LINES BEING TIGHTLY DRAWN

Taft and Roosevelt, Factions Face Each Other

Bad Blood in Evidence and Hot Fight is Bound to Come—Some of Roosevelt's Strongest Contests Will Come Up Today—Interest Centers in Whether "Strenuous One" Will Go to Chicago or Not.

Chicago, Ill., June 10.—The possibility of the arrival here of Colonel Roosevelt in the next few days furnished the chief topic at both the Roosevelt and Taft headquarters today with the beginning of the final week of the preliminary work for the Republican National convention. The question of such action by Roosevelt and its possible effect upon the pre-convention situation held the foreground to the exclusion of many other matters. Some members asserted that Roosevelt would be here by Wednesday or Thursday. The political colony was augmented today by the arrival of scores of leaders and numerous delegates. The activities in several headquarters increased and the preliminary battle lines between the Roosevelt and Taft's camps were drawn tighter. Representative McKinley, Taft's campaign manager, plunged into the final week's work, asserting that Taft's prospects for domination had been made certain. Although it was not general, there was talk last night of a third candidate, as the only means of settling the Taft-Roosevelt fight. The leaders on both sides scouted such a possibility. The National Committee today had before it contests from Indiana and Kentucky. States Roosevelt made strong charges of unfair dealing in the choice of Taft delegates. It was doubted if the committee would be able to dispose of both States before adjournment.

Postponement of hearing the contest in the Fourth California District brought to a focus the heated conflict between the Taft and Roosevelt factions in the Republican National Committee. The vote of thirty eight to thirteen, by which the postponement was effected on Senator Crane's motion, drew beyond possible doubt the lines between the factions.

Married On Credit.

Manhasset, N. Y., June 10.—Shane Leslie, the leader of the Gaelic league and the "Young Ireland" movement, and Miss Marjorie Ide, daughter of the United States minister to Spain, obtained a marriage license on credit here through the generosity of the town clerk of Manhasset. When the $1 fee was demanded Mr. Leslie could produce only $100 bills and postage stamps. Clerk O'Donnell unable to change one of the big bills, compromised by paying the fee himself and allowing the bridegroom to settle at leisure. The wedding will take place Tuesday at the Manhasset home of Miss Ide's sister, Mrs. Bourke Cockhan.

Mr. Leslie is the son of Col. and Mrs. John Leslie, of Castle Leslie, Ireland, his mother being a New York woman, Leonie Jerome, daughter of Leonard Jerome. He is a cousin of Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty.

SR. DOMICIO DA GAMA

Washington, June 10.—Senator Domicio Da Gama, the Brazilian ambassador to the United States, is extremely bitter in his denunciation of this Government's attitude toward what, it alleges, is a "Brazilian coffee trust." Senator Da Gama made his first attack in a speech at a recent dinner in New York and since his return to this city has supplemented that outburst with several newspaper interviews.

EIGHT SLAIN IN THEIR HOME

Horrible Butchery by Some Unknown Fiend

Two Women and an Entire Family Wiped Out in Iowa—Heads Were Mashed in by Human Brute, and Blood Stained Axe Found at the Scene.

Willisca, Iowa, June 10.—Six members of the family of J. B. Moore, and two women whose identity is unknown to the neighbors, were murdered at the Moore home according to reports that have reached the local authorities. Moore, a prominent merchant, his wife and four children were slain. The other women slain are supposedly Mrs. Vera Gilder and her daughter, relatives of Moore's. Their heads were mashed. An axe, blood covered, was found nearby. All were murdered as they slept. There is no clue to the murderer. A desire for revenge was apparently the murderer's motive. There was no robbery.

YEARS STRUGGLING FOR LIBERTY FUTILE

Washington, D. C., June 10.—The eight years struggle of Frederick A. Hyde and J. H. Schneider to escape imprisonment for alleged conspiracy, to defraud the Government of lands in California and Oregon, has ended in failure, the Supreme Court today finding no error in their conviction in the District of Columbia.

TAR HEEL EMPLOYE ENTITLED TO RECOVER

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Just because a baggage man when injured was in an express car of his train, he is not prevented from recovering from a railroad, under the Federal Employers' Liability law, for his injuries, according to the Supreme Court's decision. The decision is in the case of Ernest W. Duvall, of North Carolina, against the Seaboard Air Line Railroad.

WANT OLLIE JAMES TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

Washington, June 10.—The Champ Clark forces in the National Democratic convention will present the name of Senator-elect Ollie James, of Kentucky, as their candidate for temporary chairman, it was announced today.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS PURE FOOD LAW

Washington, D. C., June 10.—The Iowa pure food law, enacted in 1907 was sustained today as constitutional by the United States Supreme Court.

PYTHIANS TOMORROW

Annual Convention of the State Will be in Session at the Beach. Tomorrow is the opening day for the Pythian convention in this city and already the delegates are arriving. It is estimated that there will be about 250 in the convention. Grand Chancellor McLean will call the meeting to order tomorrow evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Oceanic Hotel. Jos. W. Little, Esq., of the local bar, will make the opening address, welcoming the visitors. The response will be made by Hon. A. A. Whitener, of Hickory. Upon the conclusion of this address, the convention will go into secret session, and non-members will be invited to retire. The Knights will be located in the city and at the beach during their brief sojourn here. The city will bid them welcome, and will entertain them hospitably for the time of their visit.

At the Sunday School of the Brooklyn Baptist Church yesterday, when Children's Day exercises were held, probably the largest crowd ever in the church, there certainly has been no larger, witnesses them. Many were turned away because there was no room. A most enjoyable program was rendered and was thoroughly appreciated by the large attendance.

Chicago, June 10.—A large number of men prominent in the councils of the Republican party are already gathered here in anticipation of the National convention, which meets on June 18th. The reason for their presence thus early is found in the daily sessions now being held by the National committee to determine contests. The cut shows, from left to right, D. W. Mulvane of Kansas, H. S. Chubb of Florida, Cecil Lyon of Texas and A. M. Stevenson of Colorado. The first three named are the National committeemen for their respective States.

USED "STEAM ROLLER"

Governor Kitchin Makes Sharp Comment Upon Paradoxical and Pointed Action of Simmons Men in State Convention—He Will Appeal to the People.

Special to The Dispatch. Raleigh, N. C., June 10.—When Governor Kitchin was asked if the "Simmons endorsement" would cause him to discontinue his discussion of the record of Senator Simmons, he replied:

"It certainly will not. It only justifies the course I have pursued and emphasizes the necessity of its continuance. If the purpose of the so-called Simmons endorsement was to prevent Democrats from discussing his record, it is equivalent to a confession from his friends that it cannot stand discussion. I shall continue to promote sound and progressive Democracy, and discuss the actions of Senator Simmons, showing his departure from its principles and policies. His friends recognized the truth of my statement that the record of Senator Simmons cannot be upheld without repudiating the record and the principles of the Democratic party on which we hope to elect a Democratic President this year, for the convention which was organized by his friends voted down an endorsement of the record of the Democratic party in National affairs. If his friends had considered his record in harmony with that of the party they would doubtless have incorporated in the platform an endorsement of the party's record in Congress, especially as we have the House for the first time in sixteen years. Recognizing that an endorsement of the record of the party in National matters would not be an endorsement of Senator Simmons, his friends without daring to boldly endorse his violation of our platform, his speech in support of Lorimer, his repeated votes and speeches for protective tariff rates, his repudiation of many sound doctrines he preached to our people from 1902 to the election of 1908 for which transgression thousands of Democrats oppose him, included his record without mentioning his name in a general endorsement of the record of our Senators and Representatives in the United States Congress. This of course secured the support of many who would not have endorsed the record of Senator Simmons specifically. As the actions of our other Senator and members of the House were frequently at variance with his, such general endorsement by a Democratic convention applies to those actions which are in accord with Democratic principles, policies and platform, and does not apply to any of his actions when his colleague or member of the House, whose records are endorsed in the same sentence, acted on the same matters when they disagreed with Senator Simmons.

CREW OF BIG FRENCH LINER ON STRIKE

Havre, France, June 10.—The crew of the French liner, French five hundred and fifty firemen and trimmers, together with five hundred other seamen, have voted a general strike here. The men left the vessel as she was about to sail for New York. A wage increase is demanded.

Son of Rich Man a Vagrant.

New York, June 10.—Wallace B. Bruce, the 18 year old son of a wealthy lumber merchant of Pennsylvania, Fla., was arraigned in police court here Saturday and held for 48 hours as a vagrant to permit relatives in the south to come here and claim him if they care to do so. Young Bruce's arrest which occurred aboard the schooner Melbourne R. Smith upon which he had sailed from his home, followed the receipt here of a telegram from the boy's father and the mayor of Fernandina, Fla., asking that he be detained. Bruce declared he was unwilling to remain here.

however general in its terms, or contradictory in its effect. The Senatorial contest having been committed to the people I shall appeal to them to repudiate steam roller methods in trying to repress the issues involved in the contest. The Democratic masses control the destiny of the party and on primary day each of them whether he attended the convention or not, can cast an equal ballot with the most astute politician. The partisan action of the friends of Senator Simmons in the convention has made my nomination more certain than ever as the people will resent their refusal to endorse the record of the Democratic party solely in the interest of the Senator's candidacy. The party's interests are and should be preferred to that of any candidate; the party's record should be preferred to that of any individual, and when they deliberately refused to endorse the party's record they put the interest of one candidate before that of the whole party."

WYATT MONUMENT

Unveiled Today in Raleigh With Beautiful Ceremony—Major E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, Delivered the Address. Monument to First Confederate Soldier Killed.

Dispatch News Bureau. Raleigh, N. C., June 10, 1912. Master W. Henry Wyatt, of Richmond, Va., a nephew of Henry L. Wyatt, who was the first soldier killed in the war between the sections, today drew the chord and veil from the monument of his uncle and caused to be exhibited to hundreds of persons a bronze likeness of this soldier. The exercises were held in capitol square at noon, Major E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, delivering the address. General Julian S. Carr, of Durham, headed the marshals and parade from the county courthouse. Wyatt was killed 51 years ago today at Bethel, Va. He was a native of Petersburg, but had moved to North Carolina and enlisted with the Edgecombe guards, which, with several other military organizations, attended the unveiling today.

A. W. Baker has been elected member of the board of alderman to succeed John A. Mills who resigned to accept a vacancy on the board of county commissioners.

STRIKE SEEMS TO BE ONE OF ENDURANCE

Boston, June 10.—The strike of several thousand employes on the Boston Elevated Railway for increased wages and recognition of the Union has resolved itself into a question of endurance. There was partial resumption of car service this morning on the elevated, surface and tunnel lines. Both sides profess confidence in the outcome of the struggle.

GERMAN TARS HAVING BIG TIME IN GOTHAM

New York, June 10.—Jingling the city's keys in their pockets the sailors from the visiting German cruisers, Moltke, Stettin and Bremen, now anchored in the Hudson, swarmed ashore today for their second round of festivity in New York. They have free transportation on all the city's transit lines and they were quick to take advantage of the opportunity thus afforded to see points of interest. Tonight 750 of the visitors, with as many Yankee tars, will be entertained by the Deutscher Kriegerbund, at Suizer's Harlem Park.

STRIKE SEEMS TO BE ONE OF ENDURANCE

Washington, June 10.—President Taft returned at noon from Hampton, Va. He left the yacht Maykower at the Navy Yard and drove to the White House, where later the Cuban situation reports were placed before him.

MARINES ARE READY TO LAND

United States Has Warships at Havana

Steamed There This Morning Under Sealed Orders and General Opinion in Cuba Seems to be That Intervention is Near—Insurgents Attacked Americans Guarding Mines.

Washington, June 10.—American marines were available for service in Havana before noon today. The cruiser Washington and the battleship Rhode Island, which steamed out of Key West early this morning, under orders from Washington last night, required six hours to run across the Florida straits to Havana. The marines aboard the vessels will be landed in Havana only in case of dire emergency. The gravity with which the Government regards the situation is indicated by Rear Admiral Osterhaus being aboard his flagship, to observe conditions in Havana first hand. The remainder of the Third Division of the Atlantic Fleet remains at Key West and can join the flagship in a few hours. The First Division of the fleet, the Massachusetts, Utah, North Dakota, Florida and Delaware, leave Annapolis today, with midshipmen aboard. While their destination is Cape Cod, there is no assurance that the Navy Department may not order those ships to join those near Cuba at any moment. The Speaker of the Cuban House of Representatives, conferred today with the Secretary, when the situation was thoroughly canvassed. The speaker was uncommunicative about his mission. Events of the present week probably will decide if the military force of five thousand men now awaiting to move to Cuba, shall be ordered on.

Key West, Fla., June 10.—The battleship Rhode Island and the cruiser Washington, left the harbor at 8 o'clock this morning, presumably for Havana. They were under sealed orders. Rear Admiral Osterhaus, commanding the Third Division of the Atlantic Fleet, was aboard the Washington, the flagship.

The collier Mars followed the Rhode Island and Washington just before noon. She may be used as a dispatch boat. Threats of resignation by President Gomez as the result of sending American warships to the island are rumored among the Cubans.

Santiago, Cuba, June 10.—A company of United States marines, commanded by Captain Manwaring, engaged in guarding the El Cuero mines, was attacked at 1 o'clock this morning by insurgents, who were repulsed, after considerable firing. There were no casualties among the marines. The insurgents' loss is unknown.

Havans, June 10.—The popular impression here is that the coming of the American ships means speedy intervention by the United States, but the officials, scout the intervention ideas and regard the sending of ships as a friendly act on the part of the United States. All parts of the city were patrolled this morning by detachments of regular troops and militia guards.

DEFINED THE PROSECUTOR

In Justice Ramos' Court This Morning the Prosecutor Failed to Show Up.

In Justice Ramos' court today cases against the following women, charging them with keeping disorderly houses, were called: Maude Martin, Hazel Anderson, am the Allen, Ida Davis, Gussie Greer, Mabel Valentine, Ethel Valentine, Trilix Johnson, Ella Oubourne, Florence Triley, Lucille Valentine, Maggie Bailey, Nannie Jones, Nellie Russell and Hattie Simpson. The charges were preferred by E. H. Krahnke, Jr., and he, as prosecuting witness, failed to appear. The magistrate dismissed the defendants, and taxed the prosecuting witness with the costs. The case was heard in one of the offices of the court house.

BROWN TWINS.....	50.00... 134,965

(Signed) J. D. EDWARDS, E. N. NORFLEET, O. L. BROWN.

June 8th, 1912.

The Baby contest is over and we are sure that there has never been a contest in this section of the State that could ever compare with it in any way. The contestants all worked hard and faithfully and each and every one deserves great praise for the efforts made. Norwood L. Williams, little son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Williams, 816 Chestnut street, who won the first prize and the title of "Most Popular Baby in Wilmington and Vicinity" finished with over seven hundred thousand votes. This is truly remarkable and shows great energy and ambition on the part of his workers. It shows he had a host of friends who would not see him beaten.

Miss Camillea Piner, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Piner, 308 North Ninth street, won the hundred dollars in District No. 1. She was very close to the first prize winner and her standing amply proves that she has a great many friends who did their very best for her.

Miss Sarah Stone Cowan, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cowan, 111 Walnut street, won the third prize of fifty dollars. She is a very popular little miss and her many friends will be pleased to hear of her success.

Master Joseph M. Tilly, little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tilly, 711 Orange street, won the hundred dollars given in District No. 2. He led his district by nearly two hundred thousand votes, which surely proves that Master Joseph has friends who stood by him.

Master Leroy C. Legwin, little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Legwin, 419 South Fifth street, won the fifty dollars given for second prize in his district. His many friends will congratulate him on his success.

Miss Virginia Butler, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Butler, of Lorris, S. C., won the first prize in District No. 3. Miss Virginia was the only baby to be entered from South Carolina and it proves that when those people down that way go after anything they are about as wide awake as their brother "Tar Heels."

The Brown Twins, little sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brown, of East Wilmington, won the fifty dollars in District No. 3 and we must congratulate them especially as they worked against heavy odds.

The Dispatch extends congratulations to the winners for the manner in which they conducted their campaign. We are glad to say that most of those who lost have come forward generously and congratulated the winners. If everyone could win it would not be a contest, and while The Dispatch rejoices with the winners, it
