GENERAL CITY NEWS.

Departure of Father White-Testmonial of Esteem.

R. W. Father White, of St. Thomas' (atholic) Church, who will leave this city to-day to take charge of the Caththe Church in Newbern, was waited upon last evening by a committee of the Young Catholic Friends Society, and was presented with a handsome purse of money and an address of thanks and good will on behalf of the Society and parishiners. The ceremony was quite impressive, and Father White in his response spoke feelingly, regretting to ander ties that had been so strong and long-continued.

The congregation feel that they have sustained a great loss in giving up a clergyman of great industry, taste. piety and general usefulness. Wilmington's loss is however, Newbern's gain.

Death in the Wood-Pile.

The custom of piling wood upon the wharves in such close proximity to the cap of the wharf is most certainly an our Fat Contributor to find room to pass in many places, while a lean man like ourself accomplishes the passage in fear and trembling. Certainly one person has been drowned from this very cause. Some of the wood-dealers and the authorities are to blame for permitting this nuisance to exist.

dell-No Danger of a Fight. A conversation with Hon. A. M.

THE SITUATION.

Waddell, member of Codgress from the Third District, enables the CAPE FEAR to lay the views of this gentleman on the tangled condition of affairs before the public. The conversation was alto gether informal, and as the intention to turn it into an interview is an afterthought no effort will be made to give the exact words of our talented Congressman.

Col. Waddell thought that there was no danger of serious trouble. The country was deeply stirred. Every effort would be made by the rascally element in the Republican party to count out Tilden and count in Haves. The movement would not succeed because the better portion of the Republican party was hardly prepared to endorse the policy of fraud.

Mr. Filden's triumph was fairly won, and he would be the last man in the country to surrender without a constitutional struggle his indubitable rights. wil that needs abatement. We defy in the maintenance of which the people, as well as he himself, had so much interest.

> "Then, Colonel," said the reporter. "you think thore will be no fighting ?" "Not a bit. Tilden will be peaceably inaugurated. There will be no blood shed."

The Governor Restrained. TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 21 .- The attorneys of the Democratic managers on yesterday applied to Judge White, of the Circuit Court, for two orders-one restraining the Governor from canvassing the returns of the electoral vote or issning his certificate to any elector or electors unless by order of the regularly appointed board of canvassers, and another in the shape of a mandamus to the returning board, ordering to proceed at once to a canvass of the votes. The judge granted the injunction prayed for temporarily, and ordered the Governor to show cause on Thursday next why the injunction should not issue permanently. He also issued an order commanding the members of the returning board to show cause on next Thursday why the mandamus ordering them to proceed to canvass at once should not issue. The papers were served this evening.

There is an appeal, from the circuit judge to the Supreme Court, subject, however, to this possible difficulty-the Supreme Court is not now in session, and will not convene in regular session until next January. If it does not of its own volition convene an extra session before the 6th of December, when the electors' certificates are obliged to issue, there can be no appeal from Judge White's decision, as there will be no court in session to which the appeal can be made. General Invitation.

The people of 'Wilmington and surrounding section are warmly invited, we are requested to say, to attend the grand Democratic jollification at Wadesboro on the night of the 28th. Col. L. L. Polk and Messrs. McLauchlin, Pemberton and Patrick are the committee of invitation.

The ladies of the Fifth Street M. E. Church will give a rosette party and oyster supper, at Mrs. Sholar's (just north of the ('hurch) this evening at 7 o'clock.

To a Contributor.

The story of "Cuffee vs. Morpheus" has been, doubtless unaware to you, printed elsewhere. Otherwise it would appear in the CAPE FEAR. It is a good government. The people of the North are not likely, however, to take up arms against the seating of Hayes, even if it is accomplished by the basest fraud ever practised. If there had been no civil war they would not stand usurpation of that sort. As to the South, everybody says there has been enough of fighting for rights with arms in hand. If, as I do not think, the fraud is consummated, the people will submit and the masses will bide their time. Two years later the Republican party will receive a stunning rebuke at the polls."

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.-Among the colored Democrats before the Northern committee to-day was one old man who said he had been a slave of Jefferson Davis, and who had been long engaged in contracting and directing field hands, &c. He remarked that he had plenty of money when reconstruction took place, and he became a prominent Republican. He had been one for eight years, and now he was as pure as a marsh hen. As long as he contracted with old citizens and Democrats he had always got his money and was ahead of the world, but he at last unhappily made a contract with a Republican chief and was swindled out of every dollar. Three Sided Contest-Sensational Dispatches Denied.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 .- It is now believed there will be a warm contest for the speakership when Congress reassembles. It was thought at the adjournment last summer that the place would be quietly conceded to Mr. Sayler, as the office would not have no patronage in the way of committee making, but the impression gains ground that the Speaker of the second session of the Forty-fourth Congress. will be made the Speaker of the Fortyfifth Congress, and hence the struggle for the latter place, which would otherwise have been deferred until December next year, will be brought out this next December. For this reason' Mr. Randall, who has graciously vielded to Mr. Sayler, is likely to dispute the contest with him while Sunset Cox comes in as a third candidate. It looks as if it would be the three-sided contest of last winter over again, with Mr. Savler in the stead of the late Speaker Kerr. Well informed republicans here to-night are quite depressed over the latest information received by them from Florida.
