PLEAD GUILTY IN TWO CASES

Ex-Sheriff of Sampson Then Sought Mercy

Republican Ex-Sheriff of Sampson County Who Made Away With Much Money Admitted Having Been Guilty of Embezzlement—Not Guilty as to Forgery—Was Sentenced Today to the Penitentiary.

In the Superior Court at Clinton yesterday afternoon A. W. Aman, the Republican ex-sheriff of Sampson county, who made away with so much money, pleaded guilty to two charges of embezzlement and will be sentenced some time today by Judge C. C. Lyon, who is presiding. The hoodler was also charged with forgery and was given a jury trial, but was acquitted. His counsel then entered a plea of guilty in the embezzlement cases and sought the mercy of the court. The investigation held forth in court last night until almost midnight and then Solicitor Rodolph Duffy, who vigorously prosecuted, prayed the judgment of the court. However, at the request of counsel, who stated they desired to introduce evidence bearing upon the ill health of the accused, Judge Lyon withheld judgment until today.

Aman, it will be recalled, was a Republican sheriff of Sampson, and disappeared suddenly with a large amount of the county's money. He was never captured, but Tuesday appeared in court and gave himself up.

It was learned this afternoon that Aman was sentenced by Judge Lyon today to four months in the county jail in one case and to four years in the penitentiary in the other.

J. D. STEFANO

Hurt in Gasoline Fire at His Peanut Roaster on Front Street.

Last night and today were featured with two rather unique fires, neither of which required the services of the fire department for suppression. Some excitement was created at Front and Princess streets today about 10 o'clock when the peanut stand operated by J. D. Stefano caught fire from leakage of gasoline. A slight explosion followed as a result of which Stefano narrowly escaped being injured by the blazing gasoline. His hair and eyebrows were singed by the flames as they shot upward, but his face fortunately escaped being burned. The heat from the fire caused a glass fixture on the roasting machine to break and both of Stefano's hands were badly cut by the flying pieces of glass. The blaze was suppressed with a fire extinguisher by Fire Chief Charles Schnibben, who chanced to be in the vicinity at the time.

Last night, in some inexplicable manner, a telephone pole on Castle street caught fire and it burned merrily for some time until the blaze was extinguished.

ELABORATE PLANS

Being Made by the Young Men's Christian Association to Receive the Election Returns Next Tuesday Evening. Mr. J. T. North, Manager of the Postal Telegraph Company Will Act as Operator—No Admission Fee Will be Charged.

The officers of the Young Men's Christian Association, always desirous of serving the members and friends of the organization, are now planning for the election returns to be received and shown by the aid of a stereopticon in the large gymnasium on the night of election day.

A contract has been signed with the Postal Telegraph Cable Company to put in a loop to the building, thus furnishing the returns first hand. Mr. J. T. North, the manager, has kindly consented to act as operator.

During the evening pictures of the Yosemite Valley, California, Niagara Falls and vicinity, and of North Carolina will be thrown on the screen. The committee in charge believe that they are arranging something for Wilmingtonians that will be interesting and profitable, and that their effort will be appreciated by the public. No admission charge will be made. For the comfort of those who attend, refreshments will be served at cost by a committee.

As this will be the only place in town where gentlemen with their lady friends can gather and get the returns, it is safe to say that the attendance will be equal to the capacity of the large gymnasium.

During the service several favorite hymns of Mrs. Carmichael were sweetly rendered by the church choir and after its conclusion the remains were tenderly borne to beautiful Oakdale cemetery and there interred. The grave was covered with scores of floral tributes which served to testify in slight measure as a silent testimonial of the love in which the deceased lady was held among her friends.

The following gentlemen served as pallbearers upon this sad occasion: Messrs. Donald MacRae, Walker Taylor, J. Victor Grainger, Geo. S. LeGrande, T. H. Wright and George Harris. Dr. T. S. Burbank and Mr. W. A. Dick were honorary pallbearers.
