What is known as the London property, on the northeast corner of Third and Chestnut streets, changed hands today. Three Wilmingtonians, Messrs. H. F. Wilder, H. G. Smallbones and J. W. Freeman, were the purchasers, obtaining the property from the London estate, and about $15,000 was paid for the property. The site is considered one of the most valuable and attractive in the city, being large and prominently situated. It has a frontage of 90 feet on Chestnut street and runs back 170 feet north on Third. The property was sold at public auction once before, but the bid was not confirmed. However, this sale has been consummated and the deal will likely be recorded at the court house today.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Several Cases of Interest Were Investigated Today—White Man Charged With Assault on a Negro Woman—The Latter is Charged With Assault With a Deadly Weapon.

This case was left open until Monday. A warrant was issued against the Lovett woman. She is charged with an assault with a deadly weapon on the above mentioned defendant. This case was postponed until Monday.

The Recorder also rendered a decision today in the charge against Sarah Jane Russ, the negro woman who was tried yesterday charged with keeping a disorderly place. COL. W. J. GREEN PASSES AWAY

Death of Prominent Cumberland Citizen

Died Last Night at His Late Residence in Fayetteville—He Was the Father of Mrs. George B. Elliott, of This City, and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, of New York—Funeral Will Be Held Tomorrow.

Friends in Wilmington will sincerely regret to learn of the death of Col. Wharton J. Green, one of Fayetteville's most prominent citizens, who passed away at his home there last night. Col. Green had been ill less than two weeks. His demise therefore came as a great shock to the members of his family as well as to his wide circle of friends. The deceased is survived by his wife and two children, these being Mrs. George B. Elliott, of Wilmington, and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, of New York. The sympathy of friends here and at other places will be tendered the stricken wife and daughters in their bereavement.

Col. Green was 79 years of age. He spent the greater part of his life at Fayetteville. Col. Green was an extensive land owner and he formerly engaged in planting.

Col. Green was here about two weeks ago for a short visit to his daughter. He returned to his home and within a day or two thereafter became ill. His advanced years probably rendered him unable to withstand the ravages of sickness and he continued to sink rapidly until the end came last night.

Col. Green was a very prominent citizen of the upper Cape Fear section. He was a former Congressman, having represented his district in the legislative halls.

Mrs. Elliott left this morning for Fayetteville in response to a telegram announcing the death of her father. The funeral over the remains of Col. Green will probably be held tomorrow at Fayetteville.

Trips to Fort Caswell.

Two trips will be made to Fort Caswell tomorrow by the steamer Wilmington so that friends here may have an opportunity to visit the members of the Wilmington Light Infantry in camp at the Fort. The boat will leave the Market street dock at 9:15 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. The fare for the round trip will be 50 cents. The fare for the trip to Carolina Beach and return will be 25 cents.

RESIDENCE PLANNED.

Drawings Completed for Very Handsome Home Which President T. M. Emerson, of the Atlantic Coast Line, Contemplates Erecting at Carolina Heights.

Mr. J. F. Lettner, the well known architect of Wilmington, has prepared plans for a very handsome residence which President T. M. Emerson, of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, contemplates erecting at Carolina Heights. Drawings of the proposed residence have been finished. These give illustrations of what will be one of the finest residences in Wilmington. The drawings reveal a pleasing brick residence several stories in height, with quite a large number of rooms. The structure will be of commanding appearance and will be a great addition to the section of the city in which it is to be erected. It is stated that work will be started on the house in the fall and that several months will be required for its completion.

Life of a Star.

Will be seen at Joyland today. This picture is instructive as well as interesting, giving the details of an actress' life. It shows many pictures "behind the scenes" of which the public know little. There will also be a modern western picture, "Nannima." Mr. E. J. Reilly will sing one of Wetmar's latest song hits, "The Your Little Bull Outside." Come and see this big performance but don't forget to "The Your Little Bull Outside" of Joyland.

Athletic Events.

The series of athletic events at Lumina, mentioned recently in The Dispatch, is scheduled for this afternoon at Lumina. There are a number of entries and much interest is being manifested by those who will participate.

Special Saturday program at Joyland today.

50c Straw Hats 19c. Gaylord's forced sale.

Concord Tribune.

F. F. Pierce, a pedestrian walking from New York to Atlanta over the National Highway, arrived in the city this morning and spent several hours here. Pierce came through the city several weeks ago walking from Atlanta to New York and is now on the return trip. He made the trip in seven weeks, a distance of 1,100 miles, making the total distance covered by him when he reaches Atlanta, 2,200 miles. He is not allowed any funds and does not carry any baggage. He is now eleven days ahead of his schedule and is taking things easy. Pierce expects to reach Atlanta by the first of September.

COOKING EVENTS

Housewives of Wilmington Looking Eagerly Forward to Chance to be Afforded Them by the Tidewater Power Company Next Week—Large and Modern Gas Range to be Given Away.

The cooking demonstration, by the quick and convenient gas route, which the Tidewater Power Company has planned to give the housewives of Wilmington the benefit of, will commence Monday. The demonstration will be one of the most profitable and, no doubt, one of the most profitable the ladies of the city have ever had the opportunity of witnessing and the Tidewater has made big preparations for the event. The entire mammoth lower floor of the handsome Woolvin building, on Princess street, has been fitted up especially for the demonstration. It has been equipped not only expressly for a clear and fine demonstration, but also so as to furnish ease and comfort for those who attend. Twelve lectures will be given by Mrs. J. M. Whitted, of Durham, an expert who travels the country over. For the first three days, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the lectures will be given at 10:30 o'clock in the mornings and at 4:30 in the afternoons, and during the last three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the time will be at 4:30 and 8:30 p. m. daily. Each lecture will last from an hour to an hour and thirty minutes, and will be most entertaining, as well as instructive.

A word about the manner of presentation is not amiss. The large lower floor of the Woolvin building has been fitted up in sort of auditorium style. At one end has been erected a platform, which is equipped with gas ranges and all utensils that go to make up a model kitchen, and in front of the stage have been placed comfortable chairs for those who attend, and by the way, the entire public is given a cordial invitation to attend. Mrs. Whitted will lecture from the stage and will make practical demonstrations in cooking, showing just how food should be prepared and how to use gas economically. She will treat her subject scientifically.

Various types of the gas range will be on exhibition at different points on the floor, and a feature of the week is that one of the large size and best gas ranges is to be made a present to some lucky person who attends the demonstrations. The manner of procedure will be fully explained at the demonstrations.

Week after next, following the public events, Mrs. Whitted will give home lectures and demonstrations.

AT THE BIJOU.

The feature film at the popular Bijou Theatre today is called "Out of the Past." This is a most interesting picture and it will please the patrons of the theatre.

A skilled veterinary horse-shoer has been engaged and will be in charge of the new department.

Gun Club Tournament.

The regular weekly shoot of the Wilmington Gun Club was held yesterday afternoon at the traps east of the city. The winner of the tournament was Mr. R. G. Stokley, who made 49 out of a possible 50.
