

SENATOR JAMES HANDS WILSON THE STANDARD

Delivers Strong Notification Speech at Shadow Lawn This Afternoon

PARTY CALLS HIM TO SERVE COUNTRY

Lauds The Wilson Administration and Declares The American People Are Not Ungrateful

(By Associated Press.) Shadow Lawn, N. J., Sept. 2.—United States Senator Ollie M. James, of Kentucky, in his address notifying President Wilson of his nomination for the Presidency again, spoke as follows: Mr. President: The Democracy of the Republic assembled in national convention at St. Louis, Mo., June 14, 1916, was genuinely representative of the true spirit of America—its ideals of justice and of patriotism.

These representatives of the purest democracy in the world, after three and a half years of trial of your service to the people of the country, with a Nation to choose from to fill the greatest office in the world, instinctively and enthusiastically turned to you. By this they not only registered their own will and desire, but also the will and wish of the people back home, whose trusted and honored spokesmen they were. With an enthusiasm, unanimity, and earnestness never surpassed in the political life of America, they have summoned you again to lead the hosts of peace, prosperity, and American righteousness.

"They do not make this call upon you for the purpose of honoring you, for you have already had bestowed upon you by your countrymen the greatest honor within their gift. They call you for service to America and mankind; a service you have so amply proved to be of highest type known to just governments among men; a service that has given justice to all men upon free and equal terms; a service that has restored taxation to its historic and constitutional function; a service that has freed trade to individual and honest endeavor; a service that has lifted from the tables and homes of the plain people of America a burden of taxation which they have unjustly borne for more than a half century and placed it upon the wealth and fortunes of the land; a service that has driven monopoly from its rendezvous of taxation; a service that has denied to the trusts of Republican creation a hiding place in our economic life; a service to the toilers of America that lifted them from the despised level of a commodity to the high plane of a human unit in our industrial life; a service that has dignified them—the great army of workers of the field, factory, and mine; a service that opened the courts to all men upon equal terms of justice and constitutional liberty; a service that freed the money of a nation from the control of a money oligarchy; and lodged it in the hands of the Government; a service that at once destroyed two trusts, a Money Trust and a Panic Trust, where the business can not be oppressed or destroyed by the manipulation of the money market, nor legislation controlled, intimidated, or suppressed by the Panic Trust. These two trusts that your service and matchless leadership destroyed live only in memory, as contemporary with the malodorous rule of the boss-ridden and monopoly-controlled stand-pat Republican Party.

"It is a service which has prepared the nation for its defense; a service to fair and equal treatment to all men by destroying a subsidy fed to an American monopoly; a service to the farmers of our country who yearn for a home and freedsie to call their own by enacting into law a Federal rural credits system that makes credit and home-building easy to the tillers of the soil; a service that in the stormiest hours of America's life and the bloodiest days of the life of the world, you have kept our people at peace with all the earth; a service that has kept homes happy, family circles unbroken, while the Old World staggers beneath its weight of sorrow, mourning and death; a service whose victories for the protection of the seas, the rights of neutral life, the protection of American citizens and American rights stands resplendent in the world's international law and in the earth's diplomacy. This great triumph which you achieved for America and the world gave protection to non-combatants and neutrals that war-mad countries must respect, and this diplomatic achievement will be the guiding, protecting precedent to millions of lives of the innocent and unoffending long after you are gone. Before the notification ceremonies the President gave a luncheon for the notification committee, members of the Democratic National committee, members of the cabinet and members of congress.

The President plans to place the summer White House tonight to return to Washington tomorrow morning and then go to Hodgenville, Kentucky, where Monday he speaks at ceremonies accepting for the Nation the home where Abraham Lincoln was born.

umph of yours will not be told in history by a great war debt, a mammoth pension roll, vacant chairs at unhappy firesides, and Decoration Day services to places flowers upon the mounds of those who achieved it, but it will be told in the victory of matchless diplomacy and of irresistible logic, presenting in an unequalled manner the everlasting principle of justice.

"Under your unrivaled and fearless leadership you have rescued the little children of America—the future fathers and mothers of our race—from the grinding slavery of the sweatshop and the factory. No dividends or fortunes in the future will bear the stain of their toil and tears; their youthful days will be spent in the fresh air of growing life and in the schoolrooms of the land, where they will be properly prepared in strength and mind to become the future citizens of a great, humane and free republic.

"You beheld your country after three and a half years of your administration more prosperous than ever in its history. The earnings of the laborers of America exceed by long after you are gone. This tri-

PRESIDENT WILSON ADDRESSING ASSEMBLED HOUSE OF CONGRESS.

TIME CONGRESS PASSES BILL STRIKE IS OFF

Brotherhood Leaders Decide This as to The Adamson House Measure

ROADS CALLING OFF WAR ORDERS

Convinced That There Will Be No Strike—Senate Will Reach Vote On Question by 6 O'clock This Afternoon.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., September 2.—The enactment into law of enough of President Wilson's program to prevent the railroad strike seemed assured when the Senate reassembled this morning at 10 o'clock, with the prospect of a program which called for a vote not later than 6 o'clock this evening.

It was the belief of administration leaders that the Adamson bill, as it passed the House late yesterday and as approved by President Wilson and formally accepted by the labor leaders as meeting their demands, would eventually be accepted by the Senate, thus obviating a delay in conference to reconcile differences with the House.

As soon as the bill is finally passed a special messenger will carry it to the summer White House, at Shadow Lawn, so the President may sign it at once and remove the menace of a general paralysis of the country's transportation lines early Monday morning.

"Just as soon as the House bill, unamended, becomes a law," A. B. Garretson said today, "the strike order will be recalled."

That was all Mr. Garretson would say regarding the probable time of calling off the strike. This was the first official statement showing that the House bill was wholly satisfactory to the brotherhoods.

From other sources came the persistent report that arrangements might be perfected whereby the strike would be called off officially before the President actually affixed his signature to the bill.

At a meeting of the thirteen brotherhood officials today in Washington it was formally decided that cancellation of the strike order should not be sent out until President Wilson actually has signed the eight-hour bill. The officials met again tonight after the Senate has acted and will decide then.

Many amendments to the House bill in the Senate would throw the negotiations in the indefinite stage and with that in mind administration leaders issued every effort, as the debate in the Senate progressed, to assure passage of the House bill in its original form.

Senator Sherman, Republican, assailed the efforts of the brotherhood and other labor organizations.

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy revoked its orders last night. The Western railway heads said the eastern roads would take similar action today.

COAST LINE OFFICIALS ARE WAITING RESULTS

Nothing Further is Being Done By Those in Authority Concerning Strike

CLERKS SEND LETTER TO I. C. C.

Express Full Approval of The Way in Which Officials Are Acting

Nothing new has developed at the headquarters of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company here today in regard to the impending strike of the trainmen of this system and of all other lines in the country and the officials are simple "sitting tight" and awaiting developments. The above is the gist of information received from Mr. Lyman Delano, Third Vice President of the Coast Line, this morning.

However, as the hour set for the general walkout of more than 400,000 train service employes on every railroad in the United States draws nearer the anxiety grows greater and any amount of interest is manifested by the railroad officials and the public generally all of whom will be effected more or less.

There is in Wilmington a large number of train service men who will leave their work at 7 o'clock Monday morning, the time set for the walk-out, unless the efforts by Congress to pass the Eight-Hour Law Bill are successful. It is the opinion of many here that there is a large number of engineers, firemen, conductors and other train service men who, will remain at their posts in case the strike order is not revoked by the heads of the several organizations. This, however, is problematical and only the actual condition will reveal the results.

In anticipation of the strike and the tie-up of passenger trains to a large extent there is a large amount of travel now on all trains, persons getting to their homes and headquarters as fast as possible. Salesmen who have Wilmington as their headquarters are arriving in on all trains in order to be at their homes station in event the strike becomes effective Monday.

Much optimism is being displayed by the Wilmington public as many are confident that the bills providing for the Eight-Hour Law will pass both branches of congress not later than this afternoon and thus avert the strike. In event that they do not go through they still feel that something will take place that will avert it. The following message signed by nearly everyone of the six hundred clerks in the general offices of the A. C. L., here was forwarded to Senator Simmons to be delivered to Senator Newlands, chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee:

"Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 1, 1916. "To the Hon. Francis G. Newlands, Chairman, Committee on Interstate Commerce, Washington, D. C.

"The undersigned, employes of the general offices of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, wish to express their entire accord with the position taken by the executive and operating officials of the railroads in their dealings with the trainmen; also in their conferences with President Wilson, especially regarding the matter of arbitration, as we feel the only proper method for settlement of differences of this character is by arbitration. If the demands of the trainmen are reasonable and deserving they have nothing to fear from arbitration when conducted along established lines and we trust in your handling of this matter it will be with a view to establishing such a law as will provide for arbitration of all differences in future."

CONGRESS ADJOURNS NEXT WEEK.

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Sept. 2.—Senate Republicans and Democrats are figuring on an adjournment of congress Thursday, September 7.

DECLARE ADVANCE OF RUMANIANS IS CHECKED

Teutons Hurl Force at One Point to Prevent Communication Being Cut.

GREEK SITUATION STILL UNCERTAIN

Report of King Constantine's Abdication Not Confirmed—Germans Regain Ground

(By Associated Press.) The Rumanian advance in lower Transylvania has been checked by the Teutonic forces, Vienna reports. The announcement relates the repulse of the Rumanians near the Danube river in the vicinity of Orsovo.

It is probable that the Rumanians are encountering the more severe resistance in this region than further north, for an important advance in this quarter would threaten the communication of the Central Powers with Bulgaria and Turkey. The Teutons apparently plan to shorten their line, holding the Orsovo region, and rest there the southern flank of the new line.

Further north the Austrian evacuation of Transylvania is being carried out without serious fighting. Vienna announces the abandonment of Hermannstadt, one of the most important towns of Transylvania, fifteen miles from the border.

The Austrian communication indicates that the new offensive of the Russians in Bukovina and East Galicia was inaugurated over a wide front. In one section alone, north of the Dniester river, the Russians advanced along a line of fifteen miles. Both of their assaults failed. Vienna announced. It was in this country that the Russians, according to yesterday's Petrograd communication, took more than 15,000 prisoners. The Bulgarians continue to attack along the western line in Macedonia, but the French war office asserts that they have been repulsed by the Serbians.

The part which Greece plans to play in the Balkan campaign has not yet been cleared up, although the report that King Constantine has abdicated and that Greece will join the entente at once has not been borne out.

An unofficial dispatch from Athens, filed yesterday, says that King Constantine received Premier Zaimis on Thursday and that the premier then announced that Greece would continue to maintain her policy of friendly neutrality towards the entente powers, while waiting events.

The newly formed Greek committee of national defense has been proclaiming a provisional government of Macedonia and it is reported unofficially that revolutionary troops have been enrolled.

The Germans attacked the French on the Somme front, last night, and reoccupied trenches south of Estrees, taken recently by the French. A small British gain, near Delville wood, is announced in London.
