THEATRE

The Bijou will today not only offer one of the biggest and best bills ever seen in Wilmington, or anywhere else, but will present an extra and very striking feature in a film that will teach a big lesson. It will be motion pictures showing the life and habits of the filthy fly. This picture is approved by health authorities and will do much in the warfare being waged in this city upon the pest. The film shows up in vivid manner just how the fly lives and what injury it is capable of spreading. Every person who can should see this film, as it will instruct and benefit every one.

This is only an extra feature of today's big Bijou film, as three reels of the latest and greatest pictures will be offered, together with a swell musical program, in which Mr. Frank Banks will present one of Broadway's latest successes.

One of the big film masterpieces on today's Bijou bill is "Musing Pete's Love Affair," and its a scream. The way which rival hotel keepers in a western mining camp hit upon to attract boarders and "Mustang Pete's" love make-up a novel plot, and one for love purposes only.

In marked contrast to this film is another big one, "The Old Folks' Sacrifice." This is one in which tenderness breathes at every turn of the moving picture wheel. It tells of the devotion of grand-parents for a wayward grandson, who finally gets into prison and the noble sacrifice they make for him.

So today is going to be a big one at the Bijou, and the popular theatre is the popular theatre ishrdrtacomsfois going to be delightfully cool. Its the place of "solid comfort" in hot weather.

At the Grand Today.

Of course, there is something new and superb on at the Grand Theatre today, and the big bill is, of course, headed by the brilliant soprano and noted operatic star, Mrs. Frank Pearson, who will render today the greatest number it has ever been the pleasure of Wilmington people to hear. Mrs. Pearson at each performance today, afternoon and night at the Grand, will present Mario Cahill's greatest triumph, "The Arab Love Song." Music-lovers cannot afford to miss hearing this big number, presented in the inimitable manner so magnificently peculiar to Mrs. Pearson, who is taking Wilmington by storm and packing the popular theatre every night.

The orchestra has an exceptionally clever program for today, embracing some of the merriest and biggest hits. The Grand's picture bill for today is one of the best ever presented. It is filled with just the nicest kind of pictures, of snappy nature, but always wholesome.

Two big laugh-films are on today, and "Love and Cheese" is one of the most exorcisingly mirthful creations ever put forth to delight people and brighten their lives. Max goes to call on his girl, but the maid of the house, who is in love with Max, previously conceals a ripe piece of limberger in his coat. The consternation he innocently causes, the cheese even chasing away two policemen, who try to arrest him, is a whopping big howl. "Reckless Reddy Reforms" is another, smile forcer, and it is of the brightest nature. The way a demure little woman reforms the reckless one is both ingenious and of the hearty laugh nature.

The Grand is always a cool place; also decidedly comfortable in every other way.

OUR WANTS.

A great number of our wants are special wants of the imagination. We want them simply because we think that we want them. They give us no enjoyment when we obtain them. The want of them is only known by a feeling that we are without them.

Poor Cupid.

"Pa, what's in that little thing the artists always put on Cupid's back? Is that where he carries his arrows?" "It used to be supposed that he had arrows there, but in these days he usually carries a divorce decree in his quiver."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Downward Course

Fast Being Realized By Wilmington People.

A little backache at first. Daily increasing till the back is lame and weak.

Urinary disorders quickly follow. Diabetes and finally Bright's disease. This is the downward course of kidney filis.

Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a Wilmington citizen.

Miss Maggie Rivenbark, 105 Dock St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "You are welcome to continue the use of my former public endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills, for they gave me lasting benefit. I value this remedy highly in return for what it did for me. There was a constant dull pain in the small of my back and some days I could hardly get about the house. The kidney secretions bothered me and I had but little strength or energy. I used several tonics and remedies, but nothing gave me relief until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills which were procured at Bellamy's Drug Store. They proved to be just what I required and it did not take them long to make me well."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

GOLE IN THE SOUTH.

The Game Was Played in Charleston as Early as 1788.

Golf was played in Charleston as far back as 1788. In the City Gazette or Daily Advertiser of Sept. 27, 1791, appears the following notice:

"Anniversary of the South Carolina Golf club will be held at Williams' coffee house on Thursday, 28th inst., when members are requested to attend at 2 o'clock precisely, that the business of the club may be transacted before dinner."

For several years following may be found entries for the anniversary meetings to be held at "the clubhouse on Harrison's green," a tract of land south of Boundary (now Calhoun) street, between the present Coling and Rutledge streets.

The fact that it was the anniversary meeting in 1791 would show that the club had been organized before that date, but unfortunately the file of newspapers in the Charleston library is not complete for some years just prior, and one finds no earlier notices of meetings or mention of the club. But in the same journal of Sept. 18, 1788, there is an advertisement of an auction sale of a farm on Charleston Neck, between three and four miles from the city, adjoining Cochran's shippard, bounding in part on Shipyard creek, which, after describing the different items of property included in the sale, states that "there is lately erected that pleasing and genteel amusement, the golf baan." This certainly indicates that golf was one of the local amusements of that day.

The word "baan" (English-Dutch dictionary) means path, walk, way, etc., and golf, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica, is derived from the Dutch "kolf," a club, and the game is doubtless of Dutch origin and introduced into Scotland about 1450.—Charleston News and Courier.

RIGHT ON THE JOB.

He Didn't Believe in Letting the Place Seek the Man.

A little story of success starting with the use of want ads. is contained in Business and the Bookkeeper. A Minneapolis manufacturer explains his liking for men who, even if they lack certain important qualities, have "initiative and originality."

The manufacturer, who at the time of their friends. The party left the wharves at the Oceanic's grounds at 10 p. m. in the power boat Hornet and went to Shell Island several miles distant where a nice supper was served on the sands and the novelty of the event made it all the more enjoyable. Several hours were spent very pleasantly. The return trip to the hotel shortly after midnight marked the conclusion of an enjoyable evening. Those who were invited by the two gentlemen as their guests for the occasion were loud in their praises of the clever and hospitable spirit of the hosts.

Among those invited to participate in the outing were the following: Mrs. J. H. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mrs. Gorman, Mrs. Rex Stafford, Mrs. L. B. Sams, Mrs. John Evans, all of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. H. O. Miller, Mrs. M. M. Murphy, of Charlotte; Mrs. Phil G. Cox, Asheville, N. C.; Miss Kate Montgomery, Marion, S. FASHIONS

New York, July 13.—This handsome set of shirred chiffon is a recent importation for the use of the summer girl. It consists of a fine straw hat trimmed with shirred chiffon and flowers of a delicate heliotrope hue. The shoulder cape of chiffon is shirred over heavy silken cords. It is intended more for ornament than use. A shirred reticule of chiffon also accompanies the set. The tiny heliotrope flowers adorn both cape and reticule.

MOON LIGHT SAIL

Given By Messrs. J. H. Lewis and George Norman.

One of the most delightful events of the social season at the Oceanic Hotel was a moon light boating party given Tuesday night complimentary to a number of their friends by Messrs. J. H. Lewis, of Atlanta, Ga., and Geo. Norman, of the Oceanic. The two gentlemen entertained quite a number of their friends. The party left the wharves at the Oceanic's grounds at 10 p. m. in the power boat Hornet and went to Shell Island several miles distant where a nice supper was served on the sands and the novelty of the event made it all the more enjoyable. Several hours were spent very pleasantly. The return trip to the hotel shortly after midnight marked the conclusion of an enjoyable evening. Those who were invited by the two gentlemen as their guests for the occasion were loud in their praises of the clever and hospitable spirit of the hosts.

Fairly Warned. The other day Mrs. Penhecker's younger sister was married, and a day or two after the wedding the husband said, "Now, darling, I don't believe in bearing malice, and if ever I have any necessity to say anything unkind or to make use of any hard words to you I will always take them back again as soon as I have cooled down."

"You needn't take that trouble, my dear," replied his wife, smiling sweetly, "for if you ever use any hard words to me I'll always give them back to you at once."
