Society at the meeting last night. Several stirring speeches were made. The election of President was postponed.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Raleigh Sentinel (daily edition) has been lowered from $8 to $6 a year. It is a mistake about Rufus Amis, Esq., having been elected to the Senate from Granville.

Mr. Maddrey, Democrat, will contest the seat of Horton, Republican, for the Legislature in Hertford, on the ground that the polls were kept open too late at Winton, and that Democratic votes were not received.

The Observer says the general desire in Raleigh is to have a grand jolification on the 1st of January.

Raleigh Sentinel: A finer body of men than the Legislature now assembling in Raleigh cannot be found beneath the Capitol dome of any State in the Union.

In Goldsboro last Saturday policeman George Johnson was killed by a pistol-shot, supposed to have been fired by Mr. Robert Ham. The Messenger says it seems to have been due to Johnson's overbearing rashness.

J. Font Taylor, Esq., has been appointed State Librarian.

THE INELIGIBILITY QUESTION.

Citations from Leading Authorities.

From the Charleston News and Courier. The provision of the Vermont law is, that: "In case any person so elected shall neglect to attend at the place aforesaid on the day before the first Wednesday in December, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the other electors present to fill by ballot the vacancy thus occasioned." Similar power is given by law in Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, South Carolina, Maine, Wisconsin, New Hampshire, Vermont, Minnesota, Michigan, Massachusetts, Florida, California, Nevada, Nebraska, New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois. It is said that in three States no provision for filling vacancies has been made; but we have not seen the names given.

Henry N. Sollace, postmaster of Bradport, Vermont, was chosen a Presidential Elector for Hayes. Section 1 of Article II of the Constitution, provides that "no Senator or Representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States shall be appointed an Elector," and of course, Mr. Sollace can't serve. If Mr. Sollace had been eligible, and should die or fail to attend the Electoral College, the vacancy could be filled; but there is no vacancy, under a strict construction of the law, as no Elector was elected. Should the precedent of the Congress be followed, that rejected the electoral votes cast for Horace Greeley for President because a dead man was not such a "person" as the Constitution declared could be voted for, the votes of the good citizens of the Green Mountain State, cast for Mr. Sollace, would be thrown out, and Vermont disfranchised of one vote in the Electoral College, which one vote, as we have shown, would make the election of Hayes impossible in any event.

It is a nice question whether the ineligibility of a candidate for Elector, and his consequent inability to serve, creates such a vacancy as can be filled by the qualified Electors who are elected. Cooley, in his work on "Constitutional Limitations" (Section 620), says: "If the person having the largest number of votes is ineligible, the opposing candidate is not elected, but the election fails, and there is no 'election.'" This would prevent the qualified Electors from choosing a new Elector in the place of Sollace, and, positively, so far as it is authority, disposes of the claim that the qualified candidate for Elector receiving the next highest vote to Sollace is elected, by reason of the disqualification of the candidate receiving the highest number of votes.

[The News and Courier then gives a South Carolina case in point, in the course of an opinion concerning which Attorney General, now Governor, Chamberlain quotes Cushing, an eminent authority. Says he: "In reference to elections by ballot, where neither returning officers nor the electors themselves are supposed to know for whom the votes are cast, until the result is declared, it seems not unreasonable to consider the votes for ineligible candidate to be thrown away in all cases, and the opposing candidate elected when the electors know or must be presumed to know the disability; and in all cases, where there is no such actual or presumed knowledge, to hold the whole proceeding merely void, (Law and Practice of Legislative Assemblies, page 67.)

ORGANIZATION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

THE TWO HOUSES SELECT OFFICERS.

First Dispatch.

Special Telegram to the Cape Fear.

RALEIGH, Nov. 20.—The two houses of the General Assembly met yesterday at 12 m.

In the Senate Democratic caucus Hon. J. L. Robinson, ex-Speaker of the House, was chosen President; Robert M. Furman, Esq., editor of the Asheville Citizen Principal Clerk; Peter M. Wilson, Esq., of Warrenton, Assistant.

In the House caucus Capt. V. V. Richardson, of Columbus and J. N. Staples, Esq., of Guilford, were the principal candidates for Speaker. Probably a third man will be selected. Caucus adjourned to 4 o'clock p. m.

Second Dispatch.

Special Telegram to the Cape Fear.

RALEIGH, Nov. 20.—In the House caucus Charles Price, Esq., of Davie, was the choice for Speaker; Maj. J. D. Cameron of the Hillsboro Recorder, for Clerk and Capt. J. B. Hussey, of the Statesville Landmark, Assistant. Col. J. McLeod Turner was selected as Engrossing Clerk of the Senate, and Capt. Harry C. Brock, of Wilmington, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate.

THE SITUATION AT NEW ORLEANS.

Gen. Sherman on the Spot—Marine Disasters.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.—Ex-Gov. C. F. Noyes of Ohio, Gen. Lew Wallace of Indiana, and Hon. Jno. A. Kasson of Iowa, left Saturday by rail for Florida. Visiting Democrats appointed the following to remain here and be present to witness the counting of votes by the Returning Board: John M. Palmer of Illinois, Lyman Trumbull of Illinois, Wm. Bigler of Pennsylvania, Geo. B. Smith of Wisconsin, F. S. Watson of Ohio. Gen. Sherman, in behalf of the Republicans, accepted the invitation of the Board, but the persons to act have not been designated.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20.—There are three tables in a circle in the Senate chamber—one for the Returning Board and one for each committee. The corridors are barricaded and guarded by assistant sergeants-at-arms. The committees entered at noon. The Republicans are Tuttle, Garfield, Sherman, Hale and Stoughton. The Democrats are as before reported. Each committee has a photographer to report the proceedings. The Committees will be present during the executive sessions of the Board—sessions daily, from 10 to 4 o'clock.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The mail steamer Windsor Castle, sailing between Great Britain and the Cape of Good Hope, has been lost. The crew and passengers were saved. The British gunboat Lapwing is also reported lost.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

That warlike preparations are making by the English is denied by the Government.

Pinchback claims his seat in the Senate on the ground that if the same Legislature which elected him United States Senator could be allowed to choose a Returning Board to elect a President, its action in his case should be deemed valid likewise.

It is telegraphed from Washington that the massing of troops at Washington has no political significance.

THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

Third Day—Friday.

Devotional exercises.

After some routine business the special order was announced and Dr. J. P. Boyce, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, was introduced. He explained the reason for the proposed removal of the institution from Greenville, S. C., to Louisville, Ky. The State of South Carolina could not do much for the endowment. Kentucky will give liberally for this object. Louisville is easily accessible from any part of the South. It is proposed that Kentucky give $300,000, and the other States $200,000. North Carolina has never been behind in other things. Shall she be in this?

Bonds were then taken to a considerable amount.

The committees to nominate the Boards of Education and State Missions reported, making but little change in those boards.

A committee was appointed at the last convention to inquire into the advisability of changing the charter of Wake Forest College, so that there may be some legal connection between the convention and the college. This committee reported that under present circumstances they did not think any change advisable. The report was adopted and the committee discharged.

The report of the committee to nominate the Sunday School Board, recommending a change of the location from Charlotte to Raleigh, excited considerable discussion, and it was finally tabled.

The special committee to whom was referred the report of the Sunday School Board, reported recommending that the employment of a missionary and agent be discontinued. This excited much discussion.

Col. Heck moved to amend by striking out this recommendation.

Pending a motion to table the report, the convention adjourned.

NIGHT SESSION.

A mass meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions was held. Rev. C. Durham and Rev. A. D. Blackwood, conducted religious services, and Maj. W. A. Graham spoke of what God has done in opening up the nation to the gospel.

Rev. Dr. Tupper, Corresponding Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, was introduced and delivered a very powerful address on the duty of sending the gospel to the heathen. A brief report could not do it justice. All our people should have heard it.

Dr. Pritchard earnestly pointed out what Christian women can do for the cause of the Lord.

The amount given by North Carolina to Foreign Missions is far below the amount given by other States less able than we.

When the Electors Meet.

By section 135 of the revised statutes of the United States, it is provided that the Presidential Electors for each State shall meet and give their votes upon the first Wednesday in December in the year in which they are appointed, at such place in each State as the Legislature of such State shall direct.
