WARSAW

Warsaw, Oct. 28.—The Children's Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held a very interesting and instructive meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Best, on last Friday afternoon, when their daughter, Lois, was hostess to the chapter. The guests were entertained on the spacious veranda, which was attractively arranged for the occasion, vases of scarlet salvia forming the floral decorations. In addition to the monthly historical program a very enjoyable supplementary program was prepared by the program committee. This consisted of a chorus by the chapter, a vocal duet by Misses Evelyn Anderson and Martha Best, a splendid written paper by Miss Martha Gresham, giving the war record of her grandfather, Capt. S. A. Johnson; a quartette by Misses Cora Holland, Julia Ricks, Annie Lee Arkins, and Elizabeth Anderson, a paper by Miss Evelyn Anderson. Miss Fannie Monroe was pianist. After the exercises tea and sandwiches were served by the young hostess, assisted by little Miss Sallie Faison Best.

Mme. Joseph Calliaux.

Vichy, Oct. 21.—The former French Premier and Finance Minister Joseph Calliaux and his wife, who four years ago shot the "Fisaro" editor, Calmette but was acquitted at her trial, were nearly lynched when they arrived at this famous watering place. At the outbreak of the war Calliaux was permitted to enter the army as a paymaster, although he had been accused of treasonable dealings with Germany by Calmette and others. His appointment caused a storm of indignation and he was forced to resign after a short time. Later it was reported that he had gone to South America. A few days ago the once powerful politician and his wife came to Vichy under an assumed name. Nobody surmised their identity until they were recognized on the street by the son and a brother-in-law of Calmette. When young Calmette shouted: "There is Calliaux, the traitor" the couple was surrounded by a howling mob and attacked furiously. Two crippled soldiers beat the ex-minister with crutches until he was rescued by a couple of policemen. In the meantime his wife, whose clothes had been torn to shreds by the mob, fell into a faint. During the night the
