GUARDIAN APPOINTED

For Mr. H. Pridden Until He Recovers From an Acute Attack of Nervousness—He Has on Deposit in the Southern National Bank, Nearly $4,000—President C. N. Evans of the Bank Appointed as Guardian.

A hearing was had before Col. John D. Taylor, clerk of the Superior Court today, in a petition for the appointment of a guardian for Mr. Henry Pridden, recently of California, to handle his funds pending his recovery from acute nervousness. Following the investigation, President C. N. Evans of the Southern National bank (where Pridden has about $4,000 on deposit) was appointed as guardian. The hearing was had before a jury of twelve men. Mr. Pridden stated before the jury that he wished to have a guardian appointed to care for his money until he has fully recovered his accustomed strength and vigor. Following this statement, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the appointment of a guardian. Arrangements will be made to have Mr. Pridden receive proper care and attention at a sanitarium.

The jury was summoned this morning by Sheriff S. P. Cowan under special proceedings. The jury was composed of Messrs. G. W. Chesnut, T. H. Wright, W. H. Howell, Fred W. Bonitz, George Harriss, Harvey Cox, Marsden Bellamy, Norwood Orrell, J. O. Reilly, Michael Cronly, James F. Woolvin, and C. R. Davis.

Several days ago Mr. Pridden arrived in the city from California. He made a deposit of $3,800 with the Southern National Bank. The money was deposited in the form of checks on New York banks. Mr. Pridden informed the bank officials at the time that he was afraid some people in California, from which state he had just arrived, might try to have him prosecuted and blackmail him under certain charges. He asked President C. N. of the Southern Bank to direct him to a lawyer. He interviewed George Rountree, Esq., As Mr. Evans saw that Mr. Pridden was laboring under considerable mental excitement he thought it best to call the matter to the attention of the Clerk of the Superior court so that a guardian for Mr. Pridden might be appointed pending his complete recovery from his nervous attack. Mr. Pridden appeared before jury today. He stated that he realized that he is in an extremely nervous condition. He said he needed rest from the excitement under which he has been laboring for some time past. He asked for the appointment of some one to care for his money until he fully recovers. He stated that he had been employed on a ranch in California and that he thought a foreman there had preferred certain charges against him. Mr. Pridden stated that he had lived in the west for twenty years and that he originally came from Bladen county. It is believed that it will be a matter of only a short time until he is fully recovered from the nervousness under which he is laboring at present.

Mr. Pridden fully concurred in the appointment of a guardian for himself. He said that he appreciated the interest which prompted the bank to take action which would keep intact the money he had saved until he has sufficiently recovered to transact his business affairs.

Mr. Pridden left this afternoon for a sanitarium at Morganton where he will receive treatment for nervousness. He was accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox. In the meantime President Evans, of the Southern National Bank, will look after Mr. Pridden's business matters.

THEATRE

On Saturday matinee and night at the Academy we are to have "Buster Brown" and a bevy of attendant girls in a big new edition of the play. Master Harold, who plays "Buster" has fully demonstrated that he is the right little comique in the exact spot, for he is so immersed in and imbued with the spirit of Mr. Outcalt's character that those who have seen him declare he is not playing a part, that he is the typical "Buster" himself. New and elaborate scenery and costumes, together with all new music, grace and production this season.

Big Band Coming.

A rare treat is promised the music lovers of Wilmington in the event of the appearance here of Creator and his Band. Signor Creator and his artistic organization are meeting with their usual overwhelming success while on tour, and the band is being received with more enthusiasm than ever. The tour of New England will be a short one, only the principal cities being visited. A programme of exceptional merit will be rendered here on the night of January 26th.

At the Grand.

The weather was bad yesterday, but business was good, at Solky's "Theatre Beautiful." The performances were also good, of course. The inclement weather could not keep the people away from such an attractive place and those who attended were immensely pleased, as usual. For today the Grand has on taps another big bill. Three reels of the very latest moving pictures will be presented, including such noted subjects as "Doctor Cupid," "The Gardner's Ladder" and "Big Elk's Turn Down." Mr. Harry Morgan will be heard in another delightful illustrated song, "Flippety Flop" which is a big and merry novelty. The orchestra has another splendid program for presentation. The feature will be the famed "Sextet from Lucia," and the superb orchestra will render it in most artistic manner.

The film, "Doctor Cupid," is a dandy. It is bound to tickle the girths. It shows how wonderful a thing is love and what a daring, freaky kind of an individual is "Doc. Cupid." It is one of those pictures that will make your ribs ache from laughing.

At The Bijou.

Regardless of the blustering weather of yesterday the Bijou did splendid business. Its new order, of presenting three reels of the very latest films and an illustrated song, and not advancing the price, allowing it to remain at the same old 5-cent piece, was received with much gratification by Bijou devotees. Today the three reels of films will be "The Two Brothers," "The Yaqui Girl" and "Doctor Cupid." In this triple combination will be found beautiful scenery, fiery romance, stirring action and fun by the barrel. Doctor Cupid" will furnish a laugh with every turn of the crank of the moving picture machine.

"The Two Brothers" is another Biograph film, which alone attests as to its high merit. It is very romantic, unfolding a plot of heart interest.

"The Yaqui Girl" is another of dramatic intensity and is decidedly novel in plot and picturesque in scenery, as the scenes are laid in Mexico.

The film gives some interesting pictures of the Mexican country. The love of a Yaqui girl for a handsome, dashing young Mexican troubadour, who cares for a dusky skinned, black eyed Mexican maiden, is vividly told. The troubadour turns out to be a bandit and the climax that follows is

Baldhead Club

One is Being Organized in a Western City.

Perhaps this report is a joke, but one thing is certain a baldhead is no joke to the man who wears it.

A club of baldheads formed in every city in America would be a good thing if its members could be induced to parade hatless, through the main streets of the city.

The writer would suggest that some of the members carry banners with inscriptions of such a character as to warn those who still have hair, that baldness is unnecessary; that in nearly every case it is the result of carelessness.

Banners inscribed as follows would be appropriate:

"We'll let the dandruff germ do it."
 "The time to save the hair is when you have hair to save."
 "When we were young, the dandruff germs worked every blessed minute. They dug our hair out by the roots, and now we aren't in it."
 The best banner of all would be this, "We didn't use Parisian Sage."
 R. R. Bellamy sells Parisian Sage for 50 cents a large bottle, so do live druggists everywhere. It is guaranteed to stop falling hair, itching scalp, and to destroy dandruff germs and remove dandruff in two weeks, or money back.
