

LONG AND VIOLENT WRANGLE OVER THE RENEWED HADLEY MOTION

Roosevelt Trying Again to Kick Ninety Two Delegates From the Roll Call--Vote On Question Hardly Before Late This Afternoon--Nomination of President Yet Many Hours Off

With interest intense the Republican National Convention this afternoon was in the midst of a three hours' argument on Governor Hadley's motion to "purge" the temporary roll of ninety-two delegates nominated by the Roosevelt faction, but seated by the National Committee. It seems likely the debate and vote on the question would last all the afternoon.

Chicago, June 19.—The second day of the Republican National Convention opened with ten hours' stubborn fighting ahead and the outcome of the contest for the Presidential nomination no nearer the eye than yesterday. Four major possibilities loomed up in the foreground. These were: Renomination of Taft; nomination of Roosevelt; nomination of a third candidate, and the possibility of second or double convention. Scores of men could be found in the convention crowds who would back any one of these possibilities with cash. Taft, Roosevelt, and a third candidate partisans each claimed a strategic advantage as the result of yesterday's selection of Elmer Root for temporary chairman. It was wonderful, the opportunity for political prophets who wandered in this maze of chance. The vote of 558 to 502, by which Root was chosen over McGovern, was construed in so many ways that the average mind became confused and finally rejected all forecasts. One thing seemed certain as time of reassembling of the delegates at 11 o'clock approached. That was that Governor Hadley would take up the fight for the Roosevelt forces by renewing his motion to strike from the temporary roll of the convention, as prepared by the National Committee, the names of ninety-two Taft delegates, seated in the contested cases, and substitute those of the Roosevelt cases.

Plans Counter Move.

The Taft leaders will move to refer Governor Hadley's "expurgated" list to the Credentials Committee. On this motion, a roll call of all delegates, individually, was planned. Governor Hadley, as Roosevelt's floor leader, has arranged with former Representative James E. Watson, the Taft floor leader, for an hour and a half debate by each side on the question. This, with the time necessary for a long roll call, promises to prolong this phase of the bitter fight into late afternoon. Before adjourning the session, it was planned to recess until tonight.

Not Till Tomorrow Morning.

As now outlined by the leaders the convention will be organized to proceed to business Thursday morning. It is expected that the Credentials and Platform Committees will report Thursday night. The Roosevelt followers can then renew their demands for their roll and have another individual roll call. If Roosevelt's partisans are beaten then, the much discussed double convention may come. It was frequently rumored today that Roosevelt had urged his managers to take steps to force the issue regarding the demanded revocation of the National Committee's action in the contested cases. Roosevelt managers are still confident of their ability to swing the situation to their candidate. They claim they will have many additional votes on future roll calls. To support this claim they said they will have eight votes from Maryland, which went to Root on the chairmanship decision, and additional votes from North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Oregon.

Bolt Intimated.

"We will win out beyond question," said Senator Dixon, Roosevelt's campaign manager. Senator Poindexter, of Washington, was among the Roosevelt leaders who intimated that a possibility of a bolt by their forces was imminent. "In case these contested delegates are allowed to pass on their own claims, Roosevelt will be a candidate," said Poindexter. This was construed to mean but one thing—a bolt if Roosevelt finds himself in the minority. Roosevelt may visit the convention as a spectator, but the Taft leaders insisted he could not, under the regulations imposed by the National Committee, participate in the deliberations from the floor.

WILD SCENES OF DISORDER.

Chicago, Ill., June 19.—A war of heated words broke out in the National delegation during Governor Hadley's speech for Roosevelt. The motion to expunge the names of the ninety-two delegates from the roll of the convention was passed between Captain English and Delegate Dye. Great confusion was caused. Mayor Shanks, of Indianapolis, said Hadley was a liar. "He can get a scrap out of me if he wants it," said Shanks. The hall was comparatively silent when Shanks hurled this challenge at Hadley, speaking on the stage. During the disorder the chairman ordered a five minutes intermission, at 1:35, so those desiring could leave for the afternoon. The band played merry airs during the intermission. Gov. McGovern's motion to recess until 3 o'clock, met with a storm of "noes" from all parts of the hall. Previous to this incident the Pennsylvania delegation almost passed a fight by their actions and epithets hurled at a Taft speaker.

of success as the Roosevelt men. They assert that nearly all the Roosevelt delegates who voted for Root would remain with the Taft organization through the remainder of the convention. No great weight is being given the comprise candidate talk by either the Taft or Roosevelt leaders. After a mass meeting of Roosevelt delegates, Governor Hadley declared the situation was just the same as confronted the delegates when they flocked to the Coliseum yesterday at noon.

Temporary Officers.

Temporary officers for the Republican National Convention, named by the sub-committee on arrangements, of which Colonel Harry S. New, of Indiana, is chairman:

Opening Prayer Today.

The prayer of Rabbi Sois was as follows: "O, Lord, who art the loving Father of all mankind, the just Ruler of the nations, the everlasting God whose counsel of righteousness and truth prevaileth over the waves of passion and the tumult of voices, we bless Thee that Thou hast set our nation high among the peoples of the earth and has been our strength in every conflict, our present help in every time of need. "In Thy bounty, Thou has given us this land flowing with milk and honey; and in Thy gracious Providence, Thou hast destined it to become the Promised Land of Liberty and Equality; the home of the free, the refuge of the oppressed, the goal of the strong and the aspiring who would share our inheritance of Law and Order. And we praise Thee for the multitude who have found blessing within our borders; we thank Thee for every beneficent institution established within our domain; for what of Justice has become the common law of the land, for our godly heritage of tolerance and peace.

"And we beseech Thee, Lord of Hosts, be with us, as Thou hast been with our fathers. Help us to prove ourselves worthy of Thy blessings. Make us mindful of our duties as well as our rights, our responsibilities as well as our privileges. Grant us the insight that a people perisheth where there is no vision, and the understanding that a great nation maketh its rulers righteous and its officers Peace, seeketh leaders who debase the gain of oppression and withhold their hands from bribes, maketh chief those whose glory it is to serve mankind by Justice, Fidelity and Truth. Bestow upon the delegates assembled the spirit of wisdom and understanding of counsel and might, that they decide in justice and equity and not after the sight of their eyes or the hearing of their ears, and that they guide themselves by the truth that righteousness exalteth a nation and injustice is a reproach to any people.

"As so may Thy Kingdom come and Thy will be done on earth, Amen."

Convention Called to Order.

Senator Root, the temporary chairman, called the convention to order at 11:45 o'clock. Many seats on the floor and in the galleries were vacant. Considerable time was consumed in clearing the aisles before the chaplain offered prayer. In the hour preceding the assembling little excitement prevailed. To the accompaniment of a medley of airs, the delegations filed in. Scattering applause greeted various notables. Before the gavel fell Root, conferred with the Taft and Roosevelt floor leaders.

Not So Nervous Today.

The air of nervousness, which hung over the convention yesterday, was unnoticeable today. No one knew then what to expect. Today policemen chatted and laughed, secure in the belief they could handle whatever might develop.

Root announced that an agreement had been reached between Watson and Hadley that three hours' debate be equally divided.

Hadley Again Takes The Floor.

When Hadley opened the debate he was received with cheers.

Hadley Fires Broadly.

Gov. Hadley opened the three hours' debate, agreed upon, for argument of his motion to unseat the ninety-two contested Taft delegates. Jeers greeted Hadley before he proceeded far. He rebuked these and asked serious consideration for arguments on both sides.

Hadley finished at 11:58 o'clock and W. T. Dovel, of Washington, opened the argument for the other side. Roosevelt's "Greatest Voice." Hadley during his argument said: "It may be true there are many persons who do not agree with us, that Theodore Roosevelt should be our candidate for President, but there can be no difference of opinion that his voice is the greatest of the western world." Hadley's "indictment" of the National Committee, as uttered by Roosevelt Monday night, called forth big cheers. He reviewed yesterday's events leading up to Chairman Root's ruling, quashing the Hadley motion to "purge" the temporary roll. Hadley said: "We could have forcibly insisted on calling the roll on that motion and we could forcibly have taken control. Instead we chose to wait patiently until today." Hadley pleaded that personalities be left out of the debate; that the question was not one of any man's candidacy, but of principle, involving the very existence of the Republican party itself.

Calls Roosevelt a Liar.

Dovel, in his speech, was interrupted with angry jeers and questions from Roosevelt partisans. Dovel charged that Roosevelt was a liar. (Continued on Third Page.)

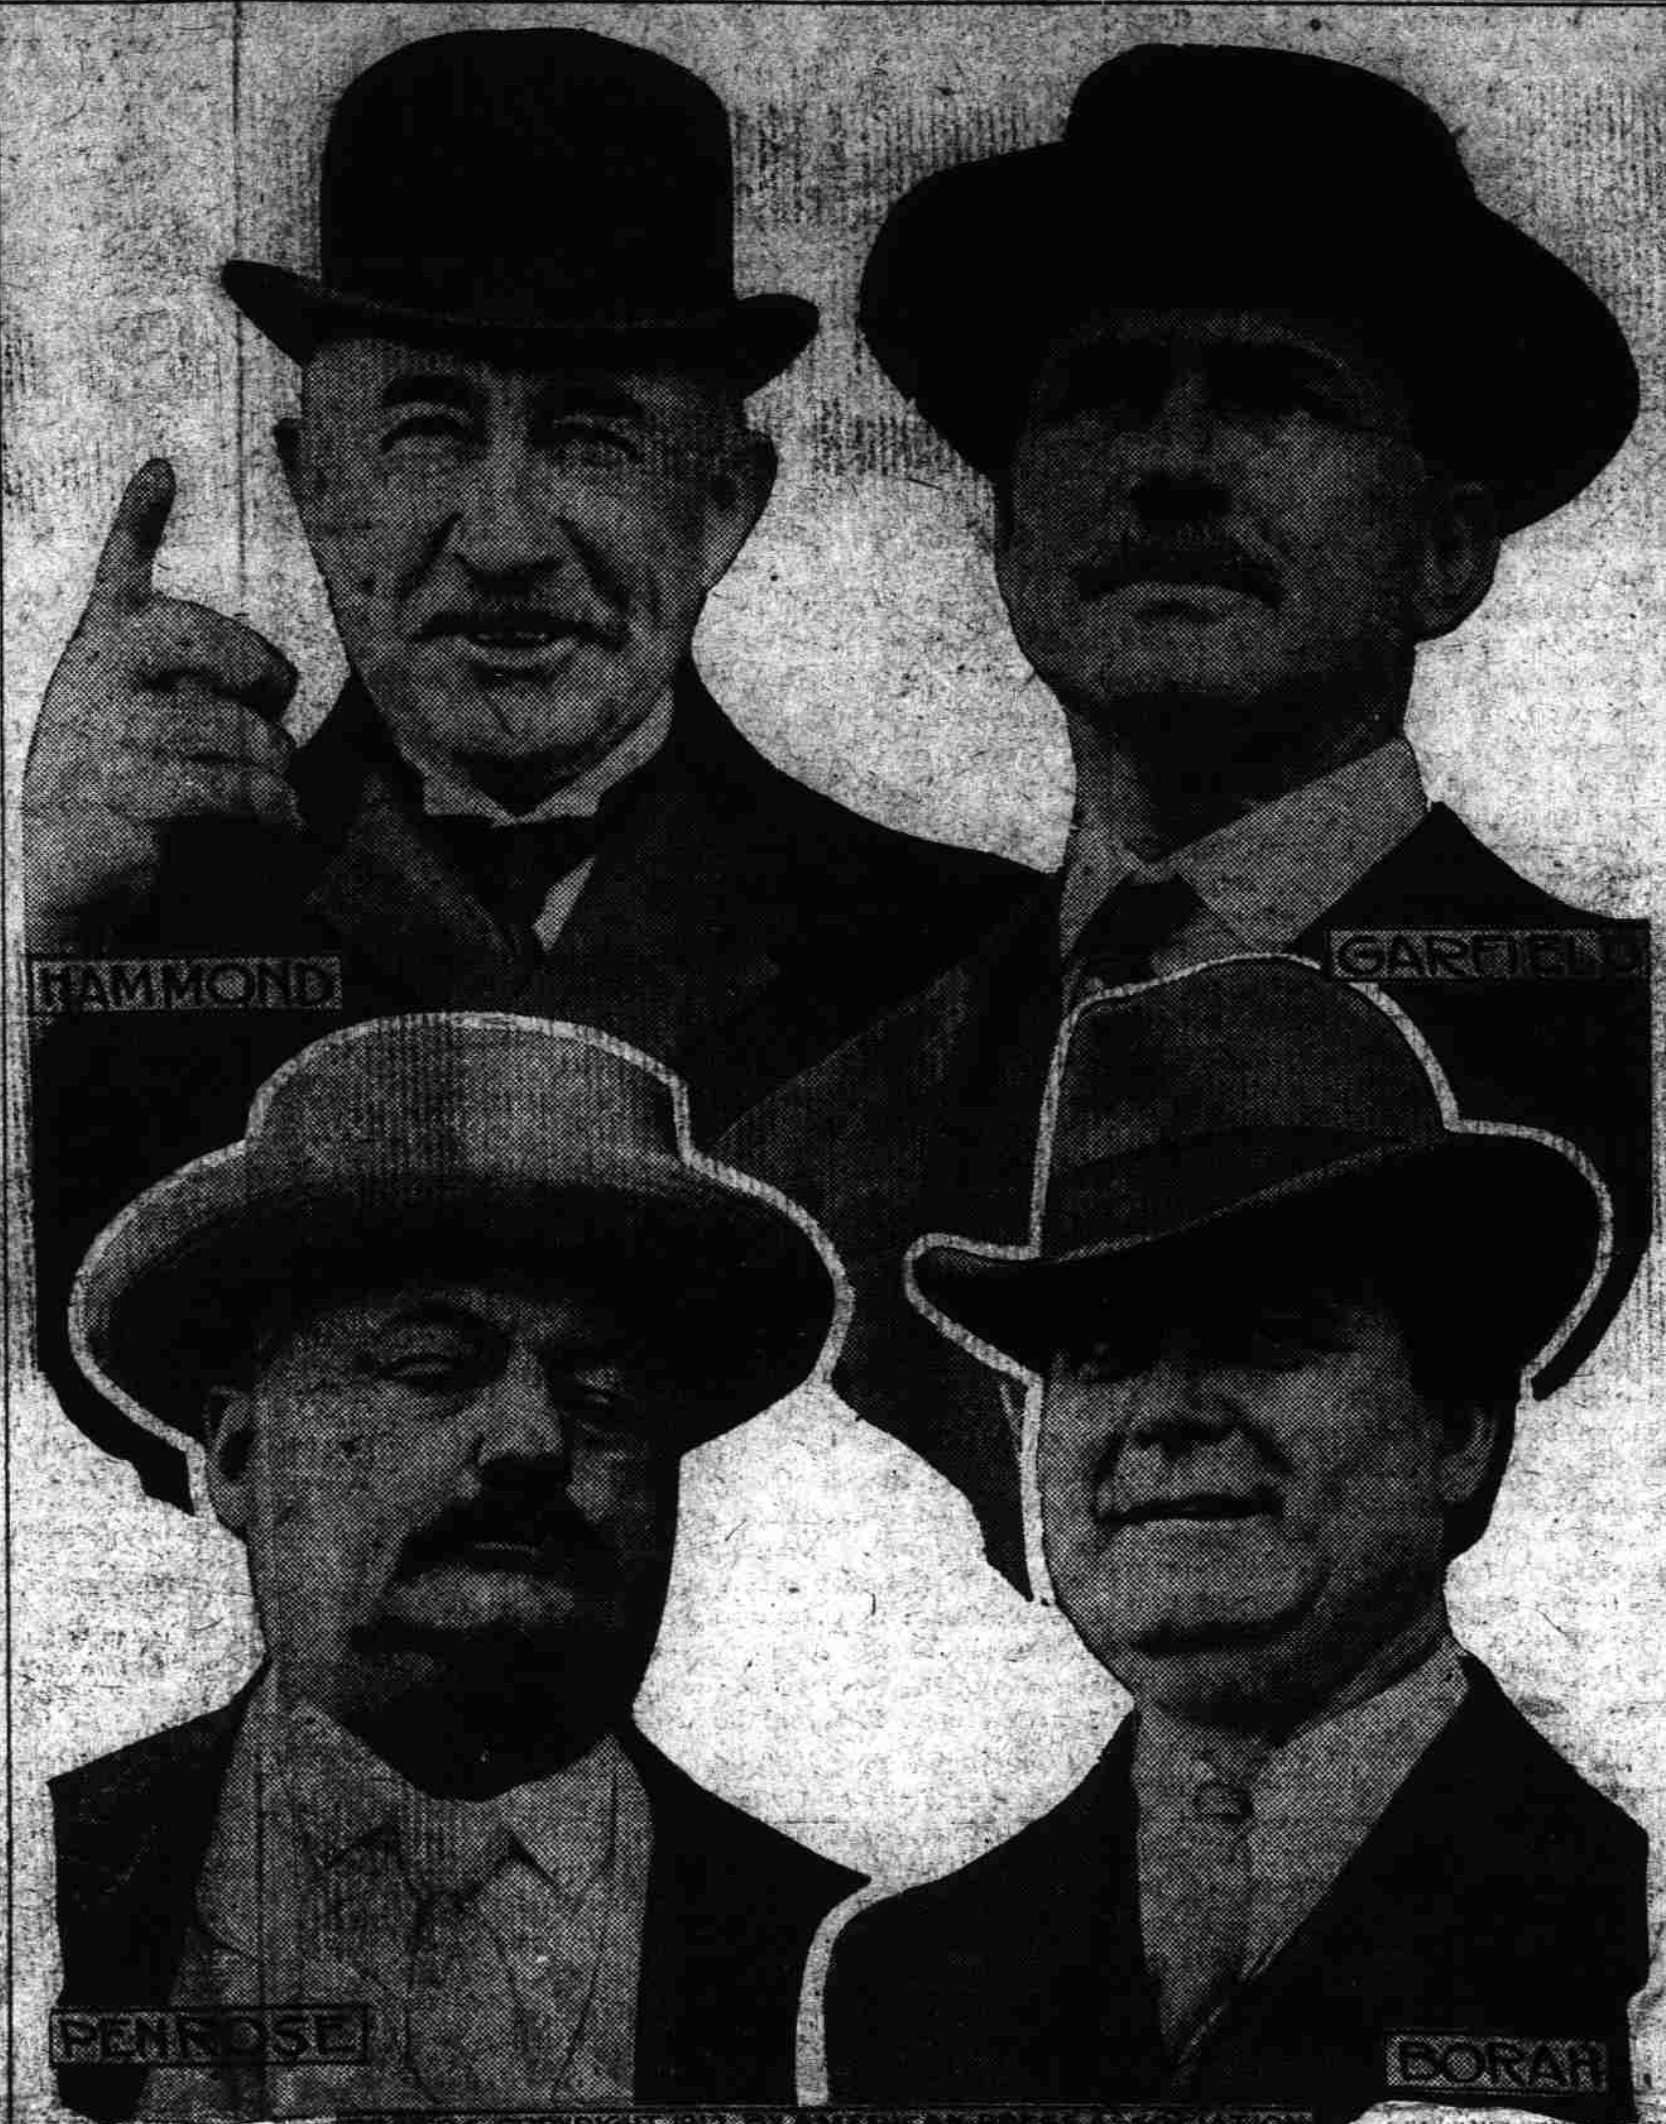

PHOTO COURTESY OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF LIBRARIANS. Chicago, June 19.—So many great and nearly great men have been in Chicago the past few weeks that they attracted little attention. Senators, Governors, secretaries and others have rubbed shoulders and been photographed. John Hays Hammond, the noted mining expert whose name is known wherever men dig in the ground for gold, silver or copper, has been here in the interest of President Taft. Boies Penrose, United States Senator from Pennsylvania, is doing similar work, while William E. Borah, Senator from Idaho, is directing Colonel Roosevelt's campaign for the nomination. James R. Garfield, of Ohio, once a member of President Roosevelt's so-called "Lennox cabinet," is aiding Borah's efforts.

SCENE TODAY AT BALTIMORE

Getting Ready For The Committee Meeting

Josephus Daniels' Vice Presidential Proposition Causing Much Talk—Headquarters of Candidates Are Busy—No Contests of Any Consequence.

Baltimore, Md., June 19.—Preliminary to the meeting tomorrow of the Arrangement Committee to select temporary officers for the Democratic National Convention, there was further discussion today of the proposition to have the candidates receiving next to the highest number of votes on the final ballot accept the Vice Presidential nomination. National Committeeman Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina, has recently made his proposition to his fellow committeemen. Mr. Daniels said: "Of course all Presidential candidates say they would not accept second place on the ticket but what else could they say now?" He stated that the make-up of the ticket from geographical stand points would be satisfactorily brought about by the adoption of this proposition.

Various Presidential candidates' headquarters are in full swing today. Secretary Woodson said today that all contests received so far are minor in character. He said: "I don't believe there will be more than forty seats contested. These represent perhaps half dozen delegations. None of them is serious." Lieut. Governor J. T. Ellyson, of Virginia, National Committeeman, says: "Virginia will be satisfied with any good candidate. The State has no candidate of its own."

MANY MINERS ENTOMBED BY EXPLOSION

Trinidad, Colo., June 19.—Thirteen miners were entombed, and are probably dead by explosion in a new slope of the Hastings mine today. One was rescued. Rescue equipment is being rushed to the scene. The disaster occurred three thousand feet from the mine's mouth. The explosion was probably caused by a "Windy shot" set off by gas.

CANAL WORK EXEMPT THE 8-HOUR DAY

Washington, June 19.—The President has signed the act of Congress limiting to eight hours the daily service of laborers and mechanics employed on Government work. Immediately afterwards the President issued an order of exemption for any contracts in connection with the Panama Canal work until January 1, 1913.

FRENCH MILITARY AIRMEN KILLED

Douai, France, June 19.—Captain Dubois and Lieut. Pelgman, French officers and airmen, were killed while piloting their airships around the military field in the early morning haze. They collided with terrific force.

"ANGEL CHILD" APPEARS AGAINST HER HUSBAND

White Plains, N. Y., June 19.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, heavily veiled, entered the court room today to testify against her husband, Harry K. Thaw, who is fighting for release from Matteawan. As she took her seat she gazed steadily at Thaw. No sign of recognition passed between them.

is always considered and if both Mr. Craig and Mr. Hoey are agreeable, the committee will doubtless make the election unanimous.

PUBLIC LIBRARY MAY PREVENT STATE GUARD MANEUVERS

As an Important Open Door For Information And Culture Will Be Extensively Discussed—Conferences of Librarians of Canada and United States Next Week.

Ottawa, Ont., June 19.—The opportunity afforded by the public library as an open door for information and culture will be set forth prominently at the conference of librarians of the United States and Canada at Ottawa, Ontario, June 26th to July 2nd.

The concern of the community in the awakening and development of taste in individuals will be the keynote of the program papers and addresses. This thought will be outlined in President Elmhurst's address and 3 of the general sessions will develop the theme more fully. Library publicity, book advertising, the breadth and limitations of bookkeeping, and the efficiency of library assistants and their relations to the public will be among the topics discussed. The program will partake of the international nature of the meeting, one session being wholly devoted to Canadian topics by Canadian speakers, among whom will be George E. Foster, Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce; James W. Robertson, C. M. G., of the Commission of Conservation; Prof. Andrew Macphail, of McGill University, Montreal; and George E. Locke, librarian of the Toronto public library.

Other speakers will be William H. Hatton, of New London, Wis.; Carl B. Rodon, of the Chicago public library; Walter L. Brown, librarian of Buffalo; Carl H. Milam, secretary of the Indiana library commission; Miss Tessa L. Kelso, of New York; Miss Mary E. Hazeltine, principal of the Wisconsin library school; Miss Edith Tobitt, librarian of Omaha; Adam Strohm, of the Detroit public library; and Chalmers Hadley, librarian of Denver.

One evening will be devoted to an address by Dr. George E. Vincent, president of the University of Minnesota, and formerly dean of the University of Chicago. Several sections and affiliated organizations will hold meetings in Ottawa at the same time, among which are the State Librarians' Association. (Continued on Seventh Page.)

MAY PREVENT STATE GUARD MANEUVERS

Washington, June 19.—The President's veto of the Army appropriation bill, may prevent this year's maneuver camps of the regular Army and National Guards. In most States, the camps were ordered for, before the middle of July, and preparation have been made at Anniston, Ala., for encampment of the guards of Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Carolina and Florida, beginning July 5. Arrangements were also completed for encampment beginning July 5, at Mt. Gretna, Pa., for guards of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The bill vetoed contained the appropriation of $1,350,000 to pay part expenses of the encampment.

Adjutant General Leinster, of North Carolina, when informed today that the President's veto probably made it impossible for joint maneuvers, expressed the belief that Congress would pass a bill appropriating a sum for the purpose. The Third North Carolina Raleigh Ambulance Company and field hospital were due to go to Anniston.

CHICAGO HAS ANOTHER POISON CASE

Chicago, June 19.—Arsenic in large quantities was found in the liver of Arthur Lindloff, and his mother, Mrs. Louise Lindloff, has been arrested. Judge Honore has ordered exhumation of the bodies of William and Alma Lindloff, husband and daughter of the woman. All were insured in the woman's favor.

CALL FOR NATIONAL BANK STATEMENTS

Washington, June 19.—The Comptroller of the Currency has issued a call for the statement of the condition of all National Banks in the United States at the close of business Friday, June 14th.

MERCHANTS MEET

State Association Having Profitable Annual Convention in Raleigh—Hoey, of Cleveland, Will Likely Head the New State Democratic Executive Committee.

Dispatch News Bureau, Raleigh, N. C., June 19, 1912.

With President Broughton in the chair the second day's session of the North Carolina Merchants' Association, began so auspiciously last night, started off today. A large number of delegates arrived during the night and the attendance was considerably increased. Reports of officers were made today and these were followed by discussions. New officers will be elected tomorrow night. An automobile ride and a barbecue will be the social diversions for the delegates.

Asheville, Wilmington, Morehead City and Durham are bidding lively for the next meeting of the Merchants' Association.

A four hundred thousand dollar corporation, known as the Brown Brothers Lumber Company was chartered by Secretary of State today for Murchison, Yancey county. All the incorporators except A. J. Wilson, of Murchison, hail from Panxistawaw, Pa. Every masculine eye in Raleigh today was turned toward the bulletin boards which announced the progress of the Chicago convention. Even the partisans of Governor Kitchin and Senator Simmons, always evident, ceased their interest for the present in the Senatorial contest and joined the hosts of other politicians at the bulletin boards. Both newspaper offices, were besieged with telephone inquiries and personal calls. Next week this time interest will be centered in the Baltimore convention. It may be stated that at the present time State politicians are having a hard time in getting their views before the public, as the papers are crowded with convention stories.

Clyde R. Hoey, of Cleveland county, is said to be the choice of Hon. Locke Craig for chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee and it is predicted that Mr. Hoey will be elected when the committee meets here on the night of July 1st. The preference of the gubernatorial candidate
