THEATRE

Its a great, big bill the Bijou is offering today. It is headed by a horse racing film that attractively fits into the spirit being manifested in Wilmington at present.

The music for today is decidedly catchy and bright, Mr. Frank Banks having a superb song hit for his host of admirers. Of course, the Bijou will be comfortable and cool. It always is and the people of Wilmington appreciate such to the fullest.

The Grand is without a doubt the coolest spot in the city, and to prove it come and spend a while. Doors open at 2 P. M.

276 MACKEREL

Were Caught By Two Guests of Oceanic Hotel This Morning.

Messrs. F. E. Evans, and D. A. Bessett, representatives of Morris & Co., of Chicago, Ill., who are spending a few days vacation at the splendid Oceanic Hotel in Wrightsville Beach were fortunate in securing a splendid catch of fine fish this morning.

They went out to the fishing grounds, a mile or two in the ocean, in the gasoline launch, Bridgeport, Captain Dolph Styron, and with Navigator E. G. Gilligan at the helm. The two ardent disciples of Izax Walton remained on the trip only an hour or two. In that short space of time they succeeded in catching 276 fine Spanish mackerel.

When they had secured this number the fishermen concluded they had had sufficient sport for one day. They then returned to the hotel where their prowess as fishermen was demonstrated by the fine lot of fish. The mackerel were viewed by many of the hotel guests and the display caused many to resolve that they will be numbered among the fishing parties of the next few days.

Dickens at the Airdome.

The famous pathetic "Old Curiosity Shop," a splendid production by the Thanhouser Co., is the feature film at the Airdome this evening.

The picture was booked for this week and has just arrived to be shown today only; the photographic work is splendid, the curio shop scene and the final church scene being especially well set and effective, so good as to add to the story's beauty.

The young actress playing the part of "Little Nell" is the same charming little girl who appeared in one of last evening's pictures, and does full justice to her part. The entire photo-play is one of the best classics that has been reproduced and will certainly be a crowd drawer tonight. Several comedies will be shown: "Mr. Nearsight's Manager," a scream from start to finish, and "A Strike in the Make Young Business," an exceptional novelty comedy, will produce abundance of laughter, while a clever dramatic picture will give the program the usual variety shown at each performance of the Airdome.

Mr. Pfeffer, the new orchestra leader, has selected especially appropriate music for the "Curiosity Shop" picture, and many new lively numbers for the other pictures.

"I'm Going to Take the Train for Home Sweet Home," a popular march song, will be sung by Mr. Kelley, with illustrative slides, and the quartet will render in their ever pleasing harmony, "Dreams," "Just Dreams," "Don't forget the Airdome is wide open and has entirely free ventilation, a good breeze continually, and shows from 7:30 to 11:30.
