THREE NEGRO GIRLS

Were Arrested This Morning Charged With Shop-Lifting—They Were Caught in the Act of Stealing Laces From the Department Stores of Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Co.

Mary Robinson, Viola Johnson and Geneva Bell, three negro girls, were arrested at noon today on the charge of shop-lifting, and with their arrests it is believed that apprehensions have been made which may put to an end a series of petty larcenies in various stores in the city covering a period of several months. The negro girls were arrested in the department stores of Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Company on North Fourth street. They were detected in the act of stealing goods from the counters. The women were carried to the police station. They will be held until tomorrow when an investigation will be had in the Recorder's court.

Mr. Rehder is confident that the women have been engaged in larcenies several times before at his store. This morning there was a large crowd of shoppers in the establishment. The three negro girls were noticed standing near one of the counters. One of the salesladies saw one of the girls stealthily take a piece of lace from the counter and conceal the same beneath her coat. The three girls were accosted and immediately ran from the store. They were soon caught, however, and then sent to the police station.

Mr. Rehder went before Recorder Furlong and had warrants issued for the right to search the homes of the girls. It is believed that they have been engaged in a systematic campaign of robberies and that their arrests will result in important disclosures relative to many instances of shop-lifting during recent months.

HARD ON TENT SHOWS.

Rainy Weather Compels Nathan Bros' Railroad Shows to "Lay Off."

Messrs. Marx and Joe Nathan, manager and treasurer, respectively, of Nathan Bros' Railroad Shows, reached Wilmington Saturday night, the paraphernalia of the shows came in yesterday, and the shows will "lay off" here—their home city—for some time, such a "lay-off" being necessary on account of the weather. For the past four weeks it has been rain, rain, and, of course, tent shows always suffer. In fact, this is the bugaboo of the canvas show. So after fighting it out for about a month Manager Marx Nathan deemed it best to "lay off" for a short time, and wait for the clouds to roll by. Hence, due notice was given and the shows closed temporarily last Friday in Virginia.

"But for the rain," said Manager Nathan this morning, "we would have had a big season. Artistically it was a big triumph (and he exhibited a long string of press notices), and financially it was all right, but there is such a thing as holding on too long. So, after bucking the rain for days, I took my cue, to 'lay off' for a few weeks, instead of being 'laid off' for good, as have already a number of tent shows, whose managers thought themselves so wise they could beat the elements."

MR. HENRY K. NASH HURT.

MR. H. E. BONITZ

Had Two Fingers Badly Hurt Yesterday at Wrightsville Beach.

City Building Inspector H. E. Bonitz was painfully hurt yesterday at Wrightsville Beach as a result of which he has a badly damaged finger on each of his hands. Mr. Bonitz was inspecting the pumping station machinery at the Hammocks when the accident occurred. The machinery was not performing satisfactory service and Mr. Bonitz was inspecting the engine to discover the trouble. In some manner his fingers were caught in a part of the mechanism. One finger was broken and the other was badly dislocated. Mr. Bonitz had his injuries attended to soon after the accident. His friends will hope that he will be inconvenienced only a short time as a result of the accident.

(Communicated.)

Is there any evidence that the end is near? If so, what is it? In view of the world wide Laymen's Movement to evangelize the world during this generation this subject will be discussed at the Advent Christian Church, Sixth and Church streets, Tuesday night by six different brethren, each speaking ten minutes. Come, and hear their evidences and form your own conclusions.

Hinton, on the Castle Hayne road. The peaches were as large as oranges, of a beautiful red and yellow color—and soft and sweet? Well, they were some peaches.

GROCCERS ASSO'N SUED

Mr. F. E. Hashagen, of This City, is a Vice President of the Association—He is One of the Defendants to the Suit—Action Has Been Filed Against the Association at Birmingham, Ala.

The United States government has instituted action at Birmingham, Ala., to dissolve the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association. The case is attracting wide attention among grocers throughout the South. The Association recently held its annual meeting and Mr. F. E. Hashagen, of this city, was elected one of the vice presidents. In the suit brought by the government Mr. Hashagen as one of the officers of the Association, is made one of the defendants to the action.

On account of the fact that practically all the wholesale grocers and jobbers in Wilmington are members of the Association, considerable interest will attach to the termination of the action as brought by the government.

The action of the government is taken as a result of a private legal action. This was brought by a grocer against Mr. Van Hoose, of Birmingham, Ala., the former president of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association. From the points involved the matter it seems that the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association issues what is called a Blue Book. This book is sent to manufacturers in the north. Only the firm names contained therein are recommended as being eligible for jobbers' discounts in the purchase of large orders. It seems that a prominent Alabama grocer placed an order with a northern manufacturing firm for groceries. He was informed that his name was not in the Blue Book and that he could not be favored with the regular discounts. This party is then said to have applied to Mr. Van Hoose to have his name inserted in the Blue Book. The retired president of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association is said to have refused to insert the name of the party as requested. Suit was then brought by this man against Mr. Van Hoose. Damages in the sum of $50, were sought. The matter was compromised out of court upon the payment by Mr. Van Hoose, it is stated, of $10,000.

Following the adjustment of the private suit the government became active and now promises to give the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association a warm fight in the attempt to dissolve the corporation. The government alleges that the compromise makes the Association an illegal body, formed in restraint of trade. Therefore the suit has been brought to dissolve the Association.

The suit by the government has been filed at Birmingham and the Association, as well as the officers, are made defendants. The termination of the action will be awaited with interest by the Wilmington wholesale houses, practically all of which are enrolled in the Association.

AT THE BIJOU.

The feature film at the popular Bijou Theatre today is called "The Common Enemy." This is a most interesting picture and it will please the patrons of the theatre.
