LIBERTY TO BE THANKFUL FOR

Gov. Glenn Issued Four Pardons Today

Follows Out Beautiful Custom He Inaugurated For Thanksgiving—Felon Who Are Pardoned Long Terms Who Were Friendless—Two Whites and Two Colored Will Be Set Free Tomorrow.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 25.—Following the custom instituted by him at the beginning of his term, Governor Glenn issues four Thanksgiving pardons, to take effect to-morrow. The pardons are issued only to long term prisoners who have good records and who have no friends who have interested themselves in getting a pardon for them. He has heretofore issued only two pardons, but as this is his last time he issues four. Those pardoned are: Jeff Mace, white, Madison county; Walter Newton, white, Granville county; Will White, colored, Iredell county; Moses Pender, colored, Edgecombe county.

WEDDED IN FAYETTEVILLE.

Beautiful Event Celebrated in Sister City Last Night.

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 25.—A beautiful marriage ceremony was celebrated last night at nine o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Carrie Oates, sister of the bride, Mr. George O'Hanlon was married to Miss Dora Bunting, Rev. I. W. Hughes, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, officiating. Mr. O'Hanlon is a prominent broker of this city, and his charming wife is prominent in social circles. They left immediately for Havana, Cuba. Among those of our town to attend the nuptials were Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Hanlon, of Winston-Salem.

PROGRESS MADE

With Arrangements for Southern Commercial Congress.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Considerable progress has been made by the local committee on arrangements for the Southern Commercial Congress which meets December 7-8. The Congress will be made up of representatives of commercial bodies from fourteen states. About three thousand persons are expected to attend. Among those who are to address the Congress are Clarence H. Poe, of Raleigh, also Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, of Virginia.

ARCHBOLD ON STAND.

Defends Standard Oil Company's Methods.

New York, Nov. 25.—Archbold is a Standard Oil witness to-day. He told of the early history of the company, and swore that the Standard had worked to develop a system to benefit the producer, but denied it fixed the price of oil, explaining that the markets of the world did that. He estimated that eighty million barrels of oil are now stored in this country because the production exceeds the demand.

AWFUL DISASTER.

Scores Lost their Lives in the Marine Calamity.

London, Nov. 25.—Reports from Malte, in the Mediterranean, state that many of two hundred passengers of a Liverpool line were lost when the steamer caught fire a mile from shore and had to be beached. It is burst as flames spread rapidly. Passengers began leaping overboard. Some of them were picked up by tugs but many were lost.

TRAFFIC PARALYZED

And Fog Holds Up Thousands of Passengers.

New York, Nov. 25.—Traffic is completely paralyzed by the worst fog in years. Four thousand passengers are held outside the harbor on the liners waiting for the fog to rise to enter. Fishing boats and tugs are kept to their moorings.

ODELL MILLS SOLD.

Bid in Today By Creditors at $166,000.

Concord, Nov. 25.—The Odell mills were sold today. They were bid in by creditors at $166,000.

TWO PRETTY WEDDINGS

The First was Solemized at Noon when Miss Florence Everett became the Bride of Mr. Louis G. Bass—Mr. Lester Malcolm Harvey and Miss Katherine R. Fick will be Married at 8:30 O'clock this Evening.

A most charming marital event was celebrated at noon today, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Everett, 706 Castle street, when their charming daughter, Miss Florence, became the happy bride of Mr. Louis G. Bass, Rev. G. A. Martin, pastor of Southside Baptist Church, officiating. The bride was handsomely attired in a blue travelling suit with hat to match. She entered with her maid of honor, Miss Bevie Fales, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by Miss May Landen, and was met at the altar by the groom, attended by his brother, Mr. J. M. Bass, as best man. The popularity of this young couple was attested by the many handsome presents displayed. The decorations were in exquisite taste, the color scheme being green and white. There were many kindly greetings for the bride and groom and a number of congratulations were received. Mr. Bass is a talented young man, member of the First Baptist Church, and holds a responsible position with the Atlantic Coast Line. Miss Everett is an accomplished young lady, a member of Southside Baptist Church, and has a host of admiring friends who wish for her the best that life holds.

Delicious refreshments were served, after which the happy couple left for Florida and other points South, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home at 505 South Fourth street after December 1st, where they will be glad to welcome their friends.

Fick-Harvey.

A very pretty wedding will be celebrated this evening at 8:30 o'clock, at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church when Miss Katherine R. Fick, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter N. Fick, of this city, will be united in marriage to Mr. Lester Malcolm Harvey, formerly of Los Angeles, Cal., now of this city. The officiating minister will be Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's Church.

The color scheme for the wedding will be yellow and white and this idea has been effectively and attractively carried out both in the decorations at the church and at the Fick residence, where a reception will be given in honor of the bridal party immediately after the conclusion of the ceremony. The bride will have as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Henrietta Fick, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Lula Bargmann, of Charleston, S. C.; Misses Lillie Bornemann, Katherine Gieschen and Carrie Ortmann, all of Wilmington. The groom will be accompanied as best man by Mr. Carl Fick, a brother of the bride, and the groomsmen will be Messrs. J. William Muller, of Charleston, S. C.; Henry M. Fick, of Charlotte; Fred. Tiencken and John D. Doscher, of Wilmington.

A reception will be given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fick, No. 409 South Sixth street, after the wedding, and quite a number of invitations have been issued for this pleasant event. The groom-elect came to Wilmington several months ago to make his home and he has made scores of friends here. He has been the star pitcher of the Wilmington baseball team in the Eastern North Carolina Baseball League during the past season. Mr. Harvey and his bride will make their home at No. 505 South Fourth street, and they will have the best wishes of their friends for a happy journey through life together.

INSPECTION MADE

Of the Union School by the Members of the Committee.

The committee of School District No. 1, composed of Messrs. J. A. Taylor, W. E. Perdue and Sam. Bear, paid an official visit to the Hemenway School today and a report of the progress in the different grades was presented to them. The members of the committee were greatly pleased with their inspection of the school.

The attendance at the Hemenway School yesterday was 746, at the Union 944, and at the High School 251, making a total attendance for the day of 1,941 pupils, or 59 less than 2,000.

Revival Service.

A revival meeting was started last night at the Advent Christian church at Sixth and Church streets, and much interest was manifested. A service will be held this evening and the public is invited to be present.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Cars to the Beach every half hour from 2 to 6 P. M.

HOW WE OBSERVE THANKSGIVING

What Wilmington Folks Are Going to Do

Public Buildings and Many Places of Business Will Be Closed—Some Nimrods and Anglers Will Have a Big Day—Annual Golf Tournament—Special Services in the Churches—Other Notes of the Occasion.

Tomorrow the great, all-American day of Thanksgiving rolls around and all dutiful folks who possess civilization should return thanks. The day will be celebrated in different ways. Some will travel, others will indulge in athletic sports or witness them, while others will rest, and yet still others will work. The day in Wilmington will not be celebrated in any general royal manner, though there will be amusement for all, while there will also be a golf tournament. All public buildings, the banks and many other places of business will be closed all day, and the Tidewater Power Company will operate a special schedule to Wrightsville Beach. There will be services in nearly all the churches, and a number of private societies are scheduled.

The Owls' carnival will hold forth all day tomorrow and in the morning at Front and Market streets the fine carnival band will give a special holiday concert. The Academy of Music will offer a matinee and night attraction in "East Lynne," and the Crystal Palace and Bijou will present fine bills.

One feature of the day will be the yearly event of the Cape Fear Golf Club. It will be the regular Thanksgiving gentlemen's tournament, and there will be three events, the awards for each of which will be a handsome cup. The events will be of 9 holes, 18 holes and 27 holes. It will be an all day tournament and already there are 24 entries. The tournament will commence at 10 o'clock in the morning and luncheon will be served on the links.

Today finds a number of Wilmingtonians, whose place of nativity is elsewhere, hurrying to the old homes to spend Thanksgiving. A number of folks from this city also left today for Richmond to witness the football game there tomorrow between North Carolina and Virginia. It is expected that still others will go from here tonight to Norfolk to see the A. and M. eleven play the V. P. I. there tomorrow.

Many sportsmen have already taken to the woods and will remain a-field all day tomorrow, while a large number of anglers are getting reel and rod ready today for big catches. Such is life, and thus goes Thanksgiving Day.

AT SOUTHSIDE CHURCH.

The Revival Still in Splendid Progress There.

Dr. Hale reports from the Southside Baptist church revival meeting: "We decided to run on through this week, even if the carnival is in full blast, within two blocks of the church. The result shows that we did not wrongly size up the religious interest of the congregation. The attendance is much larger than it was last week, and the interest is deepening at each service. Already there have been 31 accessions to the membership of the church, and others are giving the matter due consideration. The meeting will run right on through till Sunday night, with preaching every night this week at 7:30 o'clock. The Wilmington Baptist Union convenes at this church Friday morning at 10 o'clock, and will run through Friday and Saturday."

NEGRO SHOT.

Cicero Spicer was Wounded in an Altercation which Occurred Yesterday. Spicer, a young negro, was shot and painfully wounded yesterday. He had an altercation with another negro in the vicinity of the Belmont factory and the shooting followed. Spicer came to the city and had his injury treated by Dr. Charles T. Harper. The man received a painful flesh wound. The name of his assailant could not be secured.

Thanksgiving Service Postponed.

In order to allow as many who may desire to attend other services tomorrow, the Thanksgiving service at the Christian Church, on Dock street, will be postponed until Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at which time the public is invited.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Cars to the Beach every half hour from 2 to 6 P. M.

The U. C. Ellis studio will be open on Thanksgiving Day.

MISSION AT ST. JOHN'S.

Children's Service Yesterday Afternoon and Brotherhood Men Last Night—Mission Ends To-morrow. The quiet but deep interest in Archdeacon Webber's mission services and sermons grows day by day. The power of the preacher, which every hearer feels, is his tender appeal to the individual, stirring the consciences and inspiring higher and nobler spiritual ideals and aspirations. The beauty of the services is that quiet but pervading power of the spirit that fills them through and through.

Yesterday afternoon was the children's service, and a large gathering of them were there. In the child's language and the child's spirit the preacher told them of the little foxes that slip in where larger ones cannot enter, but work the same destruction, and likening to them the little sins that slip into the lives of more vicious ones would be guarded against. It was a beautiful lesson to old as well as young.

Last night a large congregation participated in the service and drank in the preacher's every word. The appeal to turn away from sin and draw nearer to Christ seemed to touch every heart. Immediately after the night service The Brotherhood of St. John's and St. James' assembled in the Parish House, where refreshments were served by the ladies of the Guild, after which the Archdeacon delivered a splendid address to the members of the Brotherhoods. Like his sermons, it was full of sound practical counsel, that cannot but make stronger and better workers of all who heard him.

Tonight's service will be at 8 o'clock as usual, with sermon on "Eight Glories of Christianity." To-morrow there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. as usual. Thanksgiving service and sermon at 11 o'clock. There will be no afternoon service, but to-morrow night at 8 o'clock will be service and sermon, to which all are invited. Tomorrow's services bring this splendid mission to a close, and all who can do so will attend every service and enjoy the uplift they are sure to give.
