DAY ATTACKS THE PRESIDENT

Goes Vigorously for the Old "Buttinsky"

Charges That He is "Perniciously Active" in the Campaign and That He is Intimate With the Trusts—President and Cabinet Hold Pow-wow About It, But Will Make no Answer.

Washington, Sept. 29.—The President and his Cabinet discussed the attack of Chancellor Day on the Chief Executive, but decided to ignore it. Day charged the President with being "perniciously active" in the campaign and also with being too intimate with other trusts for his denunciation of the Standard Oil to be worth much.

STRONG PLEA

Made for the Conservation of Country's Natural Resources. Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The feature of today's session of the semi-annual meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers was a strong plea made by President Charles L. Plunkett, of Massachusetts, for the conservation of natural resources of the country, especially the forests. He said: "That these resources are not inexhaustible requires no argument." Many subjects of interest to manufacturers were discussed today. Tomorrow will be given over to sight seeing.

IRRIGATION CONGRESS

Opened Its Annual Session Today With Many Delegates Present. Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 29.—The sixteenth National Irrigation Congress opened today with a large number of delegates present. President C. F. Gandy delivered the opening address. In the course of business the question of natural resources was touched upon and it was universally agreed that government ought to use every means in its power to conserve forests, minerals and other resources.

SLAYS HIS NECE.

Awful Crime Committed in New York Today. New York, Sept. 29.—Ella Roach, a pretty young widow, was shot and instantly killed by her uncle, Robert Wood, as she was lying in bed with her two children. He is said to have been very jealous of her. He succeeded in escaping but the police have sent out a general alarm.

TUBERCULOSIS CONGRESS.

A Number of Valuable Papers Were Submitted Today. Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—Numerous papers were read before the different sections of the International Tuberculosis Congress. Addresses were delivered and many questions were discussed. One of the papers that made a decided impression was the one read by Dr. A. D. Melvin, Chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States, which, he said, Federal statistics show a considerable percentage of tuberculosis in slaughtered animals.

MAKE BIG SHOWING.

Wilmington Banks Make Excellent Showing and Stand in Front Ranks. In recent statements made by the banks of Wilmington, all of them make excellent showings. The American National, which was only organized in May, showed deposits of $143,000,000 cash resources of $79,000 and total assets of $260,557.53. The American National is the only National Bank in the city that has a Savings Department. Their interest quarter begins October 1st and deposits made on that day or on October 2nd, will draw 4 per cent. compound interest from October 1st. The American National is located next door to the Orton Hotel. This bank not only has a Savings Department, but does a general Commercial and Savings business and is in position to extend accommodations in both lines that is consistent with conservative banking.

Kitchin will arrive in Wilmington early tomorrow afternoon via the Seaboard Air Line from Lumberton, where he speaks tonight, and he will be met at the depot by a committee of prominent citizens and escorted to the Orton Hotel. Tomorrow afternoon he will be royally entertained and tomorrow night he will be the center of attraction at the big rally, the scene of which will be the intersection of Third and Market streets. There today is being erected a giant platform upon which the guest of honor and others will sit. A brass band will be on hand and a genuine rousing old Democratic rally will be held. The public, especially all voters, is given a cordial invitation to be present.

Yesterday Mr. Kitchin spoke in Rockingham before a giant crowd. He was enthusiastically received and his eloquent speech vigorously cheered. His reception in Lumberton today will be a big one, as extensive arrangements have been made for his entertainment there. From here he goes to speak at Southport.

The services yesterday were of splendid type and were largely attended.

In the Advent Christian Church, Sixth and Church streets, the second lecture will be given tonight, on the wonderful illustrated hand-painted Bible chart, 30 feet long and five feet wide. This chart spans the entire time from Eden lost to Eden restored. All Bible history is connected and made plain, together with numerous symbols, and their significance. A large congregation listened to the first lecture last Sunday night. The third lecture will be given tomorrow night. All remaining lectures will be given later on. Sunday School teachers and scholars will be greatly benefited by these lectures. Special invitation given to ministers and students of the Bible. Meeting begins at 8 o'clock tonight. Everybody welcome.

TRIAL TODAY.

Two Negroes Bound Over to the Present Term of the Superior Court. In Justice Furlong's court today at noon, Junius Sibley and George Simpson, two negroes, were tried on charges of an assault with a deadly weapon, the warrants having resulted from the recent shooting affair between the two in East Wilmington, in which Sibley was badly wounded. Both negroes were found guilty of the charges preferred, and were bound over to the present term of the Superior Court. It was stated that they intended to enter submissions and they will probably be sentenced this afternoon.

COURT DOWN TO BOND CASES

All Minor Jail Cases Disposed Of

Rapid Progress Made Today and Many Cases Considered—A Number of Continuances—Case of Felonious Assault Against the One Armed Negro, Paul James, for Trial Tomorrow—Chas. Ratcliffe's Trial Thursday.

The Superior Court has been busy today clearing-up cases, and is now considering the many bond cases. Tomorrow trial of the capital cases will commence, and the first case called tomorrow morning will be that of Paul James, the one-armed negro man of Greenville Sound, charged with felonious assault upon Sophie Austin, also colored. Thursday morning, the James case having concluded, the murder case against Chas. Ratcliffe will be taken up, or it will be the next case considered after the rape case. For each case a special venire of fifty was drawn this morning. B. G. Empey, Esq., appears for the defense in both cases and in that of James associated with him are Messrs. Pate & Woody. The case of murder in the second degree against Furman Lee will very likely not be called at this term, as the State may have to seek a continuance on account of the sickness of its most material witness. A physician's certificate was presented to the court this morning to the effect that Helen Smith, colored, who testified last time to having seen young Lee fire the fatal shot, was sick and unable to attend court. So trial at this term will probably depend upon her ability to attend later at this week's session.

The grand jury this morning returned a true bill against B. Cox, charged with house breaking, and it is understood that counsel for the defense will press for a trial. Several interesting matters were continued this morning. A case of doing business without a license against R. T. Windley went over until the next term, as Herbert McClammy, Esq., stated that he would agree upon the facts in the case with the solicitor and then a point of law would be argued before the court.

The long standing case of failure to work the roads against Ezekiel Miller was also continued, and this is a case, so Herbert McClammy, Esq., counsel for the defense, stated, as to go to the Supreme Court. The case has been on the docket since July, 1906.

Dancy Lewis, who was yesterday adjudged guilty of larceny in two cases, by breaking into houses and was sentenced to 12 months on the roads in one case, was this morning given a like sentence in the other case, this sentence to commence at the expiration of the other one. Lewis is the young negro, captured by Detective Robert Green.

Chas. Williams, colored, was convicted of stealing a pair of pants and sentenced to six months on the roads. The case against Walter Buoy for violation of the anti-trust laws of the State was continued for the term.

Walter McQuire and James Davis, two colored boys charged with larceny, made a lucky escape, it being a case of "not proven."

A case of assault with deadly weapon against William Simpson was a most peculiar, as well as pathetic one. The defendant submitted in the case and it was shown that he had shot one Capt. Davis while under the influence of liquor, and that it was the very first time that he had ever been drunk or had ever been indicted although 65 years of age. A number of witnesses proving his splendid character were introduced, so under the circumstances Judge Lyon suspended judgment upon payment of the costs.

Annie Campbell was found guilty of larceny.

In a case against Reston Norris, charged with resisting an officer, a capias was issued.

Andrew Ward plead guilty to non support, but upon certain representations and promises judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs.

John Williams, larceny, was found guilty and sentenced to 6 months on the roads.

In an appeal case against Lucy Moore for costs the judgment was affirmed upon the non appearance of Hop Lee, a Chinaman who appealed and he will now have to come across with the cost money.

A number of cases were not pressed with leave, mainly due to the fact that the defendants had skipped. These cases were as follows: Reston Norris, resisting an officer; A. C. Brown, assault with a deadly weapon; Geo. Hill, embezzlement; Will Lane, gambling; Fred Hill, house

SALVATION ARMY

Three Day Series of Services Will be Inaugurated This Evening Under the Auspices of Major Barter, Adjutant Core and Adjutant Quirk, Three of the Most Prominent and Enthusiastic Army Workers in the South—Public Invited to Attend Meetings.

Tonight the Salvation Army commences the three days' special meeting, which will be conducted by Major Elizabeth Barter, assisted by Adjutant Harriet Core and Adjutant Quirk, three of the most prominent Army workers in the South. These workers have been in the city before and are pleasantly remembered by all who had the privilege of hearing them speak and sing. Major Barter possesses rare abilities as a public speaker and hundreds of people congregate at the street meetings, and in the hall, to listen to her eloquent appeals, and through her earnest appeals scores have been led to accept Christ as their Saviour. Adjutant Core is well known for the sweetness of her music and song, and many a rough and hardened sinner has been caused to remember his condition and made to think of Eternity as she has stood and listened to her songs. Adjutant Quirk never fails to make the meetings interesting, especially the outdoor services. Each night outdoor services will be held at the corner of Front and Princess streets, commencing at 7:30 p. m., to be followed by a revival service in the hall, 27 North Front street at 8 o'clock. These Army leaders are only here for three nights and Adjutant and Mrs. Yates, in charge of the local post, are anxious that the general public will hear them. All are welcome.

breaking, and Robert McIntire, larceny.

Just before the dinner, recess Chas. Radcliffe was arraigned and answered the solemn questions quickly and in strong voice, being prompted as to the former by his counsel, B. G. Empey, Esq.

Court this afternoon is engaged on the trial of bond cases.

Yesterday afternoon's session. During yesterday afternoon the following cases were disposed of:

E. B. Vann, charged with false pretense, entered a submission to forcible trespass, and the matter will likely be amicably settled upon restoration by the young white man of the money taken from his employers.

Dancy Lewis, larceny, found guilty in two cases; sentenced to 12 months on the roads in one and judgment reserved in the second case.

Caleb Howe submitted to an assault with a deadly weapon and carrying a concealed weapon, and was fined $5 and costs in the former and $10 and costs in the latter.

Mitchell Davis, assault with a deadly weapon, submitted and was fined $5 and costs.

Ery Lyons, assault with a deadly weapon, entered a plea of guilty and judgment was suspended upon payment of costs.

George Hill, larceny, submitted and was sentenced to 12 months on the roads.

Fred Hill, assault with a deadly weapon, was adjudged to be insane and will be sent to the asylum. Hill, who is a negro, was recently found in Federal Point township. Judgment was made absolute as to the $100 bond in the case of Jos. B. Brice, who "skipped out" at the last term, and a capias was ordered issued for S. B. Bryan, of New Bern, who was arrested here during the firemen's tournament charged with resisting officers and who failed to make his appearance at the last term of court. It is said that Bryan is now in prison in New Bern charged with running a "blind tiger."
