

THEATRE

Another "greater than ever" new bill goes on at the Victoria today when the Winter Garden Girls Company present their great bill of the week, "The Suffragette General," a rare and racy musical comedy production full of new laughs, new song hits, nifty dancing numbers, and the funniest of all roles for that imitable blackface comedy king, Jack Grant.

Miss Lola Vann, in the title role as "the suffragette general," with Miss Hurley as corporal, Jack Grant as "Don Es Camilo," and Ralph Smith as "Capt. Bunkensmith," fulfill all expectations in their respective roles and furnish you with an hour of such high-class entertainment as you seldom fall heir to. A gay galaxy of "suffragette privates" include the pretty girls of the company in nifty and extraordinary costumes, something entirely different from anything previously seen this season or any other season, for that matter.

Musical and specialty numbers fall thick and fast on this new programme, beginning with "Wake Up America," a dashing patriotic song; "Chinatown," then a big dancing specialty by Ralph and Sue Smith, "Robinson Crusoe," and then Jack Grant, in his great dancing novelty, something new and entirely different from the others, seen this week, with two or three other big song numbers following.

PEARL WHITE TOMORROW.

Tomorrow Royal patrons will have an opportunity of seeing that great little favorite of the screen, Pearl White, our own dauntless Pearl of the exploits of so many great serials, together with that fascinating matinee idol of the "Iron Claw," Creighton Hale, appearing together in a great five-act Gold Rooster photo-play feature, "Hazel Kirke."

"Hazel Kirke," the latest Pathe Gold Rooster play, ranks as one of the old standbys of the American stage, having been played for years throughout the country. Pearl White, the charming Pathe favorite, is featured and is ably supported by a notable cast, which includes Bruce McRae, Creighton Hale and William Riley Hatch.

The story is of Hazel Kirke, a beautiful young girl who saves her father's mill from foreclosure through her friendship for Squire Rodney, one of her wealthy neighbors. All he asks in return is the hand of Hazel after she has been educated. This is agreed to, but she meets Arthur Carington and they are later married.

There is rapid developments from this point to the end, too rapid to readily foresee in this space. Rest assured you will see your old favorite, Pearl White, with handsome Creighton Hale in their very most fascinating roles.

PIONEER CITIZENS' ADVICE TO MEN

Emphasizes Importance of Being Well Dressed—Good Clothes Plays Prominent Part in Career.

One of the city's most beloved and esteemed citizens gives the young men of the city timely advice on the important part good clothes plays in making for success or failure. While there are thousands of true hearts beating under rugged jackets, at the same time it is an established fact that there is an invisible potency to the man well dressed versus the man who goes slipshod in his wearing apparel through life.

The philosophy of good clothes, it is said, has never been written. Carlyle evidently knew considerable of the influence and prestige of good clothes when he penned his "Sartor Resartus."

Mr. I. Shrier, who represents the International Tailoring Company, the largest tailoring establishment in the world, appreciates the extent to which proper wearables makes for a young man just starting out to fight life's battles, for he was once a young man himself, and while now 60 years young he has always been particular about his appearance, and where is the person who can say I. Shrier has not made his mark in the business life of Wilmington?

It is interesting to study Mr. Shrier's remarks, and among other things he had the following to impart:

"A majority of human beings are content to know that clothes are important, without knowing just why. Very few people today believe in the old maxim that 'clothes do not make the man.'"

"Experience is life's foremost teacher and has taught us that clothes convey an impression which words cannot carry, and right impressions go far toward establishing one's position in the business and social world."

"Only the wealthy can afford to dress out of the ordinary, and by this I mean indifferently. The rest of us and the young men in particular owe it to themselves and to their ambitions to put their best foot forward."

"But don't think that you have to spend a lot of money to make a good appearance. I am now offering every young man in the city an opportunity of possessing a new suit for Christmas, by inaugurating my installment plan of payment whereby we take your measure for suits ranging in price from $15 to $35 and allow you to make a selection from two to three thousand samples of the finest materials to be found. At the time your measure is taken a small initial payment is required and thereafter weekly payments are made until the amount to be expended for your suit is absorbed and then you are ready to go out and meet the world serenely."

"Today, well-cut, well-made clothes are practically within the reach of everyone. Some prefer to pay cash for their clothes, but any young man can take advantage of my proposition and pay for his clothes with spare change that would in most cases go for trifles."

"I do not hesitate in saying that the proper amount spent each year in the purchase of clothing is the wisest investment a young man can make. It is an investment that pays daily dividends in greater success to the wearer. And the best way to buy a suit is by taking advantage of my installment plan now opening with an unusually large enrollment."

At the store of I. Shrier you will find unexcelled opportunities to replenish your wardrobe and a variety of merchandise which allow a wide selection. If you wish to have a future instead of looking like the past, if you wish to establish self-respect and to command the attention and respect of others, make up your mind now to see Mr. Shrier, get together and talk the matter over to the mutual advantage of both. It is a step toward greater prosperity. Begin today. (adv.)

Tanlac Week, Celebrating Victory of Great New Remedy in Nation, Proves Success as Many Praise

Former Sufferers from Stomach, Kidney and Liver Ills Enthusiastically Join in Tributes to Medicine Which Relieved Them

Sick, weak, nervous, run-down men and women throughout all the United States are taking a new interest in life today, because this is Tanlac Week, celebrating the presentation of The Master Medicine to the American people two years ago.

Tanlac today is in two million homes because it has won an honored place as a household remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. The tens of thousands of people who have been benefited by Tanlac, the reconstructive tonic, appetizer, invigorant and revitalizer, are glad to join in praise of Tanlac because of their gratitude to Tanlac for relieving them of ills which discomfort, distress and endanger so many of their kinsmen, relatives, friends and neighbors.

Tanlac is Nature's Remedy

Tanlac's aid to the people has been unusual. It has been simple and natural, for Tanlac is Nature's remedy for the common, everyday ills and diseases which beset mankind, debilitate both men and women, deprive them of the happiness and fullness of existence that ought by right to belong to everybody; impair the digestion, destroy the appetite; retard the functions of the vital organs, and thus by injury to the stomach, blood and nerves destroy vigor, ambition and the general health.

The fact that Tanlac is sold and recommended by more than 8,000 druggists is in itself proof of its merit. The druggist is the friend and advisor of his customer. He says what he thinks is the truth about medicines.

"It gives universal satisfaction" is the usual commendation of Tanlac by druggists. "We are glad to handle it because our customers realize its worth."

Druggists Recommend Tanlac

The druggists who recommend Tanlac are the druggists who serve the people in the largest cities and in the smallest villages. But everywhere they are the big, upstanding, representative merchants of their communities, enjoying the confidence of all who know them. When they recommend a medicine they know that it is good.

"It is a pleasure to sell Tanlac because every purchaser is exactly satisfied" is a remark many of them make. "Tanlac gives satisfaction and people recommend it."

These 8,000 druggists in all parts of the United States who have so enthusiastically recommended Tanlac have a good reason for so doing.

They know that Tanlac deserves to be recommended. Back of Tanlac's triumphs in the drug store stand Tanlac's triumphs in the home.

Recognized as Supreme

Tanlac has so much merit, it is so splendid a remedy for stomach, digestion, kidneys and liver, that it has become a household remedy. Tanlac, known as The Master Medicine is coming to be known as The National Tonic because it is recognized supreme as a reconstructive, up-builder, appetizer, invigorant and revitalizer to relieve the weakness, illness and general depletion of body force resultant from the breaking-down of the digestive processes.

Mere eating is not enough to supply the body. The food taken into the stomach must be rendered into blood, bone and tissue. If the digestive organs are not ready to perform their functions the food becomes waste, sours, ferments and creates poisons which are carried throughout the system.

Tanlac is designed to aid assimilation so that food which is taken into the system will serve as fuel for the body to keep the human engine moving as it should. It has been said that Tanlac is like oil to machinery—it keeps the human engine moving smoothly and efficiently.

Fits People for Living

"Tanlac has made me one hundred percent more efficient" is a tribute often paid to Tanlac. Men and women have been made better fitted for the job of living, stronger, more vigorous, more ambitious, because they had a greater power and strength to use in meeting duties and enjoying pleasures.

Indigestion, dyspepsia, belching and bloating from gas, sourness and soreness of the stomach, inactive liver, biliousness, dizziness, kidney troubles, sharp, shooting pains in all parts of the body, rheumatism, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, falling off of weight, foul breath, catarrhal conditions of the mucous membranes—these ailments Tanlac was designed to relieve, and tens of thousands have testified that Tanlac relieved them, made them feel well and strong again, fit one more for the day's work and the night's sleep.
